

TOYS

FOR BOYS

Dolls

FOR GIRLS

And a host of all kinds of nice things for the little folk. Our toy department is all ready for your CHRISTMAS SHOPPING.

Do It Now!

You can select what you want---we will keep it for you and deliver it any time you may want it.

Don't Wait!

Until the last minute. If you do there isn't much to select from and you miss getting the best. Take our advice and

Do It Now!---Don't Wait!

Lara's

"THE STORE OF BETTER VALUES."

BITS ABOUT TOWN.

L. D. Wiest spent Monday in Redmond on business.
James Ryan is spending today in Redmond on business.
Goldie and Ted Hoke left yesterday morning for Chicago.
R. G. Sturgeon of Laidlaw was in town Monday on business.
J. C. Burris of Portland is visiting his father, Dr. A. A. Burris.
J. D. Davidson has been ill since Saturday with sciatic rheumatism.
A. E. Segal, Sr. and A. E. Segal, Jr., left Monday for Portland and other towns.

M. S. Lattin returned Sunday from Portland.
E. G. Rourke of Crescent spent several days here last week.
W. A. Bates is able to be out again after a week's illness.
Superintendent W. H. Bollin of O. W. R. & N. spent Saturday night here.
Mrs. F. O. Minor is at home from Corvallis for a visit of a week or ten days.
After an absence of about a year Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Hall have returned to Bend.
J. P. Johnson will add forty feet to the Thompson furniture store in order to give more room.
Mr. and Mrs. Will Fordham, who live up the river, are the proud parents of a nine-pound boy.
There will be an important meeting of the "Whatsoevers" at the church Tuesday afternoon at 2:30.
Mary L. Patterson has filed action for divorce against Ralph W. Patterson, in the Circuit Court at Prineville.
E. W. Wilson, who has been with Moody at Shaniko, has joined the force of the United Warehouse Co. here.
W. E. Guerin has been called to Sandusky, O., on business and will leave tomorrow to be gone a week or two.
After visiting friends, Miss Mary E. Kershaw, who has been in charge of the hospital here, will go to California.
No. 109, held by Miss Erika Johnson, was the lucky number in the raffle for the Irish crocheted collar made by Mrs. Herring.
Owing to lack of quorum, there was no meeting of the City Council last night. Councilmen Kelley, Sellers and O'Neill were absent.

Archie McGowan and Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Cecil and family.
J. H. O'Neill is having a one-story two-room office building erected on Minnesota street next to the building occupied by Hunter & Staats.
Snow in Crater Lake national park is reported to be already several feet deep. The present season was one of the latest in years.
Ben McCaffery, wife and child arrived Monday night to make their home in Bend. Mr. and Mrs. McCaffery are trained nurses and will have charge of the Bend Hospital.
W. T. Andrews of Portland, an expert lumberman of the Forestry Service, arrived Sunday night on a field trip to the Deschutes reserve. He will be here a week or ten days probably.
Miss Anne Markel was taken suddenly ill at school Friday and had to go home. She has been having considerable trouble with her eyes and will have to make a trip to Portland to get new glasses.
Millard Triplett and family left today for Ashland where they will make their home. Mr. Triplett's departure leaves a vacancy on the School Board which will be filled shortly at a special election.
Vernon A. Smith representing the Oliver Typewriter Co., was in Bend Saturday. The company has recently sold machines equipped with printtype to the Bend Milling & Warehouse Co. and E. M. Thompson.
On account of the poor light in the afternoons, the seats in the High School assembly room have been changed and now instead of facing west they face north. This places the windows at the backs of the students.
Regular morning and evening services will be held at the Methodist hall Sunday. In the evening Mrs. Lindborg and sister, Miss Carlson, will sing. Owing to the storm there was no service last Sunday night.
The dance given by the Royal Neighbors Saturday evening was well attended. The lady floor managers were Mrs. George S.

son, Mr. Patterson has been in business in Bend a year and a half, making many friends, and is regarded as a good acquisition to the bank's directorate.
Acting Pastor Cline of the Baptist church will be in Redmond Sunday looking after his work there and Rev. I. I. Gorby will preach at the church Sunday morning and evening. Sunday school and Christian Endeavor at the usual time. Mrs. Cline will lead the Endeavor.

If You Buy Anything from Us that Turns Out Badly Tell Us About It---We'll Make It Right.

Extra Good Corset Value.

To meet the large demand for a good, strong, medium priced corset, we have added to our line the "W. T." Corset--of country-wide fame. These corsets are made of fine quality batiste, medium bust, long hips and back. French model clasp reinforced by busk piece which not only makes it unbreakable, but keeps undergarments free from rust stains and is absolutely impervious to moisture or perspiration. Fitted with "Kant Kum Off" hose supporters which will not rip or tear away from the corset. A model meeting every requirement of the present style of dress. For a short time manufacturers give a handsome Queen Helene pattern silver spoon with every corset. You can get these corsets of us at..... $1.50

We have other corsets at..... $1.25 and $1.00

Infants' White Caps---Something especially attractive in Infants' White Hoods made of messaline, Jap silk, plain and embroidered poplins, prettily decorated with ribbons, cords, tassels and lace. A carefully selected assortment of the season's daintiest styles. One Bend lady bought the same hood from mail order house for 75c---our price 65c

HAVE YOU SEEN OUR ADVANCE SHOWING OF XMAS. GOODS.

ROWE'S STORE

NEXT DOOR TO POSTOFFICE, BEND
"The Same Goods for Less Money."

Supplies at Cost.
In order to close out to make room for other things, The Bulletin is selling typewriter ribbons, erasers, perforators, penholders, pens, notebooks, files, paper clips, pencils, timebooks, cashbooks, dividers, tapes, eyeshades, passepartout binding, etc., at cost. tf

AUBREY HEIGHTS.
Lots $10 cash and $10 a month. Eastes & Bean Realty Co., Agts. tf

Try the Oregonian Grill.

The Garvin-Loomis Construction Co.

INCORPORATED.
BUILDINGS
DESIGNED AND ERECTED.
General Contractors.
Central Building. Wall and Ohio Sts.

FREE! FREE!

Until November 20th an extra pair of pants with every Boys' Knickerbocker Suit.

Come early and get a choice selection. Some of the finest Boys' Suits ever shown in Bend.

W. C. Breidenhagen

SOAP

For the first time in Bend's history, Bend ladies can now get full value for their money in Soap. We have put in a stock of the well known "Diamond C" Laundry Soap and hereafter it will be sold at the price fair to all of

6 Bars FOR 25c

Many other equally big bargains in hand and fancy TOILET SOAPS.

It Pays to Trade at Rowe's

NEXT DOOR TO POSTOFFICE.

Mrs. C. S. Hudson left Sunday on a trip to Portland.
Mrs. J. B. Shouse returned from Portland Saturday evening.
Mrs. A. M. Lara entertained Monday afternoon with a thimble party.
The Eastes & Bean Realty Co. has had its office remodeled and greatly improved inside.
The meeting of the Priscilla Club this week was held at the Markel home last evening.
The Central Oregon Irrigation Co. building will hereafter be known as the Central building.
Mrs. Lutz, who has been connected with the hospital, expects to leave this week for San Diego, Cal.
S. C. Caldwell and family have moved into their new home on Wall street, in Deschutes addition.
L. W. Doonar and lineman came over from Prineville Monday to look after telephone work here.
Among the passengers from Bend Sunday morning was Mrs. L. B. Baird, who went down to Portland.
The regular W. C. T. U. meeting will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Ford.
C. F. Heywood of Portland spent yesterday in Bend soliciting business for the Northern Express Co.
G. A. Johnston arrived in Bend Friday night from San Francisco to file on a homestead or buy irrigated land.
After a ten days' visit to his brother, Clyde Faulkner, with his wife and son, returned today to Roseburg.
Rev. J. F. Vernon, Presbyterian field secretary, spent yesterday in Bend, going down to Redmond this morning.
The following Burns people went out on the train today to Portland:

We Want You to See the New FALL GOODS

COME IN and look around, see what the newest styles are and learn what really good goods can be sold for little money.

WE CORDIALLY INVITE YOU to come and acquaint yourself with the new fashions, even though you have no intention of buying.

We're ready with everything that is new and correct this season in apparel for men and boys

The new Suits and Overcoats are handsome this season, and we are exhibiting the choicest ones to be found. All are made according to this store's high standard of quality and workmanship and priced at our usual fair prices.

R. M. Smith Clothing Comp'y.

Everything to wear for men who care.

