

DO YOUR CHRISTMAS SHOPPING EARLY

For Your Sake:

We have everything ready for you--all our Christmas goods are in place--Toys, Dolls, Books and Games for the children, Fancy Goods of all kinds for the ladies and Neckties, Handkerchiefs, Hose, Bath Robes, etc., for the men. NOW, you can get an assortment of these goods--take your pick from a complete line, and take your time about making your selection. Pick out your goods--we will keep them for you and deliver them to you just when you want them.

Lara's

"THE STORE OF BETTER VALUES."

Five Weeks to Christmas

You Know the Rush in the Last Days. Spare Yourself by Shopping Early.

For Our Sake:

About half the people of this world do their Xmas shopping the last week before Christmas. Imagine the clerks of any store trying to handle a crowd of this kind. The early shopper has picked up the best goods in all lines, it is hard for you to choose anything from what is left, the clerks are trying to wait on everybody, and nobody is satisfied. Make your selection now--we will lay it aside for you and deliver just when you want it.

Lara's

"THE STORE OF BETTER VALUES."

BITS ABOUT TOWN.

F. F. Smith spent Monday in Prineville.

R. M. Sanders is assisting in the postoffice this week.

Tom Wall returned last night from a trip to Portland.

A. O. Hunter is in Seattle this week on a business trip.

Miss Mary E. Kershaw left this morning for San Diego, Cal., to make her home.

L. L. Fox spent yesterday in La Pine on business connected with his livery stable there.

Cort Allen spent Monday and yesterday in Bend, returning to his up river ranch today.

A six-inch water main is being laid to Center Addition by the Bend Water, Light & Power Co.

C. E. Nichols, one of the telegraph operators here, has bought lot 13, block 20, Center Addition.

Frederick W. Leverenz of Tumalo made final desert land proof before Commissioner Ellis yesterday.

C. A. Larkin and wife of Portland are guests at the Pilot Butte Inn. Mr. Larkin recently filed on a homestead.

Mrs. Duke, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. J. W. Irwin, for several weeks, left this morning for her home in Iowa.

Misses Edith Eastes and Sara Perry went down to Portland Friday on a visit.

George Higginson and Joseph Oleson of Tumalo were in town yesterday on business.

J. D. Davidson is able to be out again after suffering from a severe attack of rheumatism.

L. D. Wiest returned Monday evening from a two-day trip to towns down the railroad.

William Griffin, who has been working at Paisley for several months, has returned to Bend.

C. R. Powelson and wife of Portland have bought property near Tumalo and taken up their residence on it.

Mrs. F. O. Minor returned Monday to Corvallis to be with her son Kenneth, who is attending the O. A. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Abel Sellers, who have been visiting their son, W. B. Sellers, left yesterday morning for the East.

W. P. Smith and Edd Newman are putting a plate glass front in the old Millard Triplett building for C. W. Arnot.

A. M. Perry, Vernon A. Forbes and C. L. Hotaling Monday sold lots 16, 17, 18, 19 and 23, block 19, Park Addition, to R. G. Moyer, H. Cunningham, J. S. Jackson, N. E. Gilbert and C. L. True.

R. B. Gould returned Thursday from a trip to California.

Mrs. R. E. Grimes left Thursday morning for Salem on a visit.

L. B. Baird left Saturday morning to spend a few days in Portland.

C. S. Hudson went down to Portland Saturday, returning Tuesday night.

Mrs. W. M. Metcalf has disposed of her interest in the Bend Chili Parlor.

Mrs. Edd Newman will entertain the Five Hundred Club tomorrow afternoon.

The Bridge Club was entertained Friday afternoon by Mrs. W. W. Faulkner.

F. A. Brainerd, trainmaster of the Oregon Trunk, spent Friday night here.

R. M. Smith returned Sunday evening from a trip of several days to Portland.

Sylvester Staats has moved his law office next door south of The Bulletin office.

Barney O'Donnell spent several days in Seattle last week, returning to Bend Friday.

J. J. Boman of Astoria came in Friday night to take up residence on his homestead.

Mrs. Hugh O'Kane, who has been in Portland for several months, returned last night.

Mrs. J. W. Dimick went down to Portland Saturday to spend several weeks visiting relatives.

Coble & Sumrall have moved their law office to the Hazen building, next door to McCuiston's.

The Misses Wiest were hostesses for the Friscilla Club this week, at the meeting held last evening.

J. C. Burris, who has been visiting his father, Dr. A. A. Burris, left yesterday for his home in Portland.

After spending ten days here visiting friends, W. S. Stevenson left Saturday for his home in Portland.

F. S. Stanley, Jesse Stearns and a party of other Portland men spent several days here last week on business.

Olaf Hemstad of Seattle, who has a homestead claim to the southeast, came in this week to establish residence on it.

Vernon A. Forbes returned from his trip to the East, Thursday evening. He reported severe weather in the Middle West.

J. G. Brinson, recently from Portland, has opened a woodyard in Lytle. The family moved last week into their new house.

George W. Peterson arrived from Portland last night to superintend the putting in of the Lytle and Riverside water system.

H. I. Paul, an old Vermont friend of the Wing brothers, is here from Portland this week visiting them and may locate in Bend.

The auction sale held by Howard Spining Saturday was well attended and good prices were received for everything put on the block.

Oscar Cruse and Martin Johnson, who have been in town a few days, left for their homesteads 50 miles to the southeast this morning.

W. R. Storm and son-in-law, A. P. Couch, are building a four-room cottage in Deschutes Addition. They will conduct a woodyard.

H. B. Switzer and R. F. Barker, timbermen from Portland, went out with Clyde M. McKay this morning to look over the timber to the south.

H. C. Oliver, traveling freight and passenger agent of the O-W. R. & N., is in Bend this week getting acquainted with the business men.

W. D. Newlon came up from Portland the last of the week on business in connection with his Wiestoria property, returning Sunday.

Mrs. A. M. Mettelholz of Grand Forks, N. D., arrived in Bend Monday night to investigate Central Oregon with a view to locating here.

D. D. Gardner and F. S. Safford have returned from Prineville where they assisted in engineering work for the Northwest Townsite Co. for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Hall, who have come back to Bend to live after a year's absence, have rented the Millard Triplett residence next to Linster's Hall.

Clyde Corkett and two children, Charles and Earl, arrived in Bend Wednesday night from Minneapolis to join Mrs. Corkett. They will make their home here.

The Catholic chapel car arrived Saturday night and was switched on the spur to the flour mill. Services are being held daily this week at the Catholic church.

F. N. Wallace and Peter Jensen of Laidlaw spent Monday night here on their way to La Pine with a load of potatoes for J. E. Morson of the Deschutes Land Co.

W. H. Wing has sold The Palm to Clyde Corkett of Minneapolis. Mr. Corkett will conduct the business at the same place, and in connection will run a candy kitchen.

H. P. Smart, vice president of the Wells & Dickey Co., farm mortgages and bonds, of Minneapolis, spent several days here last week looking over the town and surrounding country.

A barn dance will be given at Linster's Hall Thanksgiving evening. The decorations will be hay and harness and everybody is requested to wear their old clothes. There will be moonlight waltzes and barn dances.

Lee Davenport returned Sunday night from a trip to Arizona. He said when he left there last week the weather was cold and blustery and in the fields he saw many cattle dead from exposure. Mr. Davenport was met here by his wife and drove out to his ranch near Powell Butte Monday.

The Bend Co.'s sawmill, which has been closed down since last week on account of the supply of logs running out, will resume cutting in a few days. Manager McKay says. A big drive of logs is being made, E. A. Smith having sold to the company logs cut on the east side of the river.

HIGH SCHOOL NIGHT AT STAR.

The High School students have arranged with the management of the Star Theater for a benefit program Thursday night, Nov. 23. There will be three shows starting at 7:30, 8:30 and 9:30, respectively. Special music has been provided and High School pupils will present a sketch entitled "The Human Organ." The following films will be shown: "Captain Barnacle's Courtship," "The Shelling of the San Marcos" (feature film); "In the Days of Chivalry." Buy your tickets from the High School people.

The Garvin-Loomis Construction Co.

INCORPORATED

BUILDINGS

DESIGNED AND ERECTED.

General Contractors.

Central Building

Wall and Ohio Sts.

LOOK at these PRICES

Seal brown moleskin Australian lamb lined Ulster, 52 inches long, with silver gray wombat collar, for $14.00

Moleskin sheep-lined coat with beaverized collar and heavy sleeve lining, 32 inches long, for $5.00

Corduroy double-breasted Coat, mackinaw lined, high corduroy collar, 32 inches long, for $4.00

Moleskin blanket-lined Coat, with extra slicker lining, 32 inches long, a good water and wind proof coat, for $4.00

A good blanket-lined moleskin coat, with corduroy collar, 32 inches long, for $3.00

W. C. BREDENHAGEN

FREE SOUVENIRS FOR THE LADIES

Our First Annual Opening

COMBINED WITH A COMPLETE

Showing of Christmas Goods!

THE last of this month our store will be one year old and to commemorate its first birthday, we will have Our First Annual Opening on next Saturday, November 25th. Combined with our anniversary event we will put on exhibition our first complete showing of Christmas Goods for the season. Everyone is invited and urged to visit our store on that day and see the handsomest and most complete line of Christmas Goods ever shown in Bend. A handsome and useful souvenir will be given to each lady.

Our Christmas display last year of fine China and Glassware was the talk of the town. We will have equally as fine a one this year, and a special invitation is extended to all the ladies to come and look over our handsome line, whether you wish to buy or not. All are equally welcome.

And then we have Toys galore for the little ones—a better and more varied selection at the same reasonable prices that made such a profound sensation on the town and country and caused our store to be the Mecca of Holiday shoppers last year. The offerings abound in originality, merit and good taste, displayed in scores of the nicest gifts imaginable for old and young. Christmas buying at this store results in the delight of the folks at home. Appropriate Gifts for every member of the family—father, mother, sons and daughters.

Remember the Date, Saturday, November 25th, and that this is a Special Invitation to You.

The Same Goods for Less Money.

ROWE'S STORE

Next Door to Postoffice, Bend