Harry G. Smith, Traveling Passenger Agent of the Northern Pacific, Says People of Eastern States are Being Told of Northwest's Wonders

Harry G. Smith, traveling passenger agent of the Northern Pacific Railway, with headquarters at Portland, is in Bend this week on his first trip to this part of Oregon. He says he is delighted with the climate here.

"From present indications, there will be a heavy passenger traffic to Oregon," said Mr. Smith, "and to this part of the state, next spring when the colonist rates go into effect. We look for excellent results from our publicity work this winter. Heretofore the people East of Chicago have not been told much about this part of the country, but the railroads are now letting them know of the resources of the Northwest. We expect the land show held recently in New York to attract many to the Pacific Coast. The attendance there was remarkable, more people coming to see the exhibits and to secure literature than could be accommodated in the building where the show was given.

"The Governors' Special, now on a tour of the East, is also attracting much attention and will do much to interest the people."

Gone to Waste.
"I don't like the way they reported my speech," complained the new congressman.
"Why they sprinkled in plenty of laughter and applause."
"Yes, but how about all those gestures?"—Kansas City Journal

Thinking OF Christmas

Do you know what this girl is thinking? She is thinking that CHRISTMAS IS NEARLY HERE and wondering what Santa Claus will bring her. Fact. You can tell it from her attitude.

It is time you were thinking the same thing, for Christmas is nearly here and you would better do your shopping soon to avoid the rush. It would be a crime for this child and others like her to be disappointed. She will be a child only once—at least this time—and is entitled to all the happiness youth has to give her. Do your part today lest you forget.

To shop early means that you SPARE THE SHOPGIRLS, that you buy from a fresh and complete stock, that you are not crushed and manhandled in the crowd, that you will have the thing off your mind and that you can thus remember all your friends.

TO SHOP EARLY MEANS MAKING CHRISTMAS A PLEASURE AND NOT A NIGHTMARE.

To forget now means to regret later.

Old Fitz's Absentmindedness.
Of Fitzgerald's absentmindedness and preoccupation a good story is told. He was going to London from Woodbridge to visit some friends, taking with him his handy man. When Woodbridge was left the sky was clear and cloudless, but when London was reached it was raining in torrents. Fitzgerald paced restlessly up and down the platform, expressing regret at having failed to bring his umbrella and occasionally sending his man out to see if the rain had ceased. Suddenly Fitzgerald stopped in front of a time table. A brilliant inspiration had come to him. His long, artistic fingers followed the dotted lines, and then, taking out his watch from his fob, he said to his man, "John, go and fetch my umbrella and catch the train back again." And away went faithful John to Woodbridge on a journey costing twice as much as an umbrella could have been purchased for just outside the station, while Fitzgerald stayed in the waiting room. —T. P.'s London Magazine.

Worse Than a Galley Slave's Life.
Less than a century back life at Eton appears to have been even harder than at Christ's hospital. An old Etonian who left the school in 1834 describes his experience there as "worse than that of many inmates of a workhouse or a jail. To get up at 5 o'clock on freezing winter mornings; to sweep their own floors and make their own beds; to go two by two to the pump for a scanty wash; to eat no mouthful of food until 9 o'clock in the morning; to live on an endless round of mutton, potatoes and beer; to sleep in a dismal cell without chair or table—such was the lot of boys whose parents could not pay for a private room. Some of these underwent privations that might have broken down a cabin boy and would be thought inhuman if inflicted on a galley slave."—London Spectator.

Boxing the Ears.
"Don't box a naughty child's ears. Don't allow any provocation to tempt you to strike a child on the head." is the injunction contained in an article on skulls issued by the International hygiene exposition at Dresden. Corporal punishment of any kind, says the writer, is wrong, but when the head is the point of contact between the angry parent and the child the former may easily become a murderer. In a collection of skulls at the exposition lent by the Wurzburg university there are many of children as well as adults which show that the abnormally thin skull is not unusually found, even in otherwise normal human beings, and the causes of death, which are stated on cards attached to the skulls, are intended to serve as warnings to parents, teachers and guardians.

How Water Freezes.
It used to puzzle all thinking people why ponds and rivers do not freeze beyond a certain depth. This depends on a most curious fact—namely, that water is at its heaviest when it reaches 40 degrees F.—that is, 8 degrees above freezing point. On a frosty night as each top layer of water falls to 40 degrees it sinks to the bottom. Therefore the whole pond has to drop to 40 degrees before any of it can freeze. At last it is all cooled to this point, and then ice begins to form. But ice is a very bad conductor of heat. Therefore it shuts off the freezing air from the big body of comparatively warm water underneath. The thicker it gets the more perfectly does it act as a great coat, and that is why even the Arctic ocean never freezes beyond a few feet in thickness.

The Japanese Empire.
The Japanese empire proper is made up of four large islands, Nippon, Shikoku, Kyushu and Yeddo and about 3,800 small ones, many of them too small and rocky for habitation. In area the empire is very nearly the same as the state of California, about 124,000 square miles. It has a population of between 45,000,000 and 50,000,000, the larger part of it being engaged in agriculture and fishing. The arable land of the whole empire, not including Formosa or Korea, is about 2,000,000 acres, or just about that of the state of New York.—New York American.

Even Up.
"Do you think it is ever going to clear up?" said the talkative man on the front platform.
"I do, sir," gruffly replied the man addressed. "And as I'm a lawyer that opinion will cost you a fee."
"My friend," returned the first man promptly, "your liver is out of order. Better take a pill. And as I'm a doctor that squares us."—Boston Transcript.

The Real Test.
"I shall make it a rule," said the young man who is learning politics, "never to go back on my friends."
"An excellent rule," replied Senator Sorghum, "but the real test of the game is to keep your friends from going back on you."—Washington Star.

Dirty Windows.
A German professor has ascertained that in industrial cities windows which have not been washed for ten days exclude from 35 to 48 per cent of the light. If not washed for four weeks they may exclude as much as 80 per cent of the light.

Well Defined.
"Pa, is a vessel a boat?"
"Er—yes, you may call it that."
"Well, what kind of a boat is a blood vessel?"
"A lifeboat."
