

ARM BROKEN, GOES 9 ROUNDS

HOUSTON SHOWS RE- MARKABLE NERVE

Boxing Contest Saturday Evening Won by "Cinch" at End of the Eleventh Round—Crowd in Attendance not Large as Expected

With his arm broken just above the wrist, Willard M. Houston gave one of the most remarkable exhibitions of nerve ever seen in Bend by continuing for nine rounds the boxing contest with James Servallo ("Cinch Kid") Saturday night. At the end of the eleventh round Houston's seconds threw up the sponge and Referee Joe Innes declared Servallo the winner.

A fierce blow to the head of his opponent by Houston in the second round snapped the bone in the left forearm, but he kept on fighting. The injured limb could be used only to ward off the blows of his antagonist and Servallo thought Houston was "stalling," not being aware that the bone had been broken. The contest was quite a lively exhibition throughout, despite the handicap of one of the participants. The crowd in attendance was not as large as was expected by the two boxers. The terms of the mill were winner take all.

TRAPPER GIVEN WARNING.

To the Editor of The Bulletin: On last Monday some "recreant" parties took the liberty to steal some steel traps in Wiestoria. Tuesday morning they were promptly tracked up and are being earnestly searched. The rule among trappers is to shoot a trap thief when caught, and in this case the rule will be strictly adhered to. If the guilty parties do not wish to be exposed it might save their reputation if they will leave the traps where they got them. Further information may be had by calling at The Bulletin office, where they can learn who had this published.
