

THE ONE BIG MONEY SAVING SALE OF THE YEAR

WILL CONTINUE UNTIL SATURDAY, JANUARY TWENTY-SEVENTH!

The weather man has been very much against us from the start. Many of our friends have written or telephoned us asking to have certain articles laid aside--- that they would be in as soon as they could get here. To accommodate everyone we have decided to continue the sale for another week.This is not a sale where the price of a few staples is reduced. Every article in our entire stock is marked with a red tag and every red tag means A SAVING TO YOU OF FROM TEN TO FIFTY PER CENT, on all of your cash purchases. Look over the big red poster we mailed you last week. We could only list a few items in each department---there are hundreds of others all over the store and new specials every day. It will be well worth while to read the specials offered below:

Mrs. L. B. Baird will entertain the Evening 500 club at her home tonight.

S. R. Kelley has returned from Portland where he spent several weeks.

The meeting of the Afternoon 500 club tomorrow will be held with Mrs. Wilson.

Mrs. Maude Ainsworth returned last night from a business trip to Portland.

H. E. Grimes and wife of the Pilot Butte ranch have returned from visiting in Salem.

Dr. W. W. Faulkner and wife returned Sunday night from a holiday trip to Roseburg.

Alfred A. Aya of Lapine spent last night at Taggart's, going down to Portland today.

Mrs. Jessie Boughton and son, Willis Noland, came in Sunday from their Millican Valley homestead.

R. G. Shrader, local agent of the Bend Park Co., left Monday morning on a short business trip to Seattle.

H. J. Eggleston has installed a machine with which he can oil an entire set of harness in thirty minutes.

A lake of water more than a foot deep was formed at Kentucky and Wall streets Saturday when the snow melted.

Mrs. George A. Jones entertained the Bridge Club last Friday afternoon. The meeting this week will be with Mrs. Lara.

Robert Simpson has gone to Seattle to move his family to Bend. They will occupy the house where Rev. M. W. Weaver now is.

Judge Ellis went down to Madras Saturday, returning Sunday night. He reported that the mill fire was seen there very plainly.

I. E. Wimer and wife and son were guests at the Pilot Butte Inn last night, returning from Portland to their home at Laidlaw.

H. K. Love, United States marshal in Alaska with headquarters at Nome was a visitor here the first of the week, looking over the town.

Work will be started in a short time on a five-room cottage which J. F. Arnold will build on Hawthorne avenue. J. W. Dimick has the contract.

H. A. Rhoads of Mitchell, S. D., arrived in Bend last week to spend some time and he may decide to locate here. He is an old resident of W. J. McGillivray.

M. S. Mayfield, the big upper Deschutes cattleman, was at Taggart's Tuesday night. He stated that he was now wintering 400 head of cattle on Crooked river.

The special school election for school successors to Director Millard Triplett and Clerk West will be held at the hose house next Monday from 2 to 6 p. m.

There was not a moving picture show in town all last week and Sunday night when the films that came in on the train that morning were run the house was packed.

Supervisor J. Roy Harvey of the Deschutes National Forest left Saturday morning for Portland to attend a five-day meeting of forest supervisors which opened Monday.

Mrs. Creed M. Triplett and children were among the passengers who were snowbound at Metolius. They returned to Bend Thursday and Saturday made a second start to Eugene.

The Oregonian of Sunday, Jan. 7, contained cuts of the Bend depot, warehouse, Boyd block and J. I. West building, with accompanying write-up of stone building operations here.

The subject of woman suffrage will be presented at the meeting of the W. C. T. U. at the home of Mrs. Ford tomorrow afternoon at 2:30. All women interested are invited to be present.

The auto trucks showed that they are year-round freighters by the run through the snow last week to Burns. The snow at Burns was nearly four feet deep but did not affect the trucks more than to delay them a few hours.

James Ryan, who was called to St. Paul by the serious illness of his father, returned Sunday night. The temperature was 37 below zero when he left there. The elder Mr. Ryan, who is 72, successfully underwent an operation for appendicitis.

The Star Bakery and Restaurant will move, within a few weeks, into the Boyd building. A restaurant and bakery will be conducted on the ground floor and a rooming house on the second. Mrs. Wright intends to make it one of the finest places in town she says.

ASKS FOR FRANCHISE.

Henry Linster has petitioned the County Court for franchises for water and electric system in Aubrey Heights, on the west side of the river from Bend.

CARD OF THANKS.

On behalf of the owners of the mill I wish to thank all those who labored so valiantly at the fire Saturday night.
