

3 DAYS MORE

Next Saturday, January 27th, is the last day of the BIG MONEY-SAVING SALE.

The prices offered during this sale are THE LOWEST EVER MADE IN BEND. Never mind the weather. It is to your interest to buy your goods during this sale. It means money saved for you.

Lara's

"THE Store of Better Values."

ONLY 3 DAYS MORE!

BITS ABOUT TOWN.

E. M. Lara went down to Portland Sunday on business.

Rev. M. W. Weaver went down to Madras this morning.

The Bridge Club will meet Friday afternoon with Mrs. Wilson.

Walter Cheadle left yesterday morning on a short trip to Portland.

The We-Boys Club will give a dance Saturday evening at Linster's Hall.

A hydrant has been installed at the corner of Bond and Nevada streets.

Mrs. J. M. Lawrence and Mrs. F. E. Smith went down to Portland Monday.

Mrs. Clyde Corkett and son Charles left Sunday morning on a short trip to Portland.

Mrs. W. W. Faulkner will entertain the Evening 500 club at her home tonight.

E. G. Rourke of Crescent spent two days here last week, going down to Portland Sunday.

H. A. Miller, after an absence of several months in the East, has returned to Bend.

Mr. and Mrs. D. L. McKay of Portland are visiting their son, Clyde McKay, and family.

A. O. Hunter, who has been in the East for some time, is expected back in Bend this week.

Archie McGowan of Burns spent last night here, going down to Portland this morning.

Louis Doonar of the Pioneer Telegraph & Telephone Co. came over from Prineville Sunday.

J. N. Keatts left yesterday morning for Pomeroy, Wash., having made final proof on his ditch land east of town.

Miss Goldie Hoke returned Friday from Chicago and other Eastern cities, where she visited for several weeks.

Harry J. Douglass, with his family, will return to Detroit, Mich., the first of next month to look after his property interests there.

Lewis Grube and George J. Hauck of Pennsylvania have bought lots 14, 15 and 16 in Center addition and will each build a substantial residence.

The Commercial Club announces that the receipts of the warehouse dance were $291.15 and expenses $85.50, giving a balance of $115.65.

The Episcopal Guild will serve an oyster supper on Tuesday evening, January 30, at the Millard Triplett building, beginning at 5:30 o'clock.

H. E. Gibson of Minneapolis is expected here tomorrow. He comes on business connected with the adjusting of the fire loss at the Bend Co.'s mill.

Mrs. J. A. Eastes is in Portland at the bedside of her daughter, Miss Edith, who has pneumonia. Her condition has been serious for several days.

R. G. Shrader, local representative of the Bend Park Co., returned last night from Seattle, accompanied by his wife, and will make his home here.

The church will be occupied regularly hereafter on alternate Sundays by the Baptists and Presbyterians, with joint sessions of Sunday school and young people's society.

Rev. H. B. Foskett will speak at the church next Sunday, morning and evening. His morning subject will be "The Go of the Gospel." Evangelistic service at night. All are invited.

Under the firm name of N. W. Schieber & Co., J. B. Cowgill and N. W. Schieber, recent comers to Bend, are doing a general contracting and building business. Their ad appears elsewhere in The Bulletin this week.

Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Wiest and daughter Pauline will leave tomorrow morning for California, to be gone about three months. They will be at Long Beach most of the time, making numerous side trips from there.

Sylvester L. Staats bought a mahogany piano of E. M. Thompson, which was delivered Saturday. Mr. Thompson also received another instrument last week which he has added to his large furniture stock.

Miss Elizabeth McGowan and Helen G. Atee spent several days here the past week soliciting for the Louise Home in Portland. They secured about $200 and stated that they were pleased at the liberal contributions of Bend people. They left yesterday morning for Redmond.

James R. Barkley, cartoonist-lecturer, appeared at Linster's Hall on Monday night as the third number in the lyceum course. He was not scheduled to be here till next Saturday night, and many holders of season tickets could not attend the lecture. It was very good, say those who heard it.

A cement cistern with a capacity of 500 barrels is being used by Geo. Bates this winter. He says the cement is a great improvement over the old wooden cistern, which had to be used before the railroad made it possible to get cement. Mr. Bates has both hot and cold water in his dairy barn.

An ejection case was heard in Justice Lawrence's court Monday. Stanley J. Pierce against Albert H. Ridgley. There was a contest between the two men over a 129-acre homestead in section 18-22-10. Pierce's claim to the land was allowed by the government but Ridgley, who had established residence, refused to move off. The court suspended sentence on Ridgley's promise to vacate before April 1.

Postmaster W. G. Stiles of Deschutes was a Bend visitor Friday.

F. C. Rowlee was here the last of the week from Vancouver, Wash.

Mrs. H. J. Overturf will return tonight on a brief trip to Portland.

Andrew Nelson of Redmond has been a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Ben McCaffery the past week.

Jack Musgrove returned Thursday night from Portland where he had been for several weeks.

Ed Harris of Hood River has bought lots 5 and 6, block 12, Deschutes addition, of Hunter & Staats.

Gus Bartman was up from Portland last week visiting Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Eggleston, returning home on Monday.

J. T. Hardy, traveling freight and passenger agent, was in Bend the past week in the interest of the Oregon Trunk.

Sunday was almost as war-mand as pleasant as a summer day, and the weather for the past week has been very mild.

There will be a basket social at the Woodman hall tomorrow evening for the benefit of the B. H. S. and R. N. of A. basket ball teams.

Miss Edith Kavanagh returned Wednesday night from a visit of several months at Walla Walla and other Washington towns.

Chief Engineer Ralph Budd of the Oregon Trunk was here Friday night and inspected the warehouse and passenger station. The latter will not be ready for occupancy for a few weeks yet.

Mrs. Ella M. Busey and Miss Martha Good were guests at the Pilot Butte Inn the first of the week, en route to their homesteads in Millican Valley. Mrs. Busey had been visiting in Prineville and Miss Good at La Grande.

Rev. H. B. Foskett, pastor at large of the Oregon Baptist Convention, arrived in Bend Saturday night to take charge temporarily of the work here. He preached Sunday morning and evening. He says he will make his headquarters here, looking after the work also at Redmond, where he will preach next Sunday.

For the purpose of getting freight shipped to Bend, H. J. O'Neill of the O.-W. R. & N. Co. went over to Burns last Thursday to call on the merchants. He stated that as a result of the trip he would be able to convince most of the business men there that it was greatly to their advantage to have their goods routed this way.

PRINEVILLE MAN TO PREACH.

Rev. J. E. Williams of Prineville will be in Bend next Sunday and will preach twice. He will speak at the hall over the postoffice at 11 a. m. and at 7:30 p. m.

NOTICE.

Let there be no doubt. The Presbyterian congregation of Bend has finally secured the Baptist church building for services every other Sunday, beginning February 4, 1912. Service on that day at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

By order of the trustees,
I. I. Gorby, pastor.

INCUBATORS AND BROODERS

The best incubators and brooders known to the chicken business are the Petaluma. Anyone interested should call on or address G. W. Shriner, Bend, who is agent for this territory.

NOTICE.

Any person entering my homestead cabin without my permission will be prosecuted.
F. O. MINOR.

Don't ever forget that the best barber shop in town is Innes & Davidson's, on Wall street.

FIRE Insurance that PROTECTS

M. S. Lattin & Co.

PROHIBITION CONVENTION.

A mass prohibition county convention of Crook county will be held at Culver on the 27th of February, at 10 o'clock a. m., for the purpose of electing six delegates to the state convention at Portland on February 29; the selection of a county central committee, and such other business as may claim attention. Men and women are eligible as delegates. George L. Carr, field secretary of the Oregon "Out to Win" movement, will be present and address the convention. Let the first prohibition county convention in Crook county be a success. Come and let us reason together.

HARMON COOK,
County Chairman.

PLACE BIG ORDER.

Local handlers of builders' supplies are making preparations to take care of the large amount of building which is expected to be done here in the spring. Windows, sash and doors in big quantities have been ordered. N. P. Smith and the Bend Hardware Co. having each placed an order for a carload Monday with W. P. Fuller & Co. of Portland. This is said to be the biggest consignment of this kind of material to be shipped at one time to any town in this part of the state.

TRAFFIC REGULAR AGAIN.

Traffic on the Oregon Trunk-Deschutes line is again regular, the damage to the lines caused by the storms having been repaired. Each road is using its own track. The O.-W. R. & N. was able to resume traffic between The Dalles and Bend last Thursday.

DIRECTORS CHOOSE OFFICERS

The board of directors of the North Irrigation Co., composed of Ed Brosterhouse, W. B. Sellers, H. C. Ellis, Fred A. Hunnell and L. D. Wiest, met Saturday and chose the following officers: President, Mr. Sellers; vice president, Mr. Hunnell; secretary-treasurer, Mr. Wiest. The finances of the company are such that no maintenance fee was required for this year and none was levied.

* COMES FROM MISSOURI.
* From Kansas City, Mo., to Bend to treat a patient was the long trip made by Dr. W. D. Bye, a cancer specialist, who arrived here Friday night. He was summoned by Mrs. N. P. Vinyard, who is afflicted with an internal tumor or cancer. Dr. Bye met her at the home of C. P. Niewonger, diagnosed the case and stated that he could cure her in a few months. He left Saturday morning, having other patients in this part of the country.

Better Goods for Less

---that's why our sale has been a success
---that's why you should take advantage of the prevailing during the remaining days in January.

REDUCED PRICES

Spring Models

Warner's Rust proof

Corsets

Received.

Mannheimer Mercantile Company.

Wall street
Next Door to Star Theater.

GIVEN FAREWELL SURPRISE.
LAIDLAW, Jan. 23.—A. D. Parks and wife, old settlers, who recently sold their farm north of town and were almost ready to start away, were given a surprise farewell at Brown's Hotel early last week. Old friends and neighbors to the number of about 75 quietly slipped in on them with well laden lunch baskets, and the house was filled. The evening was spent in chat and good cheer and games for the younger ones.

We have some bargains in choice residence lots in Center Add. See us before buying. Ryan & McGilvray.
5p

You will find that one ton of coal will give you more heat than three cords of wood. Figure the economy. The Overturf-Davis-Miller Co.

Poverty may be no disgrace, but it takes a lot to disgrace a rich man.

Wiestoria Addition

Is Selling Fast. Why?

We are furnishing every purchaser a certified abstract FREE.

We are selling on a real estate contract.

We bind ourselves, as well as you, to fulfill the contract.

We now have City water on our property.

Our prices are lowest; terms the easiest.

Better make your selection today.

Our property is within three blocks of the Union Depot.

Prices $150 and up. Terms $10 a month

Liberal discount for cash. Lots are 50x140 with 60 and 80 foot streets and 20 foot alleys.

Do you want to sell your ranch or farm lands?
If so, write us at once, giving full description and all detail information, your price and terms.

The Newlon-Koller Comp'y, Inc.

Seattle, Wash. Portland, Oregon. Bend, Oregon.
Portland Office: 301-2 Buchanan Bldg.

The Garvin-Loomis Construction Co.

INCORPORATED.

BUILDINGS

DESIGNED AND ERECTED.

General Contractors.

Central Building Wall and Ohio Sts.

WALL PAPER

Cleaning Up Stock on Hand to Make Room for New Shipment to Take Care of Spring Demands.
We are now selling at

20% Off

Skuse Hardware Co.

Bend, Oregon,