INDIGNATION MEETING
Property Owners Think They Get a Bad Deal on Taxes.
To the Editor of The Bulletin:
Kindly publish this:
There will be an indignation meeting of taxpayers at the Commercial club room tonight (Wednesday) at 8 o'clock.
Bend is getting a bad deal on taxes. Each of the signers has been assessed in a ridiculous manner, without regard to proper valuation and in total disregard of the valuation of adjoining and similar property.
If you are interested, come and bring your tax data with you. It may be too late to get much attention, but at least we can protest.
