Mrs. Hansen and Mrs. Sam Johnson went to Bend last Saturday, returning home Sunday evening.

Charley Pyatt has charge of a small gang of men building some laterals for the Central Oregon Irrigation Co.

Mr. Dealey finished shearing his sheep Monday last and reports a clip of 10,000 pounds, which he expects to market at Bend.

Mrs. Lee Davenport went to Portland to attend the Rose Carnival. She will spend several weeks visiting friends.

Mrs. Sam Johnson's sister, Miss Maville of Portland, arrived Sunday evening to spend the summer in this vicinity.

The fine rains of the past few weeks have been a great boon to dry farming as well as to the irrigators. Crops are looking fine in this locality, and prospects are for bumper yields. Alfalfa and clover are two weeks ahead for this season.

Many of the farmers in this section are seeding extensively to alfalfa and clover. The early sowing is making a fine growth.

Claude McCauley was in this section looking after the distribution of water the fore part of the week.

Ray Leonard has been employed as canal rider on the lateral H and a part of the main canal.

A. W. Willard's daughter, Mrs. Rye, and children have been visiting at the Willard home for a number of days.

Mr. Danbery will leave in a few days for Burns to deliver some hogs which Lee Davenport has recently sold to parties there.

ground cultivated last year looks as well as any on the old ranches.

E. F. Bassett is in very poor health and his friends fear in a critical condition.

Four afternoons the past week this section has been visited by thunder-showers, coming up about 4 o'clock. Only on Saturday was there enough rain to settle the dust.

Lee Riggs has a fine young orchard of about 40 trees, planted last summer, which are doing well. Mr. Riggs' homestead lies on the south slope of Hampton Butte and is also protected from the northwesterly winds by juniper trees.

Mr. Green of the Dry Lake district, accompanied by his daughter, recently from Washington, drove down to Hampton last Thursday to have some notary work done.

The gardens planted this year are looking fine. Some report radishes, lettuce and onions ready for use.

Louis Miller's trial patches of barley, speltz and flax, which were planted this spring, are doing well.

The cherry trees sent A. S. Fogg by a Powell Butte nurseryman are in "desert" where "nothing can be grown."

Mr. Thompson of Wisconsin arrived on the auto from Bend today to visit his sons. Alvin met him, taking him to his homestead on top of Hampton Butte.

Harold Fogg and sister, Miss Ethel, with Mrs. Elmer Peck and little son, drove out to Held and back on Tuesday.

The strip of road one and a half miles long, which the road crew left for A. S. Fogg, E. M. and L. C. Peck to finish, was completed last week.

W. T. Harrison and wife returned from Iron Mountain last Friday. They report a good time and had roads, but though they saw much fertile land they say Hampton looks the best to them.

Last year the settlers of this valley and others as far as 20 miles north, near Held P. O., met at Lizard Creek and celebrated the Fourth of July with a picnic. This year larger plans are being made and it is expected to hold the picnic at the Barbed Wire ranch on Hampton Butte. Word has been sent the buckaroos to be on hand with their horses and prepared to give the crowd a little entertainment. Every one is invited to pack their lunch and attend.

CRESCENT

CRESCENT, June 14.—Rene West was in from Odell Lake Monday.

Charles K. Kirkland of Portland has taken the position as draftsman in the forestry office.

Mrs. Rhoda Toler returned Sunday evening from Portland, after spending several weeks visiting there and in Vancouver, Wash.

G. L. Peterson of La Pine was a business visitor this week.

M. R. Mathews and Phillip Capies were here Saturday on business.

Thomas McCord went to La Pine this week for freight for Rourk's store.

A social dance was given in Keller's hall Friday evening. All report an enjoyable time.

C. W. Long, clerk in the forestry office, is building a residence for officers' quarters, on the reserve. Mr. Long expects to be here some time.

Walter Hunt went to Fort Rock and returned Thursday. Jesse Kirkland came back with him to join the re-annalsance crew.

J. C. Raynor, a prospector from old Hill, Ore., is in Crescent this week looking for mineral resources.

TUMALO

TUMALO, June 13.—Mrs. Allie Baker was out at this place from Laidlaw last Sunday, visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Wimer.

A. B. Gertson was here last Saturday.

lav. He said that his company had sowed about 40 acres of alfalfa about a month ago and that they have a good stand and it is looking fine.

Mr. Hasselberg was here this morning. He reports that Mrs. Hasselberg is not improving since she came home from the hospital where she had been for several months.

PRINGLE FLATS

PRINGLE FLATS, June 10.—C. A. Balsey has moved his house from the juniper grove near the middle of his claim to the northeast corner, where he has a better location with good water.

Fred Lund is busy planting potatoes and making garden.

Mrs. Howard attended the Rose Festival in Portland.

Neil Ray and Byron Cady made a trip to Bend recently.

William Sandal was trading with merchants here Saturday.

Mrs. Roscoe Howard of Deschutes and Miss Maxwell passed through here Sunday.

POWELL BUTTE

POWELL BUTTE, June 17.—This neighborhood was well represented in Redmond show day. Ort Moss, thinking to capture the $50 offered by the show people, for any horse they could not ride, took down a "wild one" but it was finally ridden.

There is now a farmers' telephone line extending around the south and east ends of the buttes, which will extend on around the west side later. A rural mail route is hoped for.

Mrs. Charles Frost has a remarkably fine garden this year again. She has an abundance of the earlier truck to use now, with lots of everything coming on later.

The banner alfalfa of this neighborhood is on the Cummings forty in the riverbed. It is of such rank growth in spots that it is "lodging." Some very fine timothy may be seen on this place also.

The spring wheat is coming on well, and promises an unusual crop.

Mr. and Mrs. Thorson and family have returned from Portland where Mr. Thorson has been for treatment, having been seriously injured in his back and about the head while working in a sawmill last fall. Mr. Thorson came here and took a homestead during the winter. He returned to Portland a few days ago to receive further treatment.

AMONG THE SETTLERS NORTHEAST OF TOWN

MANY GO TO REDMOND

Bend People Took in Big Show There Thursday.

Bend was well represented at Redmond last Thursday when the "101 Ranch Wild West Shows" performed. About 60 people went down on the train and probably close to 50 by auto and team. Redmond entertained her guests well, and the town was crowded.

The show itself was big as expected, and the prices somewhat higher. However, it was the best thing of the kind ever seen in Central Oregon, and everyone who went had a good time. Many Redmond people expressed their intention of coming up to Bend for the three-day celebration at the Fourth.
