

Come and See Us

in Our Remodeled Home

We have entirely remodeled our store, put in an entirely new grocery department, enlarged and improved the dry goods, gents' furnishing and shoe departments, and now we can boast "the best store in Central Oregon."

We receive fresh vegetables every morning and they are kept fresh in our new vegetable fountain in the grocery department.

Radishes, per bunch	5c
Green Onions, per bunch	5c
Lettuce, 2 bunches	5c
Spinach, 3 lbs. for	25c
New Potatoes, per lb	5c
Old Potatoes, per lb	1c
Bulk Olives, per qt.	45c
Sweet Midget Pickles, per qt.	45c
Sac City Corn, per can	10c
String Beans, per can	10c
Mrs. Rorer's Coffee, lb	45c
Sweet Valley Peas, per can	10c
Peaches, gallon cans	50c
Blackberries, gallon cans	55c
Pears, gallon cans	50c
Tomatoes, gallon cans	45c
Deschutes Bake Powder, lb	20c
Ex. Stand. Syrup, 20 lb. jacket	$1.45
Dried Peaches, per lb	12c

These are just a few of our prices. We can save you money on everything you eat. And we always give you clean, fresh goods. When you are in town we would be very glad to have you take advantage of our invitation and

Come and See Us

THE STORE OF BETTER VALUES

Lara's

Mrs. S. J. Hudson, mother of C. S. Hudson, arrived from Kansas City last week.

This noon Mrs. G. P. Putnam gave a luncheon in honor of Mrs. S. J. Hudson.

Ed Lewis and Fred Messinger of Moro are visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. L. French.

G. F. Smith of the Central Oregon Ice & Cold Storage Co. came up from Madras Sunday.

A. E. Noble was in Bend last week making collections for the Pioneer Telephone Company.

A. O. Hunter left yesterday for the East, to be absent probably during most of the summer.

In honor of Mrs. R. F. Averill, Mrs. Hiram E. Allen entertained at bridge Thursday afternoon.

Both moving picture houses will run performances all day during the Fourth of July celebration.

Ben Sawbridge will take a two weeks' vacation to his home in North Yakima, Wash., after the Fourth.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Sharp of Prineville were here yesterday en route to the Catlow-Vandevent wedding.

Mrs. C. E. Morris and family left Saturday for Hood River to join Mr. Morris, who is there for his health.

Rev. Owen Jones, Episcopal missionary, will preach in the hall over the postoffice Sunday, morning and evening.

Z. W. Lindborg went to Portland yesterday, where he will be joined by Mrs. Lindborg and daughter in a short time.

At the annual school meeting at Redmond last week, J. W. Brewer was elected a member of the board for three years.

Messrs. Fog and Curry have begun extensive improvements on J. J. Kinrod's ranch "Paulina" south east of Millican's.

On Friday afternoon, Clyde Wesley, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Carroll, died as a result of whooping cough.

John Biell was badly poisoned last week about the hands and face by a weed and has been receiving treatment at the hospital.

Forest Neeld is now night clerk at the Bend Hotel, having come in last week from his Hampton homestead on a leave of absence.

George Wood and family and E. M. Hope of Albany and Clyde Kiger of Silver Lake are visiting relatives and friends in Millican valley.

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Spencer left on Sunday for La Grande, going in their automobile, via Burns. They expect to be absent for several weeks.

Mrs. C. I. Bozell and children left this morning for Vancouver, Wash., to visit Mrs. Bozell's mother. They will also visit friends in Portland.

D. A. Boyd returned Friday after an absence of some weeks in Montana and Washington. He expects to leave the last of the week for Seattle.

W. B. McAdow and son, L. H. McAdow, of Boneman, Mont., filed on homesteads in Millican valley Monday, being located by the Oregon Land & Immigration Co.

Mrs. E. R. Hill was down from La Pine Sunday to visit her husband, who is in the hospital recovering from an operation. He will be able to return home in a few days.

Ralph V. F. Indexter announces elsewhere in today's paper that on or about July 1 he will open a new drug store in the old Red Cross stand. It will be known as the Owl Pharmacy.

Sunday Sheriff Halfour was over from Prineville, taking back with him Frank Vejar, who was sentenced last week to six months in the county jail, instead of a year, as first reported.

Owing to another readjustment of the use of the Baptist church by the Baptists and Presbyterians, Rev. Dr. Gorby will not be in Bend this Sunday, June 30, but will preach at Metolius instead.

Rev. H. O. Perry, district superintendent of the Methodist church, was here Sunday and preached in the hall over the postoffice in the evening, after which service quarterly conference being held.

The high wire for use of the aerial artists of the carnival company that will be here for the Fourth celebration has been strung across Bond street between Ohio and Minnesota. It is 50 feet high.

William Davis, a laborer on the North Canal works, is at the hospital recovering from injuries received by a fall of some 35 feet about 13 days ago. One of his feet was cut and badly bruised.

Mrs. E. H. Herring expects to move very soon into the Jones building on Wall street north of Lara's. The building where she now is will be torn down to make way for the O'Donnell brick building.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hanley, Miss Pauline Pease of Portland and B. S. Jonslynn, Jr., spent Thursday night at the Bend Hotel. They came from Prineville in Mr. Hanley's auto and went from here to Barna.

At the hospital Saturday, J. Forrows under went an operation the right leg being amputated over the knee and ankle on account of gangrene. Despite the age of the patient, he is getting along well.

A. D. Norton, Fred Kiger and P. R. Johnson came in Friday from their Millican valley homesteads. Mr. Johnson has a well six feet deep on his claim in section 3-20-15 that has been furnishing plenty of water.

At a meeting of the Library Club yesterday afternoon, plans were made for serving ice cream, lemonade and cake at the dances on the nights of the 3d and 4th. Tomorrow the library expects to move into its new quarters.

J. K. Merrill, special agent for the Pacific Telephone Company, was here Monday, looking over the system of the Pioneer company, whose operation the Pacific people will supervise for some time. J. F. Pope will be local manager.

County Superintendent Ford says that he has secured first, second and third prizes from the Harriman people for the Crook county industrial exhibit at the county fair this fall. The County Court also added $150 to be distributed in prizes.

C. M. McKay was up on some of the Mueller timber lands Sunday. Ewen McLennan has 15,000 sheep on these lands this year. All of them came to Bend by train last week. After almost a month's grazing there they go to the reserve for the rest of the summer.

On Saturday night Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Hudson celebrated their tenth wedding anniversary. Nine tables played "500" and most of the guests brought gifts appropriate to a "tin wedding," many of them very amusing. The refreshments at the close of the evening were served on tin plates.

Articles of incorporation of the Kenwood Promotion Company have been filed with the Secretary of State. The incorporators are J. Edward Larson, James Ryan, E. R. Post, J. F. Arnold and E. V. Kaykendall. The capital stock is $15,000. The company owns Kenwood, across the river, and will conduct a general real estate business.

Innes & Davidson's barber service cannot be beat.

BAPTIST SERVICES SUNDAY.
Rev. H. B. Foskett will preach here Sunday morning, and in the evening Dr. C. A. Woody of Portland will conduct services at the Baptist church.

BOY SCOUTS' TOURNAMENT
McClure and Thompson Won Tennis Contest Last Friday.

Members of the Boy Scouts had a tennis tournament on the Putnam court Friday, the winners being Hugh Thompson and Earl McClure, each of whom received as a prize a set of trout flies, given by Mrs. Putnam.

In the preliminaries, Earl McClure and Cal Smith were beaten by Charles Bozell and Frank Averill, 6-3, 6-3. Robert Innes and Morris Lara losing to Hugh Thompson and Earl McClure, 6-2, 5-7, 6-4. McClure played twice, as there were but seven players and the boys drew lots to see which one should play twice. In the finals Bozell and Averill won, 6-2, 2-2, two games out of three deciding the last set.

MILLER COMPANY ARRIVES.
The Frank Miller Amusement Co. outfit arrived last night, with three cars of show materials and about 50

You'll Find The New Norfolk and Peplum Waists

we are showing, jaunty and pretty, as well as neatly made—and priced so low that they'll merit your inspection.

$1.50 to $2.50

We have just received a large shipment of

SHOES and OXFORDS

Ladies' Tan Button Oxfords at $3.00

Children's and Little Womens' at $1.35 to $2.75 (IN SEVERAL STYLES.)

MANNHEIMER'S

The DEPENDON Store

Ladies' Home Journal Patterns

people. Others will arrive shortly. Manager Davenport is here again, and will make all arrangements for the locating and establishment of the seven tent shows and the various free acts.

DESCHUTES NEWS NOTES.

DESCHUTES, June 25.—W. G. Cox is running a ditch construction camp near here.

J. Newwed leaves here Wednesday and will be succeeded by J. H. Gore as railroad agent.

The Deschutes people are planning on celebrating the Fourth at Bend. County Commissioner Bayley of Laidlaw was in town Monday looking after business.

A fishing party composed of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Redfield, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Washington and Miss Mary A. Benson spent Sunday on the Deschutes river near Aubrey Falls.

J. C. Woods has planted a large number of fruit trees on his place adjoining town.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Birdsong of Prineville stopped here a short time before taking up residence on their land near Deschutes.

J. H. Johnson harvested his first crop of hay last week.

IT'S HOT

Why Not be COOL AND COMFORTABLE

"Comfort Swinging Chair"

Is just the thing for the lawn or porch. "As cozy as a swing—as restful as an arm chair." USUAL PRICE IS $6.00

SATURDAY SPECIAL
(June 29th)

$5.00

Remember about that BIG LINE of Refrigerators Now is the time to buy them.

E. M. Thompson

Where Your Dollar Does Its Duty.

BITS ABOUT TOWN.

Claude C. Covey was in Bend yesterday.

Saturday was the longest day of the year.

J. P. Rogers of the Oregon Trunk was here last week.

Mrs. F. O. Miner entertained at bridge this afternoon.

Services in the Catholic church on Sunday at 10:30 a. m.

Miss Anne Markel is expected back from the East next week.

Mrs. George A. Jones entertained at bridge Friday afternoon.

D. L. McKay was here over Friday, then returning to Portland.

Mrs. A. D. Morrill of Powell Butte was trading in Bend Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Smith are in Portland on a trip.

Miss Sara Perry expects to leave shortly after the Fourth for Portland.

Allen Wilcoxson and wife of Powell Butte were Bend visitors Sunday.

C. S. Werner went to his ranch up river yesterday to spend a week or two.

J. H. Wenandy was in Burns the last of the week, returning yesterday.

D. E. Clark, livestock agent of the O. W. R. & N. Co., was here yesterday.

C. A. Chapman, well known in Bend, has moved from Hood River to Albany.

A hitching rail has been built in front of the bars store, on Oregon street.

THORSON THE JEWELER

Watch Repairing a Specialty. First Class Work Guaranteed

Best Place to Buy China and Cut Glass PRICES RIGHT

HOT BREAD

EVERY MORNING at

LARA'S CORKETT'S SHUEY'S MISENER'S McCUISTON'S—

BAKED BY American Bakery

New Drug Store

I will open for business at the old Red Cross stand, on or about JULY 1st, 1912

A first class drug store will be conducted, and your patronage is solicited. Give us a trial.

The Owl Pharmacy

Ralph V. Poindexter, Prop.