

10 Days More

and our regular

HOUSE CLEANING SALE

is over.

On Saturday, August 17th

is your last chance to take advantage of the BIG Money-Saving BARGAINS that you will find in every department in the store.

ALL OF OUR SUMMER GOODS

and Broken Lots are marked with a

Big Red Tag

and this tag means a saving to you of good hard dollars. In our windows you will find some of these bargains and a glance at them will show you that they are

Real Bargains.

The last day of the Sale is SATURDAY, AUG. 17

Lara's

"The Store of Better Values"

BITS ABOUT TOWN.

Tom Sharp Jr. of Prineville was here Monday.
 Frank McCaffery visited his brother, Ben McCaffery, yesterday.
 Mrs. E. D. Wilson will entertain the Bridge Club Friday.
 Mrs. Creed Triplett of Eugene is visiting friends here, where she formerly lived.
 Paul Johnson of Klamath Falls was a visitor at the John E. Ryan ranch last week.
 Millard Triplett left Sunday for Ashland, where he, his family, Tom and Carlyle now live.

Mrs. A. M. Lara gave a luncheon today in honor of Miss Pearl Hightower, 12 young ladies being guests.
 George P. Gehring of Bartlesville, Okla., is visiting Bert Shuey. Mr. Gehring will locate here, having sent for his family.
 Last week an operation removing the tonsils and adenoids of Reginald Bayley, son of County Commissioner R. H. Bayley of Laidlaw, was performed at the Bend Hospital.
 Mrs. Dehent, mother of Floyd Dehent of the Bend Hardware Company, arrived recently and is keeping house for her son, they having moved into the Perry house in Park Addition.

L. B. Misener was sick Friday and Saturday.
 W. H. Bentley has been on the sick list the past week.
 Mrs. C. P. Niswonger has gone to Michigan to visit a sick sister.
 N. P. Smith went to Portland Sunday on a business trip of a few days.
 Mrs. C. D. Rowe returned from an extensive eastern trip Saturday night.
 J. I. West is now living in Hood River, having gone there from Corvallis.
 Mrs. B. R. Sparks of Metolius spent Sunday night in Bend, a guest at Hotel Bend.
 Mrs. A. M. Lara entertained a number of young people informally Sunday afternoon.
 Mrs. John Silvertooth returned Sunday from a visit with relatives in Shaniko and other towns.
 Mrs. McAllister has some excellent samples of currants on exhibition at the Commercial Club.
 Dr. F. H. Thompson and wife of Salem are located in the new Bloss residence on Kentucky street.
 Mrs. E. J. Wilson, with her daughter, of The Dalles, was a guest of her sister, Mrs. D. W. Wilson, last week.
 Now that Barney O'Donnell's butcher shop is raised on jacks everyone is remarking that "meat is going up."
 Barney O'Donnell went to Portland Sunday on a business trip, to purchase fixtures for his new building.
 Together with Mrs. Hates, Mrs. E. J. Hering has been at the Hates upriver homestead during the last week.
 Because of the absence of Mrs. Silvertooth, Mrs. P. W. Brown has been elected treasurer of the Library Club.
 Judge Ellis was in Prineville Monday on court business. Mrs. Ellis accompanied him, visiting friends there.
 Mrs. C. I. Bozell and children returned Saturday night from Portland and Vancouver, Wash., where they visited relatives.
 Florence Seaser fell at the skating rink last Wednesday evening and broke an arm. She left Monday for her home in Portland.
 Water Superintendent George T.

THOMPSON

Now Located in the New Bean Building---

and is better equipped than ever before to care for your every want in Furnishings for the home. A complete line of Parlor, Bedroom and Kitchen Furniture, Carpets, Rugs, Linoleum and Wall Paper. Prices always the lowest.

Cash or credit.

You are invited to visit our new quarters and inspect our large stock of goods.

E. M. Thompson

Where Your Dollar Does its Duty.

Cochran, accompanied by his wife and children, was in the Sisters and Metolius country last week.

A telephone has been installed in the new office of The Bulletin.

Miss Mittle Vandever and Mrs. Chester Catlow spent the week-end in town with friends.

C. W. Ashbaugh, with his family, will leave probably this week for his homestead near Hilyat.

Mrs. J. H. Stanley has been a visitor at the home of Mrs. H. W. Skuse for the last few days.

Miss Meda Castle returned last night from a visit with Miss Hotelling in Nez Perce, Idaho.

M. D. Knutsen of the Bend Hardware Company left this morning on a vacation trip to the coast.

Clarence Mannheim is expected back from Chicago Sunday. He has been visiting his parents for several weeks.

Lal Quinn, with his wife, is in town for a few days. He is collector for the Merchants Collection Agency of San Francisco.

Miss Arrie Black returned Sunday from a visit with relatives at Roseburg. She was also in Portland for the Elks convention.

The Bulletin has received a copy of an auto road map of Oregon and Washington issued by the Monarch Oil Refining Co. of San Francisco.

R. E. Koon, engineer in charge of Bend's sewage operations, will be gone probably until early September on a trip through Western Oregon.

M. S. Lattin and O. M. Patterson were in Madras last week in connection with the taking of inventory of the Red Cross drug store there.

Warren Lelpham and wife of Davenport, Wash., were in Bend last Wednesday night on their way to the upper river country on an outing trip.

Ben Sawbridge expects to leave shortly for his home in North Yakima, Wash., whence he will go to college at Stanford University, at Palo Alto, Cal.

The full page illustration of the magazine section of the Portland Oregonian last Sunday is of the Deschutes river and the irrigation flume of the C. O. I. Co.

Miss Lillian Vreidt, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. C. D. Brown, left Sunday for her home at Antelope. She will teach this winter in the Baker schools.

There will be a school election tomorrow (Thursday) evening at 8 o'clock at the school house to elect a successor on the board to Mrs. C. S. Hudson, who resigned.

The National Geographic Magazine for June contains an interesting and well illustrated article upon mountain climbing and trip making in the Three Sisters country just west of Bend.

Mrs. D. W. Luke and two children who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Wilson at the Altamont, left Monday for their home in Pennsylvania. Mrs. Luke is Mr. Wilson's sister.

Ralph Calk of Portland and Ovid W. B. Riley returned a few days ago from a three weeks' hunting trip to Crane Prairie, Horse Lake and Taylor Burn. Mr. Calk killed a three-year old bear.

Jean Hess, formerly of Bend, was one of the brides in a triple wedding that occurred at Salem, July 21. His bride was Miss Anna Burger. The ceremony occurred at the home of the bride's parents.

Rev. J. E. Williams states that the dedication of the Methodist church will occur on the 25th. Many interesting features will be included in the exercises, full announcement of which will be made later.

S. J. Spencer will leave the last of the week for La Grande where he will be joined by his wife who is visiting relatives. They will go from that city to various points in Idaho, making an auto trip of several weeks.

L. G. Seward and bride, of Chicago, who are on a Western honeymoon trip, will visit Mr. Seward's brother, C. G. Seward, here about the 22nd. Mr. Seward is private secretary to President Mudge of the Rock Island Railway.

The Central Oregon Ice & Cold Storage Co. shipped a carload of ice to Madras Sunday and a car to Redmond today. This makes 10 full carloads that have gone to these towns this summer, in addition to less than car lots.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Shuman, after a stay of some six weeks here, left Friday for Portland and California points. They will probably return to Bend next spring, as Mr. Shuman has extensive timber interests in this part of the country.

George E. Attkin, editor of the Sisters Herald, was in Bend Monday. He confirms the report that his ex-partner, J. M. Crenshaw, will start a third paper in Redmond. The new newspaper, apparently, will be of the old "Citizens' Call," championing temperance and reform movements.

Local railroad men tell a story on Jim Dillon, a roadmaster on the Oregon Trunk. One day last week the up train ran over a cow just this side of Maupis, cutting off the animal's legs. Dillon wired back to the section boss at Maupis: "Take

You Can't Make any mistake in Buying

BLACK CAT HOSE

THEY SELL BECAUSE THEY SATISFY.

You'll find them where you get other GOOD MERCHANDISE— at

Mannheimer's

The DEPENDON Store.

gun and shoot crippled cow that No. 102 killed."

G. E. Rhodes of Spokane came in Sunday night and is visiting his friend, A. T. Frame.

H. B. Ford returned Saturday from his trip to the Burns country where an oil strike was reported. He did not bring back favorable reports.

J. C. Young, father of George S. Young, together with his wife and son, is here visiting his son, and when he goes will leave his auto with George.

H. P. Smith last week sold to W. G. Waugh ten acres of irrigated land east of town, the sale being made by the Oregon Investment Co. The price was $2000.

W. H. Evans has sold out his interest in the Dream Theatre to L. C. Rudow, his partner. During Mr. Rudow's absence, probably for a week, Mr. Evans will conduct the business, and then will leave for Seattle.

C. I. Bozell states that during the last month more than 60,000 pounds of flour manufactured in Bend has been shipped to the country south-east and south of here. One of the heaviest buying districts has been the Fort Rock country.

Mrs. Laura Predy of Leota, Kan., and Mrs. Della Seibert of Enid, Okla., daughters of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Onnell, arrived Sunday night to spend a month or more on a visit with their parents. Mr. and Mrs. Onnell had not seen Mrs. Predy for 22 years. Mr. Onnell's son from Idaho came in last night also.

Mrs. Ketchum of Prineville is visiting her son, Dr. R. D. Ketchum.

Mrs. R. M. Smith spent Sunday at the home of Cole E. Smith east of town.

The net profits of the recent sale conducted by the Library Club were about $125.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Henkle of Philomath, Ore., arrived last night to visit their son, O. C. Henkle, and family.

H. C. Oliver of the O.-W. R. & N. says the passenger business to Bend continues to be excellent.

L. D. Shively and R. D. Ward left this morning, after a fishing trip up river from which they brought to the Hotel Bend five Dolly Varden trout, three of which weighed 45 pounds.

J. T. Hardy of the Oregon Trunk says that the road has made a number of improvements at Fallbridge of interest to passengers. The hotel has been enlarged and otherwise considerably improved.

WE CARRY the BEST

LINE of FIRE ARMS MADE AMMUNITION TOO

You CANT MISS IT

Aren't you tired of borrowing the other fellow's gun? If you are not, let us whisper something to you: "He is."

Own your own things; then you won't spoil all the fun of your outing in fearing you'll break the gun, or whatever you have borrowed.

In sporting goods and hardware we sell only the best. They are the cheapest for you.

Skuse Hardware Company.