NO COUNCIL MEETING.

Because of lack of any pressing business and the absence of several city officers, the council meeting that was to have occurred last night did not take place. The next meeting is the regular monthly one, on Tuesday, September 3. With the exception of a couple of sidewalk petitions there is little of importance up for consideration, aside from the matter of fire protection. The mayor is attempting to get a proposition for the establishment of a fire alarm bell and electric warning to the pump plant lined up for presentation to the council.

JOINS METHODISTS SUNDAY.

The Rev. Dr. Gorby wishes to announce that the Presbyterian congregation has joined in the Methodist dedication service Sunday, and that therefore the usual service for that hour will be recalled. #### IN EXPLANATION.

In the issue of The Bulletin for August 7 there appeared a brief story relative to Roadmaster Dillon. In view of Mr. Dillon's resentment regarding its publication, and as I was in a measure responsible for its appearance, through misinformation, I take this opportunity to apologize for the aforesaid story.

HUGH O'KANE.

CARD OF THANKS.

We feel under many obligations to the kind friends of Bend, who aided and comforted us during the recent illness and death of our beloved son and brother Arthur Oscar Johnson, and hereby take this opportunity to express to them, one and all, our deepest and sincerest thanks.

MRS. A. E. HAGENSEN,
MR. AND MRS. J. P. JOHNSON

BIG INVASION IS CERTAINTY

AT LEAST SEVENTY-FIVE ON EXCURSION

Many Visitors From Seattle and Portland will be Shown Royal Time as Bend's Guests—Unique Picnic May be Feature.

Plans for the big Seattle-Portland excursion to Bend are maturing excellently well, according to advices received from the Sound City. Not less than 75 business men and their wives will arrive on the afternoon of Sunday, September 1, and probably considerably in excess of that number will take advantage of the special opportunity to get a glimpse of Bend and Central Oregon.

As given in detail in an advertisement elsewhere in this paper, the schedule of the "Bend Special" shows that it will leave Seattle at 11 p. m. on Saturday, August 31, leaving Portland 6:45 a. m. Sunday, and arrives at Bend at 4:30 p. m. The return train leaves Bend at 10 p. m. Monday, reaches Portland 7:30 the following morning, and at 2:30 p. m. arrives at Seattle. As Monday is Labor Day, visitors from the two cities will lose but half of one working day. Tuesday, while they have a full day here, and practically half of Sunday.

The rates for the entire trip are $25.00 from Seattle and $17.50 from Portland, including berths and all meals. Over and above this amount the travelers "will not be allowed to spend a dollar," say the O-W. R. & N. & Company and the Bend Park Company, co-partners in the enterprise.

Busy Time Here.

That the visitors will have a busy and interesting time here is indicated by the plans that are being made for their entertainment. These will include auto excursions to all nearby points of interest, a thorough examination of the town, a climb to the top of Pilot Butte, whence a splendid view of the adjacent territory is obtainable, and, probably, a picnic luncheon on top of the butte, which will be one of the most unique "feats," at least as regards location, that Oregon has ever seen. The big feature of the junket will be a banquet on Monday evening, plans for which are now being made. It is probable that in the neighborhood of 150 people will participate.

A classified ad in The Bulletin is read by hundreds and brings the advertiser good returns for the money invested.

Come in and see our prices on furniture.

Dear Amy--

I called yesterday on Mrs. Newcomer, who has just moved here. She told me that lots of her things were broken and scarred in moving and asked me, since she was a stranger in town, to tell her where to buy her furniture.

I told her to go to no one but where we always traded because she would be sure to find what she wanted and at reasonable prices.

Come soon.

Bye, Bye,

Lou.

P. S.: Mrs. Newcomer has just dropped in. She was so pleased with the furniture she bought from
