

* ALWAYS * SOMETHING * NEW *

Lara's

LAST WEEK We Told You About the Royal Society EMBROIDERY GOODS

the kind that will stand washing and is guaranteed to hold its color. There are 118 different shades and 10 different sizes. You can get anything you may need for any embroidery that you are working on. Also a large line of the ROYAL SOCIETY STAMPED PACKAGES.

THIS WEEK

we have a new line of Ladies' Shoes, snappy styles, and newest things in footwear:

NO. 846---A leader among dress shoes--- Patent leather, white kid top, white or black buttons, Society last, 16 button, short vamp, 1 3/4 in. heel $4.50

NO. 723---Correct anywhere, a gunmetal boot on Yale last, 16 buttons, short vamp, extension sole, rope stitch, 1 1/2 inch heel ---price $4.50

NO. 745---Will please the woman of taste--- Patent leather, silk corded top, Derby last, 14 buttons, short vamp, 1 1/2 in. heel $4.50

NO. 833---A classy tan boot, knob last, 16 buttons, short vamp, heavy rope stitch, extension sole, 1 3/4 inch heel, ---price $4.50

MEN'S NECKWEAR---ALSO NEW THIS WEEK. Up to the minute styles in loose end shapes, reversible shapes in plain colors, reversible shapes in fancy silks, and the very latest colors in knitted ties. A beautiful line of goods all thru, each, only 50c to 75c

ALWAYS SOMETHING NEW AT

Lara's

"The Store of Better Values"

BITS ABOUT TOWN.

The Lara store is being repainted. Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Ryan spent Sunday in Bend. Mrs. A. M. Lara returned Sunday night from Portland. Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Copthorne left Sunday for Canton, Ohio. The Bridge Club met last Friday with Mrs. H. J. Overturf. Mrs. A. D. Lewis is visiting Mrs. L. L. Fox and other friends. Collins Elkins, a Prineville business man, was a Bend visitor Sunday. Dan Ward, Jr., of Portland is visiting Hugh O'Kane.

Ed. M. Swalley of Deschutes was transacting business in Bend Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Averill and children are staying at the Altamont now. The band will give a concert next Sunday afternoon on the old Drake lawn. L. F. Wakefield and Mr. Lozier were dinner guests of J. H. Wenandy Saturday. Work on the Suttles Lake irrigation project has been suspended for the winter. Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Saylor of Sisters were over for the dance Saturday night.

The local carpenters' union will meet Saturday night in the hall over the postoffice. Arnt Anderson, nephew of Mrs. J. P. Johnson, is visiting here from Superior, Wis. H. F. Dietzel, the Madras flour mill man, was in Bend the first of the week on business. Miss Jacques of Prineville is visiting Miss Nona Richardson, at her home east of town. A dance was given at Linster's hall Saturday night. It was attended by a good-sized crowd. C. D. Rowe left Saturday morning for Portland and Seattle to buy winter goods for his store. J. T. Robinson left today on a horseback trip across the mountains, via the McKenzie pass.

Robert E. Simpson, formerly of Prineville but now of Boise, Idaho, was in town Sunday. Claude Innes, who has been in Sherman county for a month or so, was returned to Bend. C. H. Hunter left Friday for Spokane where he will spend several weeks on a vacation trip. Mrs. D. H. Yeomans and children will leave Friday for Pomeroy, Wash. to visit for about six weeks. Rev. R. A. Pratt of Heppner, Ore., is expected to be here Sunday and preach at the Methodist church. T. J. Noud, secretary-treasurer of the Noud-Blacker Timber Company, of Portland, is in Bend on business. Mrs. Mary Hardy of Amboy, Wash. arrived last Wednesday night to visit her mother, Mrs. J. W. Dindick. Misses Pauline and Margaret Wiest left yesterday morning to enter the Oregon Agricultural College at Corvallis. A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gilbert, who reside in Park addition, on Thursday, September 9. Miss Alice Caldwell left yesterday for Eugene to visit for some time with her sister, Mrs. Paul Bond, and friends. The sidewalk at the northwest corner of Wall and Oregon streets has been relaid, having been burned on July 3. L. W. Wakefield came in the latter part of the week on his way to Crescent. He has been in Seattle several months. Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Drake, former residents here, arrived in Bend Monday. They came up by auto from California. Fred Lucas, John Sather and Laurence Smith have entered the O. A. C. as freshmen, having left for Corvallis Sunday. The Methodist Ladies' Aid Society will hold a food sale Saturday from 10 a. m. to 5 p. m. at the R. M. Smith Clothing Co.'s store. Mrs. Anna Hagenson, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Johnson, leaves this week for her home in Duluth, Minn.

Mrs. C. H. Corkett spent Monday in Deschutes. Miss Cora Sather went to Portland Monday. R. M. Smith went to Portland today to buy goods. Jean Eaper of La Pine was here yesterday on business. John B. Wimer of Laidlaw was a guest yesterday at the Hotel Bend. Mrs. J. F. Arnold went to Portland yesterday to meet a brother from the East. Elmer Niswonger returned last night from a business trip to Portland. Harry Gordon of Carson City, Nev., and T. L. Lindley of Kansas City have filed on homesteads in Lake county. J. B. Curl of La Pine was here yesterday to take Forest Supervisor Merritt south to look over his new territory. M. G. O'Malley, Oregon manager of the Fraternal Brotherhood, came in last night from Portland to spend a few days. Ernest Boesley of La Pine is in town after a load of grain which will be used as seed on the Pratt place about 37 miles south of Bend. The Hudsons, Sawhills, H. A. Miller, A. M. Pringle and J. C. Rhodes spent Sunday fishing in the Metolius river. They report much success. Charles Loring, formerly with the Pease store at Shaniko, is now with the R. M. Smith Clothing Co. and will do a cleaning and pressing business. Mrs. A. H. Horn, at her home west of town, entertained Saturday evening in honor of W. Wolf of Bellingham, who has come to Bend to live. Ward H. Coble left Monday evening for Burns on a business trip. He will cover the entire southeastern part of the state before returning. Clyde McKay, J. N. Hunter, W. H. Staats and Bill Spencer were fishing Sunday on the Metolius and brought back a good catch, including several big ones. Max and Lyle Richardson left Sunday morning for Walla Walla, Wash., to attend Whitman College. This will be Lyle's second year and Max's first there. W. A. Beaver of the Bend Stone Company returned Sunday night from a trip to Portland for the purpose of interesting builders there in local stone. Mrs. J. M. Lawrence is expected in tonight from Portland on a short visit. Mr. Lawrence is preparing to move to the metropolis to be with his family. Last night Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Putnam returned from Seattle. Mrs. Putnam's sister, Miss Mary Binney, coming with them to make an extended visit in Bend. Mrs. C. B. Allen and daughter Miriam left yesterday for Corvallis. Miss Allen will enter the O. A. C. as a senior this fall, her mother returning home in a few days. Mrs. E. F. Bassett came in the first of the week from Hampton to find out the law regarding proving up on the homestead of her husband, who died recently in Portland. J. D. Wiest has let a contract to C. C. Dick for the construction of two more residences in Westoria, on Eighth street, which will be the same size as the two now under construction. W. H. Evans, who recently sold his interest in the Dream theatre to his partner, L. C. Rudow, left Sunday for Seattle. Norvell Springer is now running the machine at the Dream. The front windows of the R. M. Smith Clothing Co. store have been remodeled and greatly improved. The woodwork was white enameled by N. P. Welder, and this gives a fine display effect. Sheldon A. Volkman, traveling freight and passenger agent of the Great Northern Railway, with headquarters at Portland, is in town today in the interest of the road he represents. The atmosphere here Saturday was very hazy or smoky looking. It was due to dust in the air, blown here from the Columbia river by a north wind, there having been a big dust storm on the Columbia. Miss Ora Collins of Dallas, Ore., niece of A. S. Collins, is visiting here and will probably spend the winter in Bend. Her sister, Miss Nellie, was here last week on her way to Burns to teach school this winter.

FALL GOODS

ARE HERE
NEW DRESSGOODS

Almost Every Shade is Represented in a Variety of Fabrics.

All Wool Whip Cords, 44 in. wide...$1.25 yd.
All Wool Amoskeag Serges.....60c yd.
All Wool Homespun, 56 in. wide...$1.25 yd.

NEW SILKS

Messalines, in a variety of shades, 27 inches wide...$1.00 yd.
Brocaded and Figured Silks, 85c, $1.00, $1.25 yd.

Of Special Interest

We have just opened up a shipment of Comforts direct from an Eastern mill. Remarkable values, ranging from...$1.00 to $3.00

Mannheimer's

The DEPENDON Store.

The Quarterly and Monthly Style Books of Ladies' Home Journal Patterns are here.

H. W. Franklyn of Swift Current, Saskatchewan, Canada, arrived in Bend last week to look over Central Oregon. Mr. Franklyn was formerly editor and manager of the Daily Express but recently sold the paper.

W. L. Powers, demonstration farm superintendent, and father, J. Powers, were guests at the Pilot Butte Inn Sunday night. They had been looking over the country east of Bend, and returned Monday to Redmond.

Rev. W. R. Howell reports splendid interest being manifested in the meetings at the Baptist church. The meetings continue each evening this week at 7.30, and are being held at 2:30 in the afternoon at the home of friends.

A new bulletin board announcing all the services of the church now adorns the Baptist church building. The work was done by Hunter Bros. They have also completed painting the building which gives a very neat appearance.

W. G. Fordham, of La Pine, who recently returned by auto from Sattelle, California, says that of all the towns he passed through Bend is far and away the most active. Mr. Fordham, M. D. Shultz and Ivan Shultz were here yesterday.

N. P. Weider went to Hood River Sunday to deliver to the widow of Ora Hunter, a charter member of the local camp of Modern Woodmen, a check for $1000, this being the amount of his insurance policy. Mr. Weider returned Monday night.

Paul Brookings, the 14-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Brookings, was brought by his mother from Rolyat to the Bend hospital, Saturday, suffering from a complication of diseases. Mrs. Brookings returned home by auto Sunday.

Mrs. O. F. Persons, who is well known here, in writing from Portland to have the address of her paper changed, says: "I have changed my name and also my address." She is now Mrs. D. E. Gunsolus and resides at St. Johns, Ore.

Miss Bertha Baldwin and Miss Nellie Summers, who have been spending the summer at The Tules, the ranch of J. E. Ryan up river, came down Friday. Miss Summers was on her way to her home in Prineville. Miss Baldwin returning up river.

Owing to a recent change in the Oregon state banking laws, which prevents a nonresident stockholder from acting as an officer or director of a state bank, S. M. Lara has resigned as president of the Deschutes Banking & Trust Co. and Dr. B. Ferrell has been elected in his place.

Millinery and Ladies' Goods.

The prettiest line ever shown in Bend of ladies' suits, coats and skirts; also misses' coats, suits and skirts; coats for the little ones, and "lids" for the kiddies. A complete line of millinery. Goods arriving daily. Mrs. Black, 4 doors from postoffice.

Dear Amy:-
John and I will have our tenth wedding anniversary next Wednesday night. I want you and Bob to come. John told me the other day that he was more my sweetheart than ever. He had just made a good business deal and said I could have anything I wanted.
I made him buy me new furniture to replace what was worn out. I don't believe in having old things in the house, do you?
Your old friend,
Lou.

P.S.-We bought every single thing from

E. M. Thompson

Where Your Dollar Does its Duty.

PIANO Instruction

I have located in Bend to accept pupils for the piano. Beginners and advanced pupils a specialty. A term of four lessons for $5.00. Address Prof. G. L. Miller care Bulletin. Appropriate music for lodges banquets, etc., furnished.

WINDOW GLASS, PUTTY, PAINTS, OILS, VARNISH

WHEN YOU BUILD THAT NEW HOUSE OR REPAIR THE OLD ONE, REMEMBER THAT GOOD PAINT IS NOT ONLY NEEDED FOR APPEARANCE, BUT ABSOLUTELY NECESSARY FOR PRESERVATION. PAINT IS AN INVESTMENT AS WELL AS A LUXURY. ASK THE PAINTERS WHO USE OUR PAINTS, PUTTY AND GLASS IF THEY ARE NOT THE BEST.

Skuse Hardware Company.