PRESENTS GIFT TO MRS. SMITH

President of Library Organization Has Done Much to Bring it to Present Efficient State. Statement of Finances.

As an expression of their appreciation of the services of Mrs. F. F. Smith, president of the Library Club for the past three and a half years, the members presented her with a cut glass jardiner. Mrs. Smith is leaving Bend in a few days to reside in Portland.

In a very large measure the Library Club's present state of great efficiency in the civic life of the city today is due to the untiring work of its president. When Mrs. Smith was chosen to fill that position, the club was small in membership, with enthusiasm even at a lower ebb.

With commendable tact and much hard work, Mrs. Smith kept the club going, until today it is one of the best organizations Bend has. Back in the early days of Mrs. Smith's presidency, the club did not even have a secretary or treasurer and all the official duties devolved on the president; and as showing the work that was necessary to be done then, it may be said that even dish-washing, after an ice cream social or other entertainment was given for the purpose of raising funds, was a part of the presidential duties.

Club's Financial Standing. A statement of the finances of the club, as prepared by the secretary-treasurer, Mrs. P. W. Brown, shows that the club is now on a thriving basis. The club owns the library building, which cost $456. Of this amount $69.85 was donated in material. The building itself was given by the Deschutes Investment Company, and J. W. Dimick, L. C. Fleming, George Brosterhouse and H. D. Bourcy contributed labor. The material was donated as follows: Bend Company, $50; Skuse Hardware Company, $6.35; Overturf-Davie-Miller Company, $4.50.

The club has on hand $70.15 in cash. There was a balance from August of $97.90, and during the month the receipts have been $18.20. The September expenditures have been $46.05, this including librarian's salary, printing, wiring of building, new books, etc. The club has $25 in bills receivable.

The indebtedness of the club is $257.55, this amount being due the First National Bank, which charges no interest on the loan. Of this amount $170 is for having the library building moved from the corner of Bond and Oregon streets to its present site, and $87.55 for cash advanced for labor.

Books Now Number 750. In addition to the building, the club owns more than 750 volumes, some fixtures, dishes and flat silver sufficient for use on almost any occasion. The library subscribes for 26 periodicals, making it the best reading room to be found in Central Oregon.

THE MENACE OF RABIES.

Shut Up Your Dog When These Symptoms Begin to Show.

The first striking symptom in a rabid dog is almost invariably a decided change in its disposition. It either becomes more cross, irritable and sulky or shows unusual friendliness and wants to be continually petted. Obviously in the latter state it is a most dangerous menace to its owner, who easily may be infected through a scratch on the hand or by a bite during unusual playfulness. In either case the dog soon becomes extremely restless, lying down, then almost immediately getting up to run around nervously for a few seconds and again lying down. This rotation it keeps up without interruption for some time. The dog is easily started, growls and barks at the least provocation. The owner or keeper who knows its disposition will easily discern this change and by simply shutting up the dog securely for observation will obviate all further danger.

The Pasteur treatment has been proved beyond peradventure to be a specific prophylactic against rabies. It will prevent the development of the disease if administered properly and if used in time. The report of the Pasteur Institute of Paris (Annales de l'Institut Pasteur) states that during the past ten years 7,380 persons have been treated, of whom only twenty-one have died from all causes, a mortality of .28 per cent. The record in this country is almost as good.—Water Pect in Harper's Weekly.

The White Ship. The age of chivalry is supposed to be that age when young men dressed themselves up in armor and pounded one another with lances and swords.

It is perhaps well to recall the story of the White Ship, which in the year 1120 carried to England the grandson of the Norman conqueror. This ship was captained by the son of the man who had steered across the conqueror himself. The ship sank. There was only one lifeboat. The young prince was put in that, to be rowed away. His sister screamed. He put back to save her also. So many leaped into the boat from the sinking ship that all were drowned except one butcher, who clung to the mast. The passengers on this ship were 140 picked and noble knights, guarding the person of their future king.—Collier's Weekly.

Traveling Incognito. Some investigator of curious subjects has discovered that the inventor of traveling incognito was Peter the Great of Russia. The next after the famous Russian sovereign to adopt the practice was Joseph II. of Austria, who in 1777 made a little stay in Paris under the title of Count von Falkenstein. During the revolutionary period Louis XVIII. buried his temporarily useless royal dignity under the privacy of Comte de Lille, while Charles X. passed as the Comte de Marie. The ex-Empress Eugenie in her splendor frequently took little trips as the Comtesse de Pierrefonds.

Practical Results. "There may be something in this theory of telepathy," said the mystical person. "You mean thought concentration that enables you to impress your ideas on others?" inquired Senator Borahum. "Yes." "Well, there may be something in it. But don't depend on it. For practical results in impressing people, telepathy will never compare with a brass band and a parade."—Washington Star.
