

Apples $1.75 Box

---We have just received a carload, 595 boxes, of Yakima Apples. And they are without question the best apples ever brought to Bend.

JONATHANS---A nice juicy, sweet apple. The best eating apple that grows. These are just right, now, and they will keep for two months.

WINTER APPLES---We have the Winesaps, Yellow Newtowns and Rome Beauties. These are long keepers and will be better in January than they are now. For an apple for immediate use we recommend the Jonathan. Order your apples now. We will store them for you and deliver any time you want them.

DOLLS.

We are already receiving some of our Christmas goods. Direct from Germany we received 42 doz dolls for the children. They range in price from.....

10c to 25c each.

Some of them are very nicely dressed. Others will go to sleep when they lay down. These represent the best values in Dolls that we have ever had.

CALICOES.

Staple Calicoes, guaranteed fast colors in Indigos, light blues, blacks, greys, shepard checks, clarets, and shirtings. All calicoes advanced 3-4 of a cent a yard 30 days ago but these were bought last Summer and we have marked them on the old basis. Your choice of the entire lot at..... 7c a yard or 15 yards for $1.00.

ALWAYS SOMETHING NEW AND ALWAYS SOMETHING GOOD AT

Lara's

"The Store of Better Values."

BITS ABOUT TOWN.

Howard Spining and family leave tomorrow for Wilbur, Wash.
D. L. McKay spent yesterday in Pringville.
Mrs. O. M. Patterson went to Portland Sunday on a visit.
F. S. Stanley and I. Lewis were here Saturday from Portland.
Adam Klein, brother of J. J. Klein, is here, coming from Belmont, Iowa.
Dr. E. R. Carter, a Portland dentist, spent Monday here at the Hotel Bend.

Mrs. R. D. Ketchum is visiting this week in Prineville and taking in the fair.
Mr. and Mrs. John E. Ryan left Monday on a business trip to Klamath Falls.
Mrs. J. H. Wenzel, who has been ill from ptomaine poisoning, is convalescing.
Harry Wyse was called to Portland last Thursday by the critical illness of a friend.
E. Morris Lara, who with Ward H. Coble has conducted the Central Oregon Brokerage Company business, has disposed of his interest to Mr. Coble.

J. Baker and H. McElfish, both of Portland, have taken up homesteads in Central Oregon.
E. M. Thompson spent Monday in the Powell Butte and Redmond country tuning pianos.
George Young and a party of surveyors spent Monday at Lava island doing some surveying work.
N. P. Smith is having his store remodeled inside to give more room to take care of his increasing business.
Mr. and Mrs. Todd, who recently came here from Oklahoma, have bought the Wing property in Park Addition.
A minstrel troupe of four genuine "niggers" appeared at the Dream Theatre last Wednesday and Thursday nights.
Due to recent high winds many trees have fallen across the road up the west side of the Deschutes to Spring River.
The musical program given at the Star Theatre last Thursday evening was excellent, all those taking part doing splendidly.
James Overton, an old timer here, who has been away for several years, has returned and will be joined by his family later.
F. L. Young and F. A. Thornbrue of Borax Lake, in Lake county, came in Sunday night with their auto truck for freight.
Last night at Prineville, "Bill" Hanley and C. E. S. Wood spoke on "Equal Suffrage," advocating the enfranchisement of women.
A. O. Hunter of the Bend Company, who has been east for several months, returned last week and will be here for several weeks.
Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Sawyer Jr., who recently drove over the mountains from Grants Pass, have rented the Markel bungalow.
The skylight at the Seward photograph studio has been changed from the top of the building to the side, giving a better arrangement.
The Bend school teachers went to Prineville Monday to attend the teachers' institute. Prof. Shouse is on the program for an address.
Fred A. Rice, county surveyor, announces in another column his candidacy as a non-partisan good roads candidate for the office he now holds.
M. S. Miller, who recently established a hotel and travel stopping place at Harper, reports a heavy travel on the south road. His hotel, say those who recently have used it, offers a very excellent accommodation.
The Altamont Hotel has opened up a dining room of its own, which will be conducted permanently in connection with the hotel. J. J. Klein, proprietor, has secured Mrs. W. D. Cursey as manager of this end of the establishment, and promises an eating place that will be first class in every particular.
Jim Bean called attention to a curious freak of nature Sunday when he brought to town a small mess of

When you go home have a nice home to go to

Dear Amy--
I don't wonder that Jennie's husband stays down town nights so much. She doesn't seem to care a thing about fixing up her home. Fred would stay home more, I know, if Jennie would only make it more congenial for him. He won't mind giving her the money to buy furniture with, either, if she'll only go buy it and keep it looking right when she gets it. All she thinks about is how she looks when she is out--not what her home looks like when Fred is in.
Bye, Bye.
Lou

P. S.--Jennie could furnish her home so nicely with first-class furniture and for so little money, too, if she would only visit

E. M. Thompson

Where Your Dollar Does its Duty.

ripe strawberries he had picked on the Charles Randolph place, just north of Pilot Butte. The berries were growing in the open and appeared to be thriving, despite the fact that it is the middle of October.

The new hotel at La Pine, built by W. R. Riley, who was burned out some months ago, bids fair to be one of the very best to be found in any community the size of La Pine in the state. Mr. Riley has fitted it throughout with first class furniture and in conducting a hostelry that is making La Pine a very popular stopping place.

C. B. Allen was in town yesterday. W. G. Fordham was down from La Pine Monday.

Miss Winifred Eleyea preached in Terrebonne Sunday.

John B. Wimer of Laidlaw was doing business in town Monday.

The Bridge Club will meet with Mrs. E. D. Wilson Friday afternoon.

John Hils, forest ranger, is in town this week from his station up river.

Mrs. C. A. Vonderheit returned on Monday evening from a visit of five days at Redmond.

E. N. Strong of the Oregon Life Insurance Company has been in this territory the past week.

Mrs. C. Lorange, a sister of Dr. P. H. Dencer, and her husband were visiting at the Dencer home last week.

J. G. Redmond of La Pine was in Bend Sunday. Mr. Redmond is the school teacher at the neighboring town.

Dr. A. A. Burris, who has been in town for several weeks making annual proof on desert land, has returned to his home in Eugene.

B. G. Cook, who runs the edger saw at The Bend Company's mill, had the thumb of his right hand torn off today by getting it caught in the gear.

George Millican, the stockman living southeast of town, is off on a vacation trip at Eugene. He has a gold mine near there which he will inspect while on the trip.

Mrs. J. E. Gould, mother of R. B. Gould, and Mrs. J. P. Rea left this morning for Calgary, Alberta, Canada. It is probable that they will be here again next summer.

Miss Jessie Davenport, who has been visiting at the Lee Davenport ranch, left Sunday for her home in Seattle. She was accompanied to Bend by Mrs. Davenport.

Sheriff T. N. Balfour was here on Monday en route to Lakeview to get the Robinson boys, held there on a charge of horse stealing. The horses were shipped from Bend.

Mrs. Ada B. Millican spent yesterday in town having dental work done. Cal Eaton, formerly of the Ten-Bar ranch east of town, who is living at Eugene, is over this week on a hunting expedition.

Rev. W. R. Howell and Miss Elyea are in attendance this week at the Baptist State Convention at Oregon City. Mr. Howell will spend part of the time at his home in Portland, returning to Bend Saturday.

Since October 1, 152 carloads of livestock have been shipped out of Bend. There were six cars of horses, two of cattle and 144 of sheep. The sheep went mostly to Coleman, the station on the Oregon Trunk nearest the Shaniko-Antelope country, to Seattel, Tacoma, North Yakima and Portland.

Mrs. Stevenson makes a specialty of 25 cent dinners, families especially invited Sundays. Ladies' rest room in connection. 221f
(Advertisement)

MANY CONTRACTORS HERE

Council Will Meet Tonight to Open Sewer Construction Bids.

The City Council has a meeting tonight at which bids for the construction of the municipal sewer system will be opened. Some 20 contractors are in town looking over the proposed work, and many satisfactory bids are expected.

The following is the list of contractors here:
Glenn Kibbe of Kibbe-Walton Co., Portland; M. Jennings, E. J. Schmitt, of Jennings & Schmitt, Spokane; E. G. Titus, F. S. Taylor, of the Consolidated Contracting Co., Portland; H. P. Rolfe, of the Portland Engineering Co., Portland; H. E. Foster, of Foster, Huddle & Thompson, Spokane; J. H. Fife of Spokane, who, with his bride, is on his honeymoon trip; W. T. Jacobsen, J. Jensen, of Jacobson-Bade Co., Portland; E. T. Johnson, Portland; L. E. Hutton, of Jeffery & Hutton, Portland; Jack Eldon, of Reliance Const. Co., Portland; R. M. Bardson, Charles Hammer, of R. M. Bardson Co., Butte, Mont.; D. H. Stone, of Western Clay Co., Portland; H. E. Wood, of McCargar, Bates & Lively, Portland.

WEATHER IN SEPTEMBER

Report For the County Furnished by Demonstration Farms.

Weather in Crook county September this year was generally clear and cool, being favorable for harvesting operations, according to the report of the county demonstration farm officials. Three rainy periods were fairly general over the county--the first on the 2d, then from the 5th to 8th and again the 13th. Rainfall for the various stations in the county was as follows:

	1912	1911
Sisters	.37	2.63
Riverdale Ranch	.36
Rosland	.32	2.29
Bend	.23	2.65
Ochoco Creek	.75	2.45
Ochoco	.73	2.45
Summit Prairie	.72
Ruger Creek	.22	1.47
Rio Hermoso	.55
Hay Creek	.79	2.27
Metolius	.31	2.02
Post	.44	1.42
Redmond	.32
Prineville	.68
Bear Creek	1.59
Mauzy	1.59
Paulina	.45

CASE TRIED AT LAIDLAW

Settlers Arrested on Charge of Unlawfully Taking Water.

On a charge of taking water unlawfully from ditches of the Columbia Southern Irrigation Company, Waldemar Peterson and Ed White of Laidlaw were arrested Monday. Deputy Sheriff Fox of Bend serving the papers. The complaint was sworn to before Justice J. C. Thorp of Laidlaw by John B. Wimer, manager of the irrigation ditches.

Peterson, when arraigned, plead guilty and was fined $25, but the sentence was suspended. White demanded a jury trial, and the case was heard before Justice Thorp yesterday afternoon. Vernon A. Forbes appeared as representative of the district attorney and Ross Farnham as attorney for the defendant. The trial was begun at 2 p. m. and it was 9 o'clock last night before the jury returned its verdict, which was that White was guilty. He was fined $50 but the sentence was also suspended.

TELEPHONE IMPROVEMENT DUE

Pioneer Manager Promises New Equipment For Business District.

Manager J. F. Pope of the Pioneer Telephone Company stated yesterday in a telephone interview from Prineville that extensive improvements are to be made immediately in the Bend system, especially the portion covering the business district.

Some 30 new cedar poles, 35 feet in length, are to be placed on Wall, Oregon and other streets, all with new cross arms. A considerable amount of new wire also will be strung. The immediate outside improvement will cost about $1000, and after it is completed, says Mr. Pope, betterments will be made in the equipment of "central." Beginning on the 26th of the month, Clark Paul, a lineman, will live here, caring for the upkeep of the local system.

LECTURER COMING NOV. 29

Library Club Secures George Gilbert Bancroft For Address Here.

At a special meeting of the Library Club Monday afternoon, arrangements were made to have George Gilbert Bancroft, a popular lecturer, to deliver an address here on Friday evening, November 29. Miss Lillian Lewis, Mr. Bancroft's advance agent, was here on a booking tour and met with the club.

Mr. Bancroft is highly recommended and the ladies feel sure that he will be heard by a large audience in Bend. He will speak at Prineville and Redmond.

WOMAN CANDIDATE SPEAKS

Mrs. D. W. Nichols of Laidlaw Addresses Local Crowd.

The political campaign in the county this year has brought out a woman candidate, this being Mrs. Della Wilson Nichols of Laidlaw, who is running on the Socialist ticket for county superintendent of public instruction.

Mrs. Nichols spoke in the Star Theatre Sunday to an audience of more than 50 people. She discussed education from a Socialist standpoint. She is a good talker. In the course of her address she recited one of her poems. She has had several of these printed and sells the pamphlet to aid in conducting her campaign.

A feature of the meeting here was a recitation by Mrs. Nichols' 2-year-old girl. The local socialists are conducting a vigorous campaign, and believe that they will make a strong showing at the polls.

LAPINE ENDORSES COE

(Continued from Page One).

substance of the platform he advanced.

Judge Worden Talks.

Then followed a few words from Fred LaFollette, editor of the Inter-Mountain. Later, Judge W. S. Worden, the "Good Roads Judge" of Klamath county, who came from Crescent in answer to a phone request urging him to address the meeting, appeared, and was greeted with enthusiasm. He told of the road work of his county, and of the great importance of good highways. Also, he spoke in the warmest terms of Dr. Coe, whom he referred to as "the next judge of Crook county," telling of his valuable work in connection with the Central Oregon Development League, and heartily recommending his candidacy.

Then followed music by the Bend orchestra and dancing. At midnight a supper was served at Riley's Hotel.

The Bend people who attended the meeting were U. C. Coe, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Sawhill, G. P. Putnam, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Lara, E. R. Post, M. S. Lattin, E. M. Lara, Mrs. Maddock, Mr. and Mrs. George Young, Miss Arrie Black, Charles Hunter, J. C. Rhodes, Miss Dolson, Miss Iva West, H. A. Miller, Miss Eva Graves. In a car that broke down and did not reach La Pine were Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Dement, James Ryan, H. W. Skuse and R. M. Smith.

This Saturday afternoon La Pine has another important meeting, when Professors Powers and Kent of O. A. C. will conduct a farmers' institute. On the 26th there will be another big event, a barbecue and general good time, with speaking upon good roads by Col. Thatcher and Judge Worden. The "Coast to Coast Highway" will be discussed. It is expected that Bend will be well represented.

Don't wait until holiday time for those photo enlargements, or set of album prints. ***

WHATS NICER THAN A FINE NEW RANGE

TALK ABOUT EASE AND BEAUTY AND COMFORT SAY

JUST ASK YOUR WIFE IF SHE WOULDN'T LIKE TO HAVE A NEW RANGE

SHE'LL LIKE THE KIND WE SELL. COME, SEE.

Skuse Hardware Company.