

Opening of Toyland

Just arrived, a beautiful line of toys for the children. We feel exceptionally proud of our toy department this year as it shows a larger and more complete line than has ever been seen in our store heretofore.

Bring the children in to see the toys. We will be very glad to put away anything you may select. Will hold it for you until the day before Xmas.

Our assortment is varied but only very few of each kind.

Dressed Dolls that open and close their eyes and can be dressed and undressed, at from $1.00 to $4.00

Jointed Undressed Dolls, at from 50c to $3.00

Also a big line of Campbell Kids Clown Dolls, Rag Dolls and Unbreakable.

Doll Carriages made of leather and rattan $2.50 to $4.00

Complete Laundry Sets, including Ironing Boards, Wash Boards, Clothes Driers and Clothes Baskets.

Also a big line of Whips, Reins, Magnets, Whistles, Rattles, Slates, Games, Blocks, Beads, Mechanical Trains, Iron Toys, Toy Stoves, Banks, Cannons, Sewing Machines, Guns, Tea Sets, Hammocks, Autos and many other toys too numerous to mention here.

Look at our big front windows for complete assortment.

ALWAYS SOMETHING NEW AND ALWAYS SOMETHING GOOD at

Lara's

"The Store of Better Values."

and Mrs. W. H. Staats, and will be in Bend probably a week.

Stated communication. Bend lodge 139 A. F. & A. M., Thursday evening, the 24th, special work. J. D. Davidson, W. M.

The first rain in several weeks at Bend came Monday night, continuing through yesterday and last night, intermittently. There was a fall of sleet yesterday morning.

The Bend teachers who attended the institute at Prineville returned Thursday night, reporting the meeting very successful. Prof. Shouse took part in the program.

Rev. Willert R. Howell has some excellent leaflets dealing with the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals movement, which he will be glad to distribute upon application.

A big delegation of Socialists will go from here to Laidlaw Sunday to attend a political meeting at which the speakers will be Mrs. Della W. Nichols and Mr. Glines of Bend.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bennett and Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Corkett have recently moved from the May apartments into the two modern residences erected by L. D. Wiest in Wiestoria.

Robinson and Shorty Allen. They will be tried at this term of Circuit Court. The stolen horses were shipped to Washington, but the owners got trace of them, recovering most of them.

The Fraternal Brotherhood lodge, at its meeting last week, extended a vote of thanks to all those who participated in the Fraternal Brotherhood Night program given recently at the Star Theatre.

A. S. Collins has bought two lots in Deschutes Addition of Hunter & Staats and expects to build a substantial residence on them this winter. They are located near R. G. Blackwell's residence.

There was a fire alarm at 12:45 p. m. yesterday, on account of a blaze in Holmes & Smith's saloon. It caught from the stove flue, in the ceiling of the first floor but was put out before any damage resulted.

L. D. Wiest is building two more bungalows on 8th street between D and E avenues, on the same general plan of the two which were recently completed for him. Corketts and Bennetts now occupy the first houses.

The Ladies' Library Club will hold a cafeteria dinner in the Johnson building tomorrow (Thursday) evening. The ladies are anxious that everyone keep their appetites until then. Supper will be served commencing at 5:30 p. m.

President Julius Kruttschnitt of the Southern Pacific and President J. D. Farrell of the O. W. R. & N. lines were here for an hour Sunday evening, on an inspection trip. It was Mr. Kruttschnitt's first visit to Bend.

The first snowfall of the winter came last Saturday morning, mixed with rain. It lasted only a short time, being followed by a clear day. The wind was high Friday night, blowing the clouds across the mountains from the southwest.

Mrs. Mary Hardy, who has been visiting Mrs. J. W. Dimick, her daughter, for six weeks, left today for her home at Ambloy, Wash. She was accompanied by Mrs. Dimick, who will spend several weeks at Ambloy and in Portland.

Joe A. Brinkley of the Forest Service left yesterday for Kansas City where on October 31 he will marry Miss Ruth Wilhelm. He will return to Bend with his bride about the middle of December. Miss Wilhelm visited in Bend last winter.

An excellent orchestra and choir has been organized by Dr. Gorby of the Presbyterian church, to play at the morning services at the Star Theatre. The meeting for practice is held on Thursday evening at 7:30. This week it will be at the Lara residence.

An advertisement has been posted at the postoffice calling for bids on furnishing suitable postoffice quarters here. It states that about 1400 square feet of floor space is required and that the equipment will cost in the neighborhood of $1600. Bids are to be received until the 25th.

Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Woolley of Tumalo, got a spill into the river last Wednesday, a couple of miles below town, when the hack tipped over while the horses were being watered and became frightened. Mr. and Mrs. Woolley were on their way Halfour went to Lake county last week to get are Punk Robinson, Bill

The first affair in the new Sather building will be the Hallowe'en ball on the evening of the 31st. This is scheduled for the downstairs room. The first lodge meeting upstairs will be of the Rebekahs on Friday evening, November 1. Most of the lodges are preparing something special to celebrate their moving into new quarters.

Mrs. Stevenson makes a specialty of 25 cent dinners, families especially invited Sundays. Ladies' rest room in connection. 3211

GIVE UNEXCELLED SERVICE. Good barber service? That is what you want, of course. There is one shop in Bend where you always get this, at Innes & Davidson's, on Oregon street near Wall. Innes & Davidson's is the pioneer barber shop of the city, and they have, by their courteous and superior service, gained a large patronage. That haircut and shave that you need—better get them at Innes & Davidson's.

BITS ABOUT TOWN.

John Steidl went to Portland Monday.

J. M. Lawrence went to Portland today.

Father Luke Sheshan went to Redmond Monday.

C. N. Ehret of Redmond was in Bend yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Lara went to Portland Sunday.

Fred N. Wallace of Laidlaw was in town Monday.

The horse rustlers whom Sheriff

The Priscilla Club met with Miss Trautner Monday night.

Miss Arrie Black will sing this evening at the Star Theatre.

F. Simpson of Denver arrived last night and will work at Corkett's.

C. I. Gist of Sisters was here Monday on business as deputy sheriff.

Miss Gertrude Schultz returned to Bend last week for a visit of a few days.

B. J. Spencer is now at Ontario, Ore., and will probably not return to Bend.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Davenport were in town Saturday from their Powell

Butte ranch.

Ralph Spencer, foreman of The Bulletin, was laid up Tuesday on account of illness.

"Tillie", Clyde McKay's mare, "flicked the slats" out of his buggy Monday morning.

Clarence Mannheim has been on the sick list this week, having an attack of the grip.

The Oregon Trunk construction gang is in town this week working on the local yards.

Grant Pulte, manager of the St. Charles Hotel at Albany, was here yesterday on business.

Misses Anne and Gertrude Markel went out to their homesteads last week to spend the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Putnam entertained about 30 friends at a fancy dress party Saturday night.

Howell Roberts, the 4½-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Roberts had his tonsils removed Monday.

The roofs of a number of freight cars were blown off at Metolius during the big wind storm Friday night.

Mrs. O. C. Ticknor, after a visit with her sister, Mrs. A. M. Pringle, returned Saturday to her home in Portland.

A. R. Rogers, the St. Paul lumberman, who controls more timber in this country than any other man, arrived last night.

In the interest of the Salvation Army Rescue Home in Portland, O. Gunderson delivered an address at the Baptist church Monday evening.

In honor of the new pastor, Rev. E. C. Newham, the Baptist and Presbyterian congregations worshiped at the Methodist church Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Kiger of Milliean valley left yesterday for Albany to spend the winter, taking a leave of absence under the homestead law.

R. L. Brewster, in another column, this week makes reply to the campaign statements of his opponent for the county surveyorship, Fred A. Rice.

Roscoe Howard, J. H. Stanley and W. F. Vandeventer left Monday on an extended bear hunt around Crane Prairie. They took 16 dogs with them.

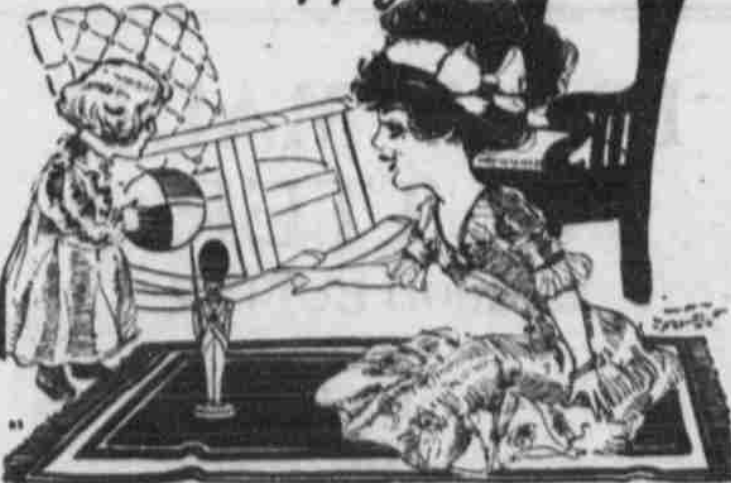

S. C. Caldwell has been in Portland the past week, going down as representative from here to the sessions of the grand lodge, Knights of Pythias.

Mrs. L. C. Fleming was ill for several days last week from ptomaine poisoning caused by eating some unwholesome canned strawberries Wednesday evening.

H. B. and G. E. Mallett and K. Morven of Portland came in Monday night and yesterday went to the homestead country south of here to pick out a claim.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hubbard of Independence and Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Hubbard of Portland are visiting Mr.

Nice new furniture and rugs will make home happy

Dear Amy:-

New furniture demands new rugs. When you go to buy your rugs it makes lots of difference where you go to buy them. I always leave the selection to people who know what colors will harmonize with my furniture, and what kind will give long wear and always keep their bright colors.

Always your friend,

Lou.

P. S.—Neither I nor my friends have ever been disappointed in the rugs we bought from

E. M. Thompson

Where Your Dollar Does its Duty.

IT'S TIME

you're getting that new coat or sweater and you'll do well to buy it now while the selection is complete

Ladies' Coats
from $12.00 to $25.00

Children's Coats
from $2.50 to $7.50

Children's Sweaters
from 75c to $2.50

Ladies' Sweaters
from $2.25 to $6.00

Correct Styles and the Newest Things

AT

MANNHEIMER'S

Walk-Over Shoes Star Brand Shoes

VIOLATION OF LAW ALLEGED. For alleged violation of a state law which prohibits the working of men more than eight hours a day on state, county or other public works, State Commissioner of Labor O. P. Hoff has taken action against those in charge of building the county bridge here. Superintendent M. J. Danielson and others were subpoenaed to appear this week before the grand jury at Prineville. Mr. Hoff was in Bend last Wednesday working up the case.

MASK BALL

On Hallowe'en

Thursday, October 31st

To be given by Royal Neighbors of America Lodge

SATHER'S HALL

Six prizes to be awarded

GOOD MUSIC AND A GOOD FLOOR

Proceeds to be used to replace paraphernalia destroyed by fire July 3.

NEVER AGAIN! NO MORE MAIL ORDER GOODS COME INTO MY HOUSE

FIGURE ON THE FREIGHT BEFORE YOU SEND OFF TO THE MAIL-ORDER HOUSE FOR HARDWARE. IT IS HEAVY AND THE FREIGHT WILL COST LIKE ALL-FIRE.

THE MAIL-ORDER HOUSE HIDES POOR QUALITY UNDER THE NAME OF UNKNOWN BRANDS. WE SELL KNOWN BRANDS.

CAN YOU GET YOUR MONEY BACK FROM THE MAIL-ORDER HOUSE IF ANYTHING GOES WRONG? YOU CAN FROM US.

WE ARE YOUR HOME PEOPLE AND "MUST" TREAT YOU RIGHT. WE CAN'T AFFORD TO BITE YOU.

BUY FROM US ONLY BECAUSE WE GIVE YOU GOOD STUFF FOR YOUR GOOD MONEY.

Skuse Hardware Company.