PROF. SHAW ON VISIT TO THE PACIFIC COAST

Agricultural Expert Says Central Oregon Land is Capable of Producing 62,000,000 Bushels.

Prof. Thomas Shaw, agriculturist of the Great Northern Railway, extracts from whose book on dry farming The Bulletin is now printing, is on a visit to the coast. In an interview given the Portland Telegram, Prof. Shaw had the following to say regarding this section of the state:

"In Central Oregon there are more than 10,000,000 acres of virgin volcanic ash soil upon which can be raised more than 62,000,000 bushels of wheat, or an amount equal to the present yield of Oregon, Washington and Idaho.

"Central Oregon soil is enormously rich. Nowhere in the United States is there more productive land. There are 10,000,000 acres of land that never has been touched, lying idle simply because of the farmer's ignorance of dry farming methods, and 5,000,000 of this is wheat land. In this portion of Oregon alone the entire wheat output of the great Pacific Northwest can be doubled.

"There are two ways to prepare land for growing crops without irrigation. Both involve cultivation and the loosening of the soil so that it will hold moisture.

"One way is to 'summer fallow' the land, keeping the earth mulched by harrowing and keeping it clean and clear of weeds. Harrow it after every shower of any consequence as the rain will pack it down. Then sow the winter grain in the latter part of August. The trouble with Oregon farmers is that they do not sow quick enough. All seed should be in the ground by September 1. When prepared in this way the land has retained enough moisture to grow and ripen a good crop.

"Another way is to grow a crop of fodder corn on the land. Cultivate the corn and when it is cut the land is ready for grain. It might appear on the face of it that the corn would take moisture and fertility from the soil, but it does not injure it. In the first place this Central Oregon soil is so rich that the corn will not begin to impoverish it and in the other the corn shades the soil and prevents the sun from drawing the moisture out of it. Corn or potatoes, either one or both, can be grown on dry farming soil for this purpose.

"Nearly all the grain should be winter wheat, oats, barley, emmer and vetch. If it is sown early in the fall it will ripen before the dry weather. Milomaise, potatoes, corn and alfalfa are also good dry land crops. Alfalfa promises to be one of the most important crops of this dry land country. It is an especially good crop for seed purposes as seed alfalfa grows better on dry soil than on wet."

SCHOOL NOTES

(Reported for The Bulletin.)

The composition writing contest between the sophomore and freshman classes has ended. The eight best from the two grades were read Friday afternoon and the decision of the judges made known. Alice Handolph, a member of the freshman class, submitted the best composition and Robert Innes, a sophomore, the second best. As a whole, the judges deemed the writing of the sophomore class the better. The judges to whom the compositions were submitted were Mrs. H. J. Overturf, G. P. Putnam and Rev. E. C. Newham.

After the reading of the compositions Rev. Mr. Newham gave a short talk on his native country, England.

The football season closed Saturday with the game here with the C. C. H. S. The score was 28 to 0 in favor of the Prineville eleven. The contest was played in the rain but a hundred or more spectators were out to cheer the locals.

Politics in the High School is not much different from that in the entire state, as shown by a straw vote taken Monday of last week. Out of a total of 26, Wilson received 14, Roosevelt 11, Debs 6 and Taft 5.

The vote on equal suffrage was 20 for and 16 against.

THE COMING Hog Center

All indications point toward Bend as the center of a profitable and extensive hog raising section. The climatic conditions of this section are ideal. Shipping facilities make rapid transportation at low cost possible. Farmers will do well to look into the hog raising business as it is a paying one.

Getting the largest profit out of a pig, requires simply proper feeding to develop the greatest amount of weight in the shortest time, on the most economical feed.

FOR THIS PURPOSE, FEED UNION MEAT COMPANY'S DIGESTER TANKAGE

Union Meat Company's Digester Tankage develops bone and muscle in young pigs, and makes them grow. It prevents rheumatism, thumps and ricketts. It imparts such fat and finish to "show" swine and market hogs that it has won the title, "The feed that makes Prize Winners and Market Toppers."

Union Meat Company's Digester Tankage is the most economical feed obtainable. Experiments have shown that $1 worth of Digester Tankage puts more weight on to a hog than $1 worth of any other kind of food.

Digester Tankage is a concentrated Protein Meal. It is made from fresh, wholesome pieces of meat trimmed from beef. It is shipped in the form of a meal which makes it easily mixed in mash feeds. Shipped in convenient 100 pound sacks. Keeps indefinitely.

Digester Tankage has been tried and recommended and is now being used by best growers and authorities in the Northwest. It is becoming more popular every day. It will pay you to know more about it. Send at once for circular No. 49.

WAS USED IN STONE AGE

Natural Glass From Glass Buttes is Obsidian, Made from Lava.

In a letter received yesterday from F. W. Graham, he has the following to say regarding samples of the "glass" from the Glass Buttes country, which he sent to experts for examination, with the hope that some commercial value might be found for the queer freaks.

"I thought it might interest you to know that I have just heard from it and am advised that the samples sent are first class obsidian, or volcanic glass, a product formed from the rapid cooling of lava. They are of interest from a geological and mineralogical point of view, but, unfortunately, have at present no commercial value.

"During the Stone Age, nearly all primitive tribes utilized this material in the making of their spear and arrow heads, so since the advent of iron and steel there is not much of a chance to anticipate any business in that direction. There is a possibility that ultimately some commercial adaptation of this particular form of native glass may be found."

MARKET REPORT.

NORTH PORTLAND—Receipts for the week have been cattle 576, calves 65, hogs 2728, sheep 6734, horses and mules 113. Cattle receipts have been of light volume this week most of the stuff being received being cows and heifers, well finished and of good quality. Choice steers are in demand but prices about the same as a week ago, however, prices will improve now since the heavy liquidation has discontinued. Heifers range from $5.85 to $6.00 and a few extra choice were up to $6.25, but this could not be obtained for any large bunch. There is a good demand for bulls and light veal calves.

The arrivals of hogs have not been as heavy as last week, consequently the price jumped up to 10c since Monday's opening. Top hogs are selling at $7.85 with the prospect of a steady market.

With an increase in the receipts of sheep and lambs over last week, top lambs are selling from $5.75 to $6.85. Best wethers $4.50 to $4.85. Ewes $3.00 to $3.85.

ACTIVITY IN TIMBER.

(Sisters Herald.)
A crew of nine timber cruisers arrived in Sisters Tuesday and left on Wednesday for the timber belt north of Sisters where they are engaged in making a cruise of private timber holdings. They have just completed a cruise of extensive holdings south of here for the same parties. The object of this cruise is not known, but it is evident from the activity of all parties owning timber in this section that the time is not far off when the timber in this section will be moving to market.

DON'T KNOW THEY HAVE APPENDICITIS

Many Bend people who have chronic appendicitis, which is not very painful, have doctored for years for gas on the stomach, sour stomach or constipation. The Patterson Drug Co. states if these people will try simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as compounded in Adler-ika, the German appendicitis remedy, they will be surprised at the QUICK benefit. A SINGLE DOSE relieves these troubles INSTANTLY. (Advertisement)
