

Gifts For the Home

All kinds of match scratchers have been made by the trade in artistic colorings and materials, but none of them seems to fill the place of the homemade "Scratch My Back."

The scratcher illustrated is built from an oblong of corrugated paper about five and a half inches long and three and a half deep. A postcard forms the front of the useful convenience, and the back is of sandpaper, with the wording in gold, "Scratch Here."

The edges are passe-partouted together, and a narrow ribbon makes the hanger. Black beaded matches are fitted into the corrugated holes top and bottom of the scratcher.

Crape Table Covers.

A chocolate brown in Japanese crape from the apothecary's is used for hemmed table covers, stenciled in most effective colors. These covers make stunning gifts.

On this soft brown a light putty color is used with a brick red, and the pattern is one of the simplest of the running stencil design.

These table covers are made of a square measured by the width of the crape, thirty inches, or else they represent two widths or even three, overlaid together by hand with silk to match the crape and with stitches so fine as to be unnoticed. The hems also are not conspicuous, an eighth of an inch being one of the favorite ideas in hem measurement.

Blue crape has been most effectively used, gray blue with a decoration of dull purple and sage green suggesting the colors of the iris.

White of a creamy tone is stenciled with pale yellow and brilliant orange in conventional design.

Four squares of yellow crape are joined with narrow gold lace insertion to form a large table cover, each corner of the finished piece being decorated in long Japanese stitches with gold thread in a wandering leaf design. The soft shades and the crape quality suggest almost endless possibilities for decorations.

Gifts For Housekeepers.

The woman who keeps house is not hard to give to. Something for the house always appeals to her. The embroidered pillowcase pictured will add handsomely to her linen closet. It is of fine linen. Above the deep hemstitched hem is an embroidered pattern done in satin stitch with mercerized white cotton. In the circle is worked the initial. Then there are many novelties for the kitchen, too, which she is sure to like.

An alarm clock is rarely given, and if a handsome variety is given it makes a nice gift. Choose a face with large figures. Cooks find these clocks convenient to set at the hour when a cake or roast must be taken from the oven.

Have you seen the new spice cases of nickel and glass? They are made of nickel rods one above the other, forming frames to hold glass bottles with nickel screw tops. The name of the spice is blown in the glass of each bottle. These come in various sizes, but a convenient one holds six bottles, three in a row, and gives room for nutmeg, ginger, allspice, cinnamon, cloves, mustard. The frames screw to the wall or inside a cupboard door.

MANY FAMILIES ARE COMING

People Moving From All Parts of the Country to Central Oregon.

Scores of people are coming to Bend this winter to take up their residence in town or in the surrounding country. A large majority of these is families.

According to Hugh O'Kane of the Bend Hotel there have been 10 families to arrive at his place alone since the first of the month, and of course the other hotels are getting their share of this travel. Improved farming and free government lands are being secured by the newcomers. There have been no reduced railway rates to induce these people to come in at this time, hence it is to be expected that when the colonist rates go into effect next spring a large number of homeseekers will take advantage of them and join the throngs that are casting their lot in this part of the country to win their way to fortune.

PERIOD MADE A DIFFERENCE

Eastes Receives Many Replies From Advertisement of Lots.

The other day J. A. Eastes received an unexpected reply to an advertisement he has been carrying in The Bulletin. Through a typographical error, the price of certain lots in Aubrey Heights was quoted as being $1.50, instead of $150. So E. E. Sharon, grand secretary of the Odd Fellows, at Portland, wrote as follows:

'Dear Jim: I will take several of these lots at $1.50. That's cheap, but how can a fellow make monthly payments on a dollar and a half lot.'

It is understood Mr. Eastes has many other "prospects" on these Christmas sale lots, but refuses to come through at the price. He says the drinks are on The Bulletin, and that this paper will have to produce the lots at the price advertised.

LARA'S OPENING ENJOYABLE.

The Christmas opening at Lara's store Saturday proved a highly enjoyable affair, many people "taking in" the music and special decorations, not to mention the splendid display of gift goods, there during the afternoon and evening. Music was supplied by Charles Hunter, Mrs. Elmer Ward, Miss Graves and O. M. Gupit, with George Young playing also in the evening. Miss Arrie Black sang many songs. After the closing Mr. Lara entertained his musicians and employes at a supper at Corbett's.

Lattin; trustee for three years, E. A. Sather.

CLEARING BEND PARK STREETS.

Clark Rhodes, local manager of the Bend Park Company, has arranged for the clearing of all streets in Bend Park additions, the work to be completed within six months. T. F. Malone, who, with his wife, came here recently to make his home, has the contract for Bend Park, excepting only the southwest forty, which is to be cleared by Bishop & Grabler.

LITIGATION CONTINUES.

At Laidlaw Saturday there was another chapter added to the Fisher-Richardson litigation, this being an action by Richardson to recover a horse replevined by Fisher as the outcome of the trial the week before. The jury was out five hours Saturday but could not agree. V. A. Forbes area is extraordinary. It gives the state an undeveloped resource of colossal potentiality.

INSPECTS LAFOLETTE NURSERY R. H. Mr. Weber formerly owned a nursery at The Dalles and has large holdings at Mosier and Hood River. He is enthusiastic about the fruit business in Central Oregon.

DESCHUTES IS GREAT ASSET

"The Deschutes river stores nearly one third of the unused water powers of Oregon, and the unused water powers of Oregon will produce an electrical energy that would require the burning of 36,000,000 tons of coal a year to duplicate.

"Thus viewed, the Deschutes is the equivalent of the greatest coal field in the world. The coal fields become exhausted, but the Deschutes will flow on forever. It is the white coal of the ages that will never lose its effectiveness, and that the pick and shovel of the miner can never exhaust.

"The offer of the federal government to join in accurately determining the possibilities of the river so that its potentialities can be utilized for the welfare of Oregon, is a notable act. Its offer of assistance in bringing the stored powers of the Deschutes into utilization should leave no question of what is to be Oregon's attitude in response.

"It is one of the most notable projects that has been conceived in the whole history of Oregon."

OUTLOOK GOOD SAYS JOHNSON

gle tax could not show the justice of such a course.

There will undoubtedly be tariff revision by the Democrats. There would have been no matter who was elected. As a nation we have learned a great deal since 1893 and the Democrats have learned along with the rest of us and while they will undoubtedly eliminate certain existing abuses in the tariff, yet I do not look for any revolutionary action on their part which would have a tendency to unset legitimate business. All we need is good crops and reasonable attention to business and the country is safe for another four years.

Yours sincerely, S. O. JOHNSON.
