

CENTRAL OREGON NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS.

TUMALO

TUMALO, Dec. 5.—J. L. Cody, Mr. Smith, Mr. Hanley and Mr. Tweot of Bandon were visiting G. W. Wimer and family Sunday and looking over the country for dairy farms. They said they were well pleased with Central Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Horner were pleasant callers at the Wimer home yesterday. Mr. Horner says he will make some substantial improvements on his Tumalo ranch.

Charles L. Wimer is visiting at Grants pass but will return home next week.

George Gertson was doing business in Bend Tuesday.

Ellis Edgington was in Bend yesterday transacting business.

PRINGLE FLATS

PRINGLE FLATS, Dec. 3.—The first of December came in by giving us two inches of snow.

Charles Warring, who is located near the warm spring, started out the other day for water and found it only seven feet below the surface.

Mike Morrison, locator from Bend, paid this part of the country a visit the other day.

A lot of seedling will be done here next spring on account of it having been too dry for plowing this fall.

CLOVERDALE

CLOVERDALE, Dec. 9.—Byer Grube of Idaho, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Grube, arrived Saturday to spend the Christmas holidays with his parents.

John Götter is digging a well on his ranch. Before spring it is expected that nearly everyone in this neighborhood will have a well on his ranch.

Mrs. E. M. Pray and daughters were callers at the Burnside home on Sunday.

The Cloverdale Club of young people met with Mr. and Mrs. Grube on Saturday evening. At a late hour refreshments were served.

Last Monday four and a half inches of snow fell here, and very little of it has melted.

The enrollment of the school is the largest it has ever been. There are now 21 scholars.

Miss Joliet of Redmond spent the week with Mr. and Mrs. Fryrear.

LA PINE

LA PINE, Dec. 10.—J. N. Masten, Les Peterson and Fred Shintaffer spent last week at Davis creek.

Mr. Wright came over from Fort Rock last Wednesday after his wife and daughter, Miss Elsie, who have had charge of the culinary department and the dining room at the La Pine Hotel the past month. Mrs. Ridgley is cooking until someone else can be secured.

Harry Childers has taken Jim Benson's place driving stage between La Pine and Bend.

Miss Emmaline Moad was expected up on the stage from Bend to refill her old place at the La Pine Hotel.

Miss Mamie Patton, who has been spending the summer with Mrs. R. C. Richie, has gone to southern California for the winter. She expects to return in the spring.

Claude Benson was down from his camp at Paulina lake Saturday and Sunday after supplies.

J. S. Beasley moved his family to their homestead at Fort Rock the first of the week. They were accompanied by Miss Beasley Parker.

All are invited to attend a dance at the Reed homestead on "Six Bit Prairie" next Saturday night, Dec. 14.

LIDLAW

LIDLAW, Dec. 10.—Born, to Prof. and Mrs. Pinkstaff, on December 4, a 7½-pound girl. Mr. Pinkstaff is a happy father, while Mrs. Pinkstaff and baby are doing nicely.

Laidlaw is surely noted for lawsuits. The trial between George Fisher and Jerry Richardson, defendant, seems a hard case to decide, as tomorrow will be the third calling in this case, and Justice Thorp says he probably will call on the ladies to decide, as it seems the men can not come to a decision.

Rev. B. F. Harper, a Presbyterian minister, gave an interesting talk to Laidlaw people on Sunday morning.

Ed Rogers of Deschutes spent Sunday in Laidlaw.

Mrs. G. M. Couch was in town on Monday visiting her daughter, Mrs. Jess Harter.

George Gertson and wife of Gist were trading with local merchants Saturday. Mr. Gertson brought in a load of feed to have chopped at Bullard's mill.

It is reported that G. W. Wimer has traded part of his Tumalo farm to Millard Triplett of Ashland, for a modern home in Ashland and that Mr. and Mrs. Wimer will spend the winter at that place, probably returning in the spring to be on their ranch during the summer.

The school children seem to be having sport on the ice pond.

Floyd Marion came in from the Swalley ditch and spent Sunday with his mother here.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Leverenz of Gist were trading in Laidlaw Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. McAllister of Pinehurst were in town Saturday and Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Coen were trading here Saturday.

PINEHURST

PINEHURST, Dec. 9.—J. L. Couch went to Bend Saturday on business.

L. H. Root has been doing road work in the vicinity of Laidlaw.

Robert, Walter and Hattie Horner entered school this week, making a total enrollment of 26.

Charles Spangh and Frank Swisher have been hauling hay to Bend this week.

Mr. Hoage of Seattle is visiting at the home of his wife's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. McAllister.

George Campbell of Tumalo was a Pinehurst visitor this week.

Zephania Flowers spent two days at the home of G. M. Couch the past week.

School visitors the past week were Mrs. Gene Wimer, Mrs. A. McAllister, Mrs. Charles Johnson and Mrs. Charles Spangh.

A number of Pinehurst people attended the trial at Laidlaw Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Horner, who have recently purchased the John Wimer ranch, went to Laidlaw on Thursday.

Mrs. Charles Spangh called on Mrs. Gene Wimer Friday.

POWELL BUTTE

POWELL BUTTE, Dec. 8.—Miss Alma Johnson came home from school in Prineville Friday to stay over Sunday with her father, E. L. Johnson.

It is reported here that Frank May has sold his ditch 40.

Some of the ranchers are sowing their fall grain now. Joe Elliott is putting in 130 acres, 50 of which is blue barley. This is a new variety here and is being sowed by several farmers. It is said to be heavy yielding.

Harvey Winslow nearly lost a valuable saddle horse last week from wire cut. Two large arteries were severed in the front legs. The animal nearly bled to death before it was found.

Ort Moss is feeding a band of sheep this winter for Morrow & Keenan, large sheep owners in Gilliam county.

Ed Persson is home from working for Mike Mayfield on Crooked river.

J. D. Davidson returned to Bend last Tuesday.

FREMONT

FREMONT, Dec. 7.—Travel is very heavy now, homesteaders and land seekers going through to Christmas Lake, Paisley and Lakeview.

Rev. Mr. Neal left for Portland last week and will remain there until after the holidays.

Donald McMicken returned from Portland last week and will remain on his homestead this winter.

Charley Jackson left for California last Tuesday and will spend the winter with his parents.

Louis Barrett and John Colvert are in from the mountains for a few days.

The Fremont Literary Society and Sunday school are expecting to have a good time at the Fremont school house Christmas night.

J. B. Fox has been on the sick list but is able to be out again. While on his trip from Summer Lake he killed three large coyotes.

The Fremont cheese factory is shipping cheese to Paisley and Silver Lake.

Mr. Potter is having a well drilled on his homestead.

Mrs. Charley Slater and daughter Eva, formerly of Silver Lake, have been visiting in Bend.

AMONG THE SETTLERS NORTHEAST OF TOWN

The evening of the 21st the Grange will put on the third and fourth degrees. There will be an oyster supper and a great many other good things to eat, after the work is done.

Miss Della Merrifield is talking of spending Christmas in Pendleton, with friends.

Saturday night, Dec. 14, the Grange will give a social dance. The proceeds are to go toward a Christmas tree.

All who care to come to the tree on Dec. 23 will be made welcome by the Grange. The affair will be in the evening, and there will be a program and lunch.

B. Torkelson is making plans to spend most of the winter in Astoria.

P. J. Young is just completing a new bungalow, and to move into it about the first of the year.

W. M. Hodges, who purchased a forty from Mr. Staats, is having the lumber hauled to build his house.

He and his family will move in as soon as the house can be made ready. C. E. Smith is helping haul the lumber.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Elder spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Lee Young.

Miss Anna Moen, who has been in Washington for some time, has returned to Bend.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Smith and Miss Jacques called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Dutt Sunday afternoon.

George Hoech returned from his homestead Saturday.

Mr. McCoe, who is out proving up on his ditch land, called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Smith Sunday evening.

DESCHUTES

DESCHUTES, Dec. 10.—Work is progressing on the hotel, the first story being up and the second half way up.

Rev. B. F. Harper of Milton held religious services in the waiting room of the depot Sunday night. The Deschutes people have bought a chapel organ for the Sunday school.

There will be a Christmas tree and program in the depot Christmas Eve.

Mr. and Mrs. McKenna of Aberdeen, Wash., have been staying at the hotel for a few days. They expect to locate here in the spring.

Mr. Bailey from Centralla, Wash., is here to buy land.

Claude McCauley, Glenn Cox and Misses Dolly Hall and Lillie Handley of Bend ate turkey dinner with Mrs. Greenhauch of Redmond Sunday.

Rev. Mr. Harper was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Redfield Sunday.

Mr. Washington, whose house was destroyed by fire two weeks ago, has fitted up the old postoffice rooms for living quarters.

Mrs. Nanny has moved to Deschutes from Redmond and gone to housekeeping.

A. C. Moad has erected a stone cellar with living rooms above, at the rear of his store building. This extends the building the full length of the lot. G. W. Hall and son had charge of the stone work.

Miss Iva Gluver expects to visit at her home near McMinnville Christmas.

J. D. Mann of Eugene has been staying at the hotel here while he is building a house near town.

Mr. Miller has been remodeling his house and enlarging all buildings.

Mrs. D. C. Cummings of The Dalles, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Hall, returned to her home Monday.

PLAINVIEW

PLAINVIEW, Dec. 10.—The Sunday school at Laidlaw held Thanksgiving services Sunday afternoon, following which a cafeteria dinner was served in the Odd Fellows hall. Those attending from Plainview were Mr. and Mrs. Chalfan, Grace and Bryan Riggs, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Gillett and little daughter, Grace Hubert and Myrtle Scoggin and Ed and Gleaves Strahm.

Mr. Vent from Sprague, Wash., will spend the winter with the Peterson boys.

Mr. and Mrs. Winkle and two children have brought their furniture to the Gist house where they will reside.

Nels Peterson went to Redmond Thursday to meet his father from Denmark.

A Plainview Literary Club was organized at Gist Friday night. Hubert Scoggin was elected president and Ed Strahm vice president. With Ed Mills secretary and treasurer. It will meet next Friday night at the school house.

Mrs. John Strahm and daughter Gleaves were in Sisters Saturday.

Mr. Billy and Miss Bess brought Mrs. Fowelson out to the farm to spend a day or so with her husband.

George Gertson returned the middle of the week with his bride from Independence. Mr. Gertson is a well known young man of this place. He has a third interest in a fine farm near here. The bride has a sister, Mr. Hunnell, near Laidlaw.

Madam, Read McCall's The Fashion Authority

McCALL'S is a large, artistic, handsomely illustrated, 100-page monthly magazine that is adding to the happiness and efficiency of 1,100,000 women each month.

Each issue is bristling with fashions, fancies, work, interesting short stories, and stories of labor-saving and money-saving ideas for women. There are more than 10 of the newest designs of the celebrated McCALL PATTERNS in each issue.

McCALL PATTERNS are famous for their simplicity and economy. Only 15¢ and 25¢ each.

The publishers of McCALL'S will spend thousands of dollars extra in the coming months in order to keep McCALL'S hand and shoulder above all other women's magazines at any price. However, McCALL'S is only 50¢ a year; positively worth 10¢.

You may select one McCALL Pattern free from your first copy of McCALL'S, if you subscribe quickly.

THE McCALL COMPANY, 236 West 37th St., New York

NOTE: Ask for a free copy of McCALL'S; it's yours! But only one copy each. Send card and postal note (no cash) to the publishers.

SCHOOL NOTES

(Reported for The Bulletin.)

The following contribution has been sent by the Bend school to the Boys' and Girls' Aid Society of Portland: Six dollars in cash, one barrel, two boxes and one crate of vegetables and supplies. The railroad company transported the supplies to Portland free, and L. A. W. Nixon hauled them to the depot without charge.

The school will give a cantata entitled "With Santa Claus at the Pole" at the Dream Theatre on December 23. There will probably be a matinee in the afternoon and an evening performance.

The fourth grade was dismissed and attended in body the funeral of their little classmate, Agnes Sanden, who died of pneumonia last week. The grades in which she had sisters abandoned their regular work for an hour, and the flag remained at half mast all day.

Miss Emma Roberts, who came from Waucoma, Iowa, has entered the high school in the junior class.

A debate on the relative merits of June and October is being prepared by the fourth grade to be given tomorrow (Thursday).
