

ONLY 5 DAYS Until Christmas

If you have not already completed your list of Christmas gifts there is yet time. You still have 5 days left. For the benefit of the late shoppers we will have our store open every evening until Christmas Eve. But don't wait. What you want particularly may not be there tomorrow.

Lara's

"The Store of Better Values"

Arthur Fleming has been quite ill the past week.

Albert Harper of Laidlaw was in town Monday delivering hay.

Electric lights have been turned on in Kenwood, across the river.

Mrs. John Luster has been ill for about a week but is convalescing.

Miss Coleman was hostess to the Bridge Club at its meeting Friday.

H. Hunt has bought out the pressing business of L. C. Barrett.

Miss Grace Vandeventer is helping at Mannheim's during the holiday rush.

There was a fall of four and a half inches of snow here Saturday and Sunday.

J. C. Rhodes expects to leave for Seattle Sunday to be there during the holidays.

American Express Company money orders are now sold down town, at Mannheim's store.

Fred Huey received a bad cut in his left hand while working at the flour mill yesterday.

Mrs. C. H. Corkett went to Portland today to be with her husband, whose condition is worse.

Horace Brookings came in the first of the week from his Hampton valley homestead for supplies.

Mrs. McIntosh gave a dance and supper in the room next to the post-office last night for the benefit of the Royal Neighbors.

The Sunday schools are arranging Christmas trees and other exercises to make the children happy at this season of the year.

The city has had cleats nailed on the inclined part of all cross walks in the business district to save pedestrians from slipping.

Mrs. McIntosh moved her millinery shop Monday to her new location in the Onell building at the corner of Wall and Minnesota streets.

J. J. Klein has, after many delays, got the heating plant in operation in his apartment house next to the Altamont, and tenants have moved in.

The Presbyterian Sunday school will have a special Christmas program for Christmas. The school meets at 10 a. m. at the Star Theatre.

Miss Bessie Sheppard and her mother, Mrs. M. W. Sheppard, of Royal, are in Bend today en route for "the outside." Miss Sheppard will winter in Portland and her mother in Bourne, Ore.

Through a typographical error The Bulletin last week stated that the proceeds of the Library Club sale was $30. This was incorrect. The amount cleared at the sale and supper was about $50.

Mrs. O'Kane will entertain the Afternoon Five Hundred Club tomorrow.

A fire hydrant has been installed at the corner of Ohio street and Lava road.

The dance of the Subscription Dancing Club held Saturday night at Sather's Hall proved a very popular affair. The hostesses of the evening were Mrs. H. W. Skuse, Mrs. J. E. Savhill and Mrs. J. H. Stanley.

The Presbyterian Sunday school will have its program at Lara's hall on Christmas Eve, the entertainment being something unique, it is understood. The children of the school and their friends are invited.

The Fraternal Brotherhood will give its dance and social tomorrow (Thursday) evening in Sather's Hall, to which the public has been invited. The program of the evening will include musical numbers, recitations, etc.

The Odd Fellows were given a surprise Monday night when 15 of the Rebekahs visited them without previous notice of their intentions. Following degree work, the lodge had a spread, with the visitors as guests. After the feast, dancing was indulged in until a late hour.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Black expect to leave the first of the year for The Dalles, Mr. Black having been assigned that territory by the Horticultural Fire Relief of Oregon, for which he is agent in this district also. Mrs. Black expects to conduct her millinery business there, as she has done in Bend.

Major Biddle, a retired army officer of Portland, spent several days here last week, returning home Monday. Mrs. Biddle, who came in Saturday night, will, with her little son, spend some time here, being at the Altamont. Major Biddle is a well known club man of the Rose City and he and Mrs. Biddle have won many honors at Portland horse shows and other similar events.
