NINE CHARTER MEMBERS OF NEW LODGE

Prineville Sends Delegation to Put on the Degree Work—Following This, Supper is Served at the Hotel Wright to the Visitors.

Bend Encampment No. 80, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, was instituted Saturday night, with nine charter members. There was a delegation from the Prineville Encampment who had charge of the work. Following this part of the evening's program, a midnight supper was served at the Hotel Wright which lasted until daylight. The visitors from the county seat returned on the morning train.

The following constitutes the charter list of the encampment and the roll of officers for the first term: L. L. Fox, C. P.; N. P. Welder, H. P.; O. M. Patterson, S. W.; George P. Grove, scribe; J. E. Engbreton, treasurer; R. V. Polindexter, J. W.; A. J. Abernathy, guide; Sam Collins, I. S.; Paul E. Peterson, O. S.

Meetings will be held on the second and fourth Thursday nights of the month.

Pepys and His Spectacles.

Pepys in his famous diary tells of those devices which he used when his eyes began to fail him. Aug. 31, 1668: "The month ends mightily sadly with me, my eyes being now just all one almost, and I am mighty let upon trying the late printed experiment of paper tubes." A few days later he is "mightily pleased with a trial I have made of the use of a tube-spectacle of paper, tried with my right eye." And so it goes on, the tube being used first for one eye, then for the other, and finally he has a vizard, into which a tube for both eyes with glass in it is fastened. It was of no use, and the diary had to be discontinued. But Pepys lived and saw and prospered for many years after he had given up tubes and glasses.

XMAS CANTATA PLEASES CROWD

SANTA AT POLE WINS MANY FRIENDS

Play Proves Profitable to School—Tots in Chorus Make a Hit—More Than Fifty Children Participate—Leading Characters.

Monday afternoon and evening at the Dream Theatre the pupils of the Bend schools gave a Christmas cantata entitle "With Santa Claus at the Pole." Both performances were given to packed houses—so much so that in the evening it was necessary to give two shows to accommodate the crowd—and both were highly enjoyed by the relatives and friends of the actors, big and little, for most of whom this was the first experience before the footlights.

Throughout the cantata showed the results of careful training, particularly as regarded its many chorus features. While it would be difficult to pick any one set of performers as especially excellent, it was generally conceded that the tots from Miss Sidnee's room distinguished themselves with their chorus work.

The profits of the play after deducting all expenses are about $40. This will probably be spent for books and maps and other additions to the school equipment.

The following is a synopsis of the cantata:

The following was the cast of the chief characters in the play:
Henry Whale ..... Robert Innes
Tom ..... Calvin Smith
Bill ..... Earl Lane
Mike ..... Emel Hepkle
Lou ..... Evelyn Bedient
Alice ..... Leona Springer
Gwendoline ..... Margaret Thompson
Narcissus ..... Flora Benton
Anna ..... Anna Linster
Elisa ..... Florence Thoma
Santa ..... Claude Vandevart
Chief of Wurhus ..... Arthur Vandevart
Queen ..... Marie Brosterhous
Cherub ..... Harriet Heyburn

In addition to the chief characters listed above, some 50 other pupils participated.

Parisians and Nerves.

The Parisians suffer from nervous attacks to an appalling extent. "If one invites any Parisians to dinner one must be prepared for regimens," writes Miss Annesley in "My Parisian Year." "This man cannot eat bread and must drink only white wine; that woman can eat only alimentaries; another must begin with hot water. * * * I was at a dinner once where there were sixteen guests; seven of these were on special diet, and three had little bottles of pills with them! * * * I was at the house of a noted writer one afternoon, and his wife took his temperature five times in an hour and a half. The last time the thermometer marked 99 degrees. Madame flew to the telephone and implored the doctor to come."

Parrots and Trees.

There seems to be a species of parrot adapted for each of the more conspicuous kind of trees which are found in tropical forests. Thus, if the tree is a palm which has a single stem and can afford nourishment for a bird only at or near the top of that stem, then the species of parrot that feeds on it is an air bird, capable of flying over the forest in search of such trees. When this is the case the body of the bird is light and the tail long. On the other hand, the parrots which inhabit trees with many branches have stout bodies and short tails and are short flighted.

Silhouette.

Silhouette was the name of a French minister who endeavored to raise the revenues by taxing the nobility. In consequence he became very unpopular, and the fashion of profiles in black coming in about the same time, they were called in derision silhouettes, the nobility claiming that they had their portraits done in black because they were too poor to have a full picture taken.

An Honest Thief.

On leaving a Paris theater a German gentleman felt for his watch. It was gone. Having a strong suspicion, he laid violent hands on a man in the crowd, who quietly gave up the ticker. When he got home he found his own watch lying on the table.

An Extended Vacation.

"Mrs. Nagg is thinking of visiting the Thousand Islands."
"I understand Mr. Nagg would be glad to have her spend six months on each one."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

All His Fault.

Irate Woman (to bird dealer)—As for you, you're a thief. All those canaries you sold me yesterday flew away this morning.—Sourire.
