PRISCILLAS ENTERTAIN WITH SONGS.

Good Vaudeville Being Arranged For. "Home Talent" Productions Now Have Stage at Their Disposal. Program Musical Concert.

That the Priscilla Club is a very popular organization was shown on Saturday night when more than 200 people turned out to see them perform at the Star Theatre, where they were the feature of the evening, dedicating the new stage there.

Some 20 Priscillas appeared, attired in the trim costumes of the "Puritan maiden," with caps and aprons, and arranged upon the stage in a pretty group. They sang songs in chorus, the most popular of which proved to be "Everybody's Meant For Someone," and that brought down a tumult of applause. The little performance was very dainty, attractive and unique.

Musical Concert Tomorrow Night.
A musical concert will be given at the Star tomorrow (Thursday) night by Misses Arrie and Alice Black, Lucy Bridges and Eva Graves. The program will include piano and vocal solos, vocal duos and trios. As all the performers are accomplished musicians, a very interesting evening and a large attendance is expected. The following program will be given:

Theatres Make Arrangement.
After this Saturday, the Star Theatre will give no more moving picture performances during the week, until better local conditions warrant the continuance of nightly performances by both it and the Dream Theatre. By an arrangement entered into by the two houses, the Star will have picture shows only on Saturday and Sunday nights, at least for a time.

The stage which has been put in at the Star will be at the service of any local theatrical enterprise, and already several "home talent" productions of various kinds are arranging for dates.

The new arrangement means that Bend will be treated to some first class vaudeville at an early date, as it will now be possible, by cutting down the operating expenses, to book a regular troupe every few weeks. Arrangements are being made for a high class vaudeville act to be staged about the end of the month. After that it is hoped that a regular schedule may be followed. While the expense of getting good acts to Bend is very heavy, it is believed that by cutting down the motion picture cost, for the present, and by dividing the vaudeville expense with the Prineville theatre, as already arranged, it will be possible to give Bend people some really first class amusements.

EX-BOISE MAN ADMIRES BEND

Rounseville, Southeastern Ranch Owner, Takes Pigs on Long Trip.
That Bend's prospects for development are brighter than those that faced Boise, Idaho, a few years ago, is the opinion of J. E. Rounseville, a prominent land owner of extreme southeastern Oregon, who owns near Winnemucca, Nev., a ranch of 7500 acres. Mr. Rounseville was in Boise in its early days, having been owner of the Statesman, the first daily paper to publish Associated Press news, in the state.

"I know of no town that has a greater or richer combination of resources," said the ex-Boisite. "I congratulate anyone who has the foresight to cast in his or her lot with Bend, for nothing can keep the town from becoming a prosperous city."

Mr. Rounseville is stopping at the Bend Hotel and has with him fellow travelers in the shape of full-blooded pigs which he is taking to his ranch for breeding purposes. From Bend the first stage of the 300-mile journey will be made by auto truck, and thence in his automobile.

Rest easy in a new comfortable bed.

Dear Amy:-
I feel so refreshed this morning that I'll pay you that letter I owe you. I just haven't felt like writing for a long time, but yesterday my new furniture came out and I fixed up my bedroom. My, how I slept.

It makes you feel so much more cheerful and happy to wake up in a beautifully furnished bedroom.

You want to be careful though when you buy your furniture. While you are at it, get the good kind that will last, like I did.

John and the baby are fine and dandy. As ever,

Lou.

P.S.—I'm delighted with my new furniture. I got it from.
