AUDIENCE IS APPRECIATIVE

MUCH APPLAUSE AT CONCERT

Though Fire Alarm Mars Delightful Evening, Four Performers Make Big Hit With Their Musical Program at the Star.

The concert given at the Star Theatre Thursday evening proved the biggest kind of success, the well selected numbers of the program getting enthusiastic applause from the audience that filled the theatre and which demanded encores to every song. The performers were the Misses Arrie and Alice Black, Miss Lucille Bridges and Miss Eva Graves. An unfortunate incident occurred near the close of the program, when, just as Miss Graves was getting into the fire theme of Wagner's wonderful "Magic Fire Music," the stirring pianoforte flame picture from "Die Walkure," the fire bell actually did ring, and to prevent a possible rush the music was stopped and announcement made that the flour mill was on fire. In a quiet and orderly way the men fled out, many of the women remaining to enjoy the rest of the program, which was given despite the interruption.

Throughout, the performance delighted the audience, combining as it did high class selections, both vocal and piano, with a generous number of popular and humorous renderings. One of the encores that won chief applause was an admirably sung stut-terling song, which described the difficulties of a girl whose lover, brother and the minister all stuttered, not to mention herself.

Recitation Proves Popular.

Miss Arrie Black, in her recitation, "The Crooked Mouth Family," won a large measure of applause with her dramatic work, while the reception accorded Miss Graves' artistic performance at the piano showed that the audience was appreciative of classical music.

A pretty encore was the song "Underneath the Dixie Moon," sung by the trio, with Miss Bridges leading. The lights were turned off while a starlit night sky setting was thrown on the screen behind the singers and the light of a "real full moon" was focused upon Miss Bridges.

The entire affair proved so popular that it is possible that a similar entertainment will be given in the near future, with perhaps a somewhat more extensive program.

PETERSONS SELL OUT

La Pine Mercantile Co. Purchased by E. L. Clark of Portland.

(La Pine Inter-Mountain.)

What is believed to be the biggest deal that ever occurred in the upper Deschutes valley, took place last Thursday when the La Pine Mercantile Co. sold out most of their interests here to E. L. Clark of Portland. In the deal were included the company's stock of merchandise, the store building and the two lots on which it stands, the stock in the branch store at Crescent, and the "40" in the segregation belonging to Mrs. D. E. Peterson, which joins the townsite on the northwest. All together about the sum of $30,000 was involved in the transfer. The new firm will retain the old name, the "La Pine Mercantile Co." The Petersons still hold their 160 acres of land in the segregation, three and a half miles west of La Pine.

HOW TO KILL A TOWN.

Buy from peddlers as much and as often as possible.

Denounce your merchants because they make a profit on their goods.

Glory in the downfall of a man who has done much to build up your town.

Make your town out a bad place and stab it every chance you get.

Refuse to unite in any scheme for the betterment of material interests of the people.

Tell your merchant you get goods a great deal cheaper in some other town and charge him with extortion.

If a stranger comes to your town tell him everything is overdone and predict a general crash in the near future.

Patronize outside newspapers to the exclusion of your own and then denounce yours for not being as big and as cheap as the city papers.

If you are a merchant don't advertise in the home paper, but compel the editor to go elsewhere for advertising and howl like a sore head because he does so. Buy a rubber stamp and use it. It may save you a few dimes and make your letter-heads look as though you were doing business in a one-horse town.

A chifforier will come in handy.

Dear Amy—
I have just bought a new chifforier. If you will take my tip, you'll go right off and get you one like it. I don't see how I ever got along without one. It is just the place to put all the things you need to get at quickly. I'm going to get another for John's room.

When I want any more furniture, I certainly will go where I bought my chifforier. Their prices were so reasonable.

Always your friend,
Lou.
