DENIAL MADE OF
BURNS REPORTSONLY GOOD FEELING PREVAILS

Directors of Local Commercial Club Brand as False Statements That People Here Are "Knocking" the Big Harney Country.

At a meeting of the directors of the Commercial Club last week resolutions were passed denying that responsible organizations or citizens of Bend have ever directed adverse criticism at Burns and the Harney county country and heartily censuring anyone who should "knock" that district. The action was taken as the result of stories that were published recently which stated that Bend was not giving Burns a square deal, was belittling the Harney section and keeping settlers from going into it.

As Bend is the railroad gateway of much of the Harney territory through which passes its passengers and freight, the resentment over the alleged "knocking" would be natural enough, say the Commercial Club men, if it actually happened that such "knocking" existed. But careful investigation has failed to show that any responsible people here have ever said anything but good of the Harney county and Burns.

"On the contrary," said one director. "It seems impossible to believe that anyone in Bend would be so shortsighted as to do that, for selfishness if for no other reason.
The Burns friendship and the Harney trade mean patronage for our hotels, our livery stables, our warehouse, merchants, saloons and places of amusement. Everyone who goes to Bend leaves something here, and all development down there adds a little something to Bend's development."

It is believed that the reports circulated have chiefly been instigated by a disgruntled newspaperman, whose sentiments are far from echoing those of the business interests of Burns.

The resolution follows:
"Whereas, certain statements, purporting to have emanated from the city of Burns, Oregon, have come to our attention, to the effect that certain citizens of Bend have issued and caused to be circulated statements derogatory to Burns and Harney county;

"Therefore, be it resolved, that the board of directors of the Bend Commercial Club, representing the majority of the responsible and substantial citizens of Bend, emphatically and unequivocally brands as false any such utterances by malicious and irresponsible persons.
"Further, be it resolved, that the Bend Commercial Club renew its expression of entire good will toward the people of Burns and Harney county, with the assurance of entire confidence in the resources of Harney county and of hearty and sincere cooperation, not only in the building up of the cities of Burns and Bend, but of the entire Central Oregon country.

"And be it further resolved that these resolutions be given publicity through the press of Crook and Harney counties and that a copy be forwarded to the Burns Commercial Club."

SERVIA AS A NATION.

It Originated in the First Half of the Seventeenth Century.

The birth of Servia as a nation, settled in or near its present home, may be dated in the first half of the seventh century. About 600 A. D., when the Avaric empire of desolation was established on the Danube, two tribes, the Croats and the Serbs, retiring before the ravages of the Tartar horsemen, settled in the countries now known as Croatia, Bosnia and Servia.

They were Slavs, but the Croats perhaps had, like the Slavs of Moscovy in after years, adopted the name of a Tartar tribe. Both, fleeing from the Avars, were naturally hostile to them, and it is possible that they settled in the empire with the consent or even at the invitation of the Emperor Hera-clius I. At any rate, they appear to have been considered as vassals of the empire. Their first settlements lay rather westward of the country now called Servia, the Drave, the present western boundary, being the dividing line between Bulgar and Serb in the eighth century. Here the Serbs dwelt more or less uneventfully for three centuries. They generally formed a loose confederacy under chiefs called supans. They were commonly, in a loose fashion, loyal to the eastern empire mainly through fear of their dangerous neighbors, the Bulgarians. About 840 they united under a chief named Vlastislav to repel the latter.
The country rose to great heights under Stephen Dusan, the czar of the Serbs, but after his death Murad I. conquered the country, and it was not until 1815 that the Serbs partially threw off the Turkish yoke.—Ex-

PRECIOUS MUGS.

The Crucibles Used in the New York Assay Office.

In the government assay office on Wall street, New York, there is a corner that looks very much like a mug rack in a country barber shop, where every customer has his individual mug highly decorated in gilt letters.

On this rack are perhaps fifty cruci-bles for melting down gold. The cruci-bles are decorated with crude initials and numerals and are the property of the biggest gold mining corporations in North and South America.

The reason for the individual mugs is that the clay of crucibles takes up a considerable quantity of gold in the process of smelting which otherwise would be lost to the customer bringing the gold to the government to be refined. After two or three smeltings the clay is saturated and takes up no more gold. When it is finally succeeded by a new crucible it is returned to the customer to be broken up for its hidden gold.

Mugs that are used for melting down random lots of gold are carefully preserved by the government refiners and sold. Uncle Sam pockets the proceeds, as in these random lots there is no way of computing to what amount each of perhaps twenty customers may be entitled. It is only the smelting concern that sells the government enough gold at one time to monopolize a single melting that obtains the right to a mug on the rack. — New York Tribune.

Ice Cream and a Nerve.

Why do we sometimes get an ache in the nose when eating ice cream. There is a nerve running along the back of the nose which doctors call the anterior painless nerve. This has a branch running along the base of the most cavity and another branch running along the palate. The ends of these branches join through finer branches which run through openings in the palate near the front teeth.
When we get some ice cream in the mouth and keep it in front for a moment so that the irritation produced by the cold reaches the fine connecting branches the sensation may be carried to the branch in the nose. Irritation of this branch produces the sensation of pain. We get the same sensation when breathing very cold air.—New York American.

Meredith and Words.

George Meredith, according to the London Chronicle, "employs that abominable contraction 'right'." It can't be a printer's error, for it occurs more than once. And he uses it as early as 1861, so that the abusers of our language may now claim Meredith of all men as their prophet. This is one of those things that baffles explanation, particularly from a writer whose use of words was meticulous and who always refused to delete the first 'e' in 'judgment' always spelling it 'judgment' in his novels. Some of us, however, will fight 'aright' to the bitter end."

Social Surgery.

The newly rich dame took her daughter to a fashionable school and interviewed the haughty principal.
"I want my daughter to learn to act as if she had moved in aristocratic circles all her life," she explained.
"I see," mused the principal. "And are you willing to be separated from her that long?"—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

K. P.'S POSTPONE DANCE.

On account of the death of Edwin Bather, the Knights of Pythias have postponed the dance they planned for tonight. It will be given next Wednesday evening.

Historical.

"Children," asked the visitor who was addressing the school, "how many of you can tell me what it was that Napoleon's soldiers used to call him?" Nobody answered. "Think a moment."
"Little Corp!" "A little corpment!" shouted the children. — Chicago Tri-

CABIN IS ROBBED.

Monday afternoon Chief of Police Roberts arrested and jailed two men named Weaver and Johnson, on a charge of grand larceny, preferred by a homesteader in the southeast country. On his way back to his cabin Sunday, the homesteader met two men headed for Bend. He thought nothing of the meeting, but when he reached his claim he found that his supply of groceries and clothing had been taken, together with considerable cash. The settler immediately suspected the pair he had met several miles back. He followed them until they got within a short distance of town, when he headed them off and came into town before them and reported to Roberts, who made the arrest next day. Ninety-five dollars was found on one of the men taken into custody. They were given a Oreutt yesterday and waived examination, being bound over to the Circuit Court under $2000 bond each.
Unable to raise this, they were taken to Prineville and lodged in jail.
