

CENTRAL OREGON NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS.

POWELL BUTTE

(Special to The Bend Bulletin.)
POWELL BUTTE, March 23.—Mrs. J. D. Davidson and pupils of the Butte Valley school pronounce the banquet held on the last day of the term a very enjoyable affair.
 George Morrill is able to be about again, after being laid up a month and a half with a sprained ankle.
 Mrs. E. F. Archer has just added a beautiful parlor organ to the furnishings of her home.
 Mrs. Mary Elliott is starting the season right with one hatch of chicks off and the incubator "set" the second time.

A. C. Lucas was in the Powell Butte country last week getting ranches listed for sale. He got some good buys.

The Walker boys dug a splendid well in the buttes recently, 25 feet deep with 14 feet of water.

The local store and postoffice has been made attractive with a coat of paint.

James Green has a large field cleared of trees on his homestead and nearly ready for the plow.

N. P. Beach has leased the Whitman "40" in the river bed again this year and has moved from his homestead to the ditch land.

Burkhart brothers have built a large cistern just below the main canal, and expect to build a residence there later on.

Some of the ranchers here are hauling manure from old sheep corrals in the buttes, for their gardens. It makes a fine dressing. Mrs. Charles Frost, who always has one of the finest gardens in the community, has her garden heavily manured every spring. Later on, her vegetable and flower beds will be worth going to see, for though she has a very large family of children to care for, she takes time to raise a yard of beautiful flowers every year, and remembers her less fortunate neighbors with bouquets.

Wanted, by P. B. husbands, a sure cure for the germ that causes house-cleaning fever in the aggravated form that sometimes attacks P. B. wives. One attack does not confer immunity from another the following spring.

CLOVERDALE

(Special to The Bend Bulletin.)
CLOVERDALE, March 24.—Frank Kelly is fencing his place with woven wire.

School has now started, having been closed three weeks.

Mr. Rodin has leased his ranch to a man in Redmond.

Hazel Templeton visited with Erma and Mabel Pray Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Job and family were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Skelton Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Grube called at the Waldron home Sunday afternoon.

Norton Cross is hauling his oat hay to Sisters.

The Woods family are reported to be sick with smallpox.

The team of George Burnside, that strayed away some weeks ago has been found.

Mr. Eimer is building a house on his homestead. He is a civil engineer.

Sunday school was again resumed last Sunday. Rev. Towne preached an Easter sermon.

CRESCENT

(Special to The Bend Bulletin.)
CRESCENT, March 21.—F. M. Cleaves was a business visitor in La Pine this week.

George Gottlieb has gone to Celers Marsh where he has a trap line.

W. W. Cryder and Earl Austin went to La Pine Monday. Mr. Cryder took the stage to Fort Rock.

E. G. Rourke returned Thursday from an extended business trip to Portland. George Mayfield accompanied him to the metropolis.

Irwin H. Wilson, state fish culturist, and Pearl Lynes came in from Odell Lake this week on their way to Bend. Mr. Wilson has established hatcheries at Crescent and Odell Lakes and Deschutes Marsh, and left A. A. Oldenburg and Tom McCord in charge.

Mrs. G. W. Anderson fell on the ice on her back step and sustained a very serious fracture and dislocation of the hip. A physician was called from Bend and the patient is getting along as well as can be expected. Mrs. Anderson is one of the most highly esteemed ladies of the community and her many friends regret to hear of her painful accident, which may leave her a cripple, due to her mature years.

FORT ROCK

(Special to The Bend Bulletin.)
FORT ROCK, March 23.—F. E. Whitney, U. S. postoffice inspector, blew in this little burg Friday and checked up the postmaster. Mr. Whitney stated that he found one of the best kept offices that he had checked up for some time. He is an old time employee in the post-office work, having served 30 years.

Floyd Lippincott was a business visitor in this city last Friday and Saturday.

The St. Patrick dance at this place was a grand success. The wearing of the green was in prominence and the evening was enjoyed by the entire crowd until tea break of day.

Forest Supervisor W. W. Cryder of Crescent was in this part of the country the past week in the interest of the forest service. He will place another ranger here to assist Ranger Frizzell.

A pleasant surprise was given to Miss Hazel Penrose Friday evening and a fine time in the way of plays and games was enjoyed until midnight when a lunch was served. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. J. D. C. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Rhoton, Misses Edith and Mary Rhoton, and Master Glen Rhoton, Mrs. Walter Hunt, David Mills and Miss Lillian Mills, Mildred and Glenn Charles, William Menkenman, Harlan H. Gubsen, Mrs. J. B. Gaudin, Stanford E. Gaudin, Jay Chambers, O. O. Anderson and Miss Stella Pattison.

S. M. Wagner left by stage Sunday for Bend where he will be for some time.

The Easter sermon by Rev. Mattock was one of the best heard here for some time. After services a fine dinner was served at the church.

The Easter sermon by Rev. Mattock was one of the best heard here for some time. After services a fine dinner was served at the church.

The Easter sermon by Rev. Mattock was one of the best heard here for some time. After services a fine dinner was served at the church.

PINEHURST

(Special to The Bend Bulletin.)
PINEHURST, March 24.—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Swisher went to Bend on Saturday to have some dental work done.

Master was observed by appropriate exercises by the Pinehurst Sunday school.

J. L. Couch, who has been employed at the Dayton mill, returned to his home the last of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Couch went to Laidlaw on business Friday.

Fred Wilson is quite ill at his home northwest of Laidlaw.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Couch spent Sunday at the home of his brother, J. L. Couch.

Miss Flora Hasselberg spent Saturday and Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Frank Swisher.

Mrs. Della Nichols went to Laidlaw on business Saturday.

Jene Winger made a business trip to Bend Thursday.

Mrs. Howard went to Laidlaw on Saturday.

George Campbell was a Pinehurst visitor Friday.

B. Y. Couch arrived Thursday for an extended visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Couch.

Robert Moore and L. Connott are assisting Jene Winger this week.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Leverenz passed through here on their way to Laidlaw Saturday.

Word has been received from Mrs.

John Hasselberg, who recently moved to Kelso, Wash., that her health is much improved.

The clock for the school arrived the past week. The enrollment of the school is now 39.

The equinoctial storm took the form of snow which fell here Friday.

PLAINVIEW

(Special to The Bend Bulletin.)
PLAINVIEW, March 24.—Mrs. Crawford and family who have been living in Laidlaw this winter have moved to their ranch again.

Mr. Moffit and little son Willie were in Sisters Thursday.

During the good weather John Strahm and son Ed seeded about 70 acres of grain. They expect to put in 140 acres more.

The small snowstorm that came Friday brought about two inches of snow. It was quite cold.

Cyrus H. Walker of Albany was visiting at the Strahm home Wednesday. He was in this section for the purpose of organizing a Grange but as yet has not been successful. He intends to return this fall, he said.

Mr. Moffit was in Redmond Thursday.

There will be an oyster supper at the Plainview school house Friday night, the 28th. All are invited to come.

The literary club expects to give a home talent play called, "More Blunders Than One." The date has not yet been decided on. In connection with the play there will be a box social.

PRINGLE FLATS

(Special to The Bend Bulletin.)
PRINGLE FLATS, March 17.—Martin Hallmeyer made a trip to Bend last week and returned Saturday. He was accompanied in and out by Charles Stevenson. Mr. Hallmeyer left again Monday morning for Bend to work.

Fred Hamlin returned to Bend last week to work in the logging camp.

Charles Genung intends to return to his homestead this month from Seattle.

Charles Stevenson intends buying a threshing machine this fall. He has about 90 acres of grain in.

Mr. Mikula is going to plant 20 bushels of potatoes this spring.

G. Grill intends to put in four or five acres of grain this spring.

Mr. Larkins whose claim joins his son-in-law's, Mr. Nelson's, is coming in this month and expects to do some improvements on his place.

The masquerade ball at Mr. Stevenson's was a grand success. There were about 20 couples there and fine costumes were worn. They all had a very good time.

ALFALFA

(Special to The Bend Bulletin.)
ALFALFA, March 21.—One of the enjoyable events of the winter occurred last Tuesday night, the 18th, when friends and neighbors dropped in on A. L. Schultz and gave him a surprise in honor of his 35th birthday. Many baskets of goodies were stored in the pantry and after the presentation of a shaving set to Mr. Schultz, tables were cleared and progressive "high five" was played. At 11:30 lunch was served, after which the ladies succeeded in lassoing Mr. Schultz and gave him a number of reminders of his age in the form of old-fashioned slaps on the back. The guests' present numbered about 30. Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Smock were the successful players in the card game, winning the prize.

DESCHUTES

(Special to The Bend Bulletin.)
DESCHUTES, March 24.—C. S. Hudson and family of Bend were in Deschutes Sunday in their auto.

Rev. E. G. Judd, accompanied by Miss Elyea, attended services Sunday here.

The Sunday school is doing good work with C. J. Leverett as superintendent. Much interest is shown and the attendance is increasing.

The new hotel is about completed and Mr. Landingham is putting in new furniture. It is a fine building and well finished throughout, with hot and cold water in every room.

Dolly Hall has been in Bend the last ten days helping in Corbett's during Mrs. Dayton's vacation.

Glenn Cox had the misfortune to have a finger and part of his hand badly mashed by a stick of cordwood falling on it. He was driven to Bend where the injured member was fixed up with splints and it is doing nicely.

Mr. Buckley and family of Redmond took Sunday dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Nanny.

The little folks of Deschutes were made glad by the visit of the Easter bunny, and all went home from Sunday school with a basket of colored steads in this district.

H. Murphy went to Bend last Wednesday to meet Sam Hanson, who has been in Portland for some time. George Janta accompanied Mr. Murphy to town to get provisions.

A. T. Shaver, the well driller, is making good progress on Henry McVittie's well.

Dr. George W. Hess of Chicago has taken a homestead in 20-20 and his wife a desert claim in 20-19.

C. A. Begison was here the first of the week with a party of homeseekers from Aberdeen, Wash.

Prospects are for a good crop in this district this year. The frost is out of the ground and spring work has started.

School attendance the past month has been good, there being no pupils absent or tardy.

SCHOOL NOTES

During the noon hour last Thursday all the pupils in school were invited to the Dream Theatre to see an educational picture especially interesting to botany students, as it showed the growth of plants from the time they burst their buds in the spring till the flowers are produced later.

Miss Borden talked for the last half hour Friday afternoon to the High School on mythology. She presented the subject in a very interesting manner.

Claude Keley has been laid up this week with the grip.

Revall Cherry Bark Cough Syrup is a pleasant cough remedy of great value and power. It attacks coughs in the right way. At Patterson's—Advertisement. 31f

DRY LALE

(Special to The Bend Bulletin.)
DRY LAKE, March 22.—Roads are getting food now and there is a big increase in the travel.

J. O. Wilson went to Bend last week to get freight for W. W. Brown and says he will make trips regularly now.

G. Whitaker of Omaha, Neb., arrived last week and will make his residence here. He is a brother of the Whitaker girls who have home-

A Cook Book Worth Having!

THIS IS A REAL BARGAIN.

"Good Living"

Is a splendidly printed, strongly bound, and well written up-to-date Cook Book by Sarah Van Buren. It contains 605 PAGES and a complete index. It is bound with an OIL CLOTH COVER that can be washed when soiled in the kitchen.

The Regular Price is $2.50

Our Price is $1.00

WHILE THEY LAST. We have only a small number. Housekeepers should hurry.

The Owl Pharmacy

Ralph Poindexter,
 First National Bank Building.

Colonist Fares

WESTBOUND
 March 15 to April 15, 1913
SEND FOR THE FOLKS
 While The Fares Are Low

The Low Fares apply from the following and many other points in the East, to any station on the O-W. R. & N. in Idaho, Oregon and Washington.

Atlanta, Ga.....	$51.70	Louisville, Ky.....	$42.85
Oklahoma City.....	35.25	Baltimore, Md.....	54.75
Memphis, Tenn.....	42.50	Philadelphia, Pa.....	54.75
Boston, Mass.....	55.15	Milwaukee, Wis.....	36.70
Pittsburg, Pa.....	47.00	Buffalo, N. Y.....	47.50
Montgomery, Ala.....	50.15	St. Louis, Mo.....	37.00
Charleston, S. C.....	53.90	Muskogee, Okla.....	35.20
Denver, Colo.....	30.00	Detroit, Mich.....	43.50
New York City.....	55.00	Omaha, Neb.....	30.00
Fort Worth, Tex.....	40.75	New Orleans.....	48.05
Kansas City, Mo.....	30.00	Minneapolis.....	30.00
St. Paul, Minn.....	30.00	Leavenworth, Kan.....	30.00
Chicago.....	$38.00

PREPAID ORDERS

Tickets will be delivered without extra charge to anybody at any point where Colonist fares apply, upon deposit with any O-W. R. & N. Agent of the amount.

For full particulars drop a card to

J. H. CORBETT, Agent O-W. R. & N., Bend, Oregon

Bend Hardware Co.

Big Stock of Fishing Tackle at

Bend Hardware Co.

BEND MADE BUTTER

IS GOOD BUTTER

SEE THAT YOU GET IT

We Guarantee Our Product Money Returned if not Satisfactory.

Pioneer Cream Company

"The Bend Creamery"

ICE CREAM BUTTERMILK CREAM

Headquarters for Commercial Men Electric Lighted Throughout Special Attention to Transient Travel

THE BEND HOTEL

HUGH O'KANE, MANAGER

Good Rooms BEND, OREGON Good Meals

Free bus to and from trains All arrangements made for persons desiring to go south and east of here