

POTATOES FOR HOGS ARE O. K.

DEMONSTRATION IS IMPORTANT

Eastern Oregon Experiment Station
Works Out Data For Farmers,
Showing Possibilities of Potatoes
For Feeding to Swine.

An experiment to test the feeding value of raw or steamed potatoes as supplementary feed with a grain ration, has been carried on by Robert Withycombe at the Eastern Oregon Experiment Station with interesting results which will be of special value this year on account of the superabundance of the potato crop.

The hogs in the experiment were divided into eight lots, and records of the different feed rations given each and the proportionate gain made were kept carefully. Each hog in lots 1 and 2 ate an average of 170.18 pounds of barley and 509.52 pounds of raw potatoes, making a gain in weight of 60.60 pounds. Those in lots 3 and 4 ate 119.39 pounds of barley and 684.75 pounds of steamed potatoes and made a gain of 79.56 pounds, while those in lots 5 and 6 ate 188.60 pounds of barley and 564.80 pounds of steamed potatoes and made a gain of 78.10 pounds. Lots 7 and 8 ate 300.10 pounds of barley without the potatoes and made a gain of 69.5 pounds.

The last two lots, fed barley alone, were used as a check on the others to show more definitely the proportionate value of the potatoes. At the present market value of 7 cents a pound live weight, the hogs fed barley made a $4.87 gain, which makes the barley feeding value $1.62 to the hundred.

Lots 1 and 2, fed barley and raw potatoes at the rate of 3 pounds of potatoes to 1 pound of barley, made a $4.25 gain, which gives the raw potatoes a feeding value of 29 cents to the hundred. Lots 3 and 4, receiving six times as much steamed potatoes as barley, made a $4.94 gain, giving the steamed potatoes a feeding value of 47 cents a hundred. Lots 5 and 6, fed three times as much steamed potatoes as barley, made a $5.47 gain, making the feeding value of the potatoes 42 cents to the hundred.

It is noticeable that those fed six times as much potatoes as grain did not make quite the gain made by the others, but it required $5.25 pounds raw barley to make this gain so the difference in feeding value is accounted for.

It is also noteworthy that the steamed potatoes are worth 12 cents more to the hundred than the raw for feeding, as shown in the comparison of the gains of animals fed the 3 to 1 ration.

Stop the Loss——Fires are Unnecessary

- Brick is absolutely fire proof in any ordinary conflagration.
- Brick Buildings never burn, although they are sometimes injured by falling timbers or combustible interior woodwork.
- A brick building is absolutely fire proof if wire glass is used in the windows and if burned clay floors are used.
- An interior fire in such a building is confined to the room in which it originates; no outside fire can attack it.
- The proportion of burned clay in a building construction measures its fire proof qualities.
- Burned clay is the only building material that has been through the fire before you get it, in such a manner that it will resist fire. All combustible material is burned out or the brick before you get it.
