

CENTRAL OREGON NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS.

POWELL BUTTE

(Special to The Bend Bulletin.)
POWELL BUTTE, April 13.—A good acreage of potatoes will be planted here this spring in spite of there being no market for last year's crop. George Schobert leads with a spud patch of 90 acres. Many others are near seconds.

Guy Lafollette, the local nurseryman, delivered enough fruit trees at the J. D. Davidson homestead last week to set out an acre orchard, among them being peaches, apples, prunes and pears.

William Johnson and son are clearing and plowing on the Henke homestead preparatory to Mr. Henke proving up.

The water has been turned on in the canal for the season now. Joe Sherer and Walter Foster are the ditch riders for this section.

A. D. Morrill was at Bend last week doing some work on his homestead there. He also made application to prove up.

The premiums are now being paid those who took prizes on exhibits at the county fair last fall. Mrs. T. D. Osborn got first on doughnuts and second on bread; Miss Della Osborn second on carrots and George Morrill first on the best collection of wild flowers and first on mounted bugs. There were between 80 and 90 in his flower collection. The full list of prize winners in this section has not been learned by the writer.

Nicholas Appel has gone to the Willamette valley for the summer where he has a contract working in the woods.

Joe Elliott has returned from the valley where he was summoned by the serious illness of his aged mother, who is recovering.

Harvey Winslow proved up on his homestead this week under the 3-year law.

POWELL BUTTE, April 14.—E. A. Bussat was a business visitor among the Powell Butte folks last week.

C. C. Brix, a Prineville attorney, turned farmer the first of the week and aided his brother Jake with the spring work. It seemed like old times to see Cris on the farm again.

Henry Tweet is working on a "40" of the McCaffery-Wurzwiler place, which he has rented.

"Munz" Wilcoxon says he has obtained part of the Allen "80" next to Alvin Riggs', for potato ground.

Farmer Saunders is building a large concrete cellar on his place. He is hauling the gravel from George Hobbs' cistern.

Tom Langdon, Charles and Roy Titus visited at the Hobbs place last Thursday afternoon. The boys say they have their old jobs back which they had most of the time since coming to the Powell Butte neighborhood.

A. J. Riggs made a trip to Bend with hay Thursday.

George Morgan, who is planting a large acreage of spuds, made several trips to the Hobbs and Langdon pits for seed last week.

Lee Hobbs made a trip to Redmond Friday for seed oats and barley. He is experimenting this year with black barley, which yields much heavier than the other kinds and equals corn as a hog food. There is quite an interest being taken in it and if it proves to be successful, there will be an unlimited amount planted next year.

The Landfare family, who have the old Bussat place, started for a joyride with Guy Lafollette in his Marion flyer one day last week and fully appreciated the "joy" part while walking home. The breakdown was only slight, however, and Guy was soon able to run his car to the nursery.

Jim Green is plowing on the Foster boys' ditch land in payment for a gang plow which he bought of them. Jim says he plans to leave the ranch the first of May, to go to trading horses in Redmond. In sixteen months he has made $30 off the ranch and over $1000 trading horses, he says, which shows where his ability lies.

Rev. Cooke is home from his charge at Fossil. He is setting out about fifteen acres to orchard.

There will be religious services in the Shepherd school house Sunday April 20. There will also be an attempt to organize a Sunday school. Everyone is cordially invited.

W. J. Boardman of Colorado is visiting with W. G. McNealy and looking for a location in this section.

N. P. Alley returned home from Portland Saturday night.

Edward Williams is in Salem at present on business concerning the deeding of segregated land.

The Shepherd school district, No. 54, has been divided. Rimrock district, No. 88, has been formed. The new school house will be located on the John Ferguson place.

Although this has been a very backward spring, the crops are all showing up well, the alfalfa especially, which is ahead of the neighboring sections.

George Hobbs plans to start plowing on the McCaffery place the first of the week where he and Tom Langdon expect to put in 60 acres of potatoes. Besides this, he will have in the neighborhood of 50 acres of dry land potatoes.

Clark Morse was in Prineville last week. He says everything is railroad talk but that the locomotives had not yet disturbed the peaceful quiet of the town.

HAMPTON

(Special to The Bend Bulletin.)
HAMPTON, April 8.—Burr Black is busy putting in seed grain.

Mr. Tishmer and wife, the latter a daughter of William Bennett, have returned to Bend on route to Oklahouma, their home.

Mrs. Anderson and Mrs. Holtz of Imperial spent the day last Wednesday with Mrs. D. R. Dunn.

Messrs. Shaver, Riggs, Needl Titus, Dunn, Smith and Brickey all left for Bend last Thursday. Mr. Needl expects to have dental work done while there.

This section was visited by a severe windstorm last Friday, which overturned several small buildings.

I. Zierolf returned to his homestead Saturday after spending the winter in the Willamette valley.

Mr. Gilham and son Guy made a quick trip to Bend recently, returning home last week.

W. T. Harrison and L. C. Peck left today with loads for the Gap ranch and Riley which they brought from Bend last week. They expect to bring in two tons of oats and wheat for Hampton store on their return trip.

Mrs. J. N. Crow is on the sick list. O. Drogsvold who left here the day after election last fall returned to his homestead the last of March and is busy improving his claim.

Melvin Crow recently cleared 15 acres on his place and expects to clean up the balance of 50 in the near future.

Those who attended the April 1 dance at Imperial report a good time.

PINEHURST

(Special to The Bend Bulletin.)
PINEHURST, April 13.—Little Velma Nichols had a narrow escape from a bucking horse Friday evening. The animal became frightened and Mrs. Nichols who was leading it received a severe blow from its hoofs as she caught the falling child.

The school celebrated arbor day with an appropriate program and setting out shrubbery in the school yard.

The farmers in this vicinity are busy plowing preparatory to seeding, while some have already planted the hardy grains, chief among which is rye.

Mrs. Arthur left Monday for Lorraine, Iowa, to visit her mother, who is sick.

Mrs. J. L. Couch made a business trip to Laidlaw Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Leverenz were here Saturday on their way to Laidlaw.

Mrs. Swisher and sister, Miss Flora Hasselberg went to Bend Saturday.

Mrs. Gene Wimer is on the sick list this week.

G. W. Snyder has added two more fine cows to his dairy herd.

Mrs. Dietrich and daughter went to Laidlaw Tuesday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. George Couch made a business trip to Laidlaw the last of the week.

FORT ROCK

(Special to The Bend Bulletin.)
FORT ROCK, April 12.—Bauman & Grimon arrived from Portland the other day with an eight-horse load of furniture and groceries and will commence to improve their homesteads at once.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Kendall and Mrs. Volt, her daughter, left for Idaho the first of the week.

E. F. Anderson, county commissioner, was here Monday. He is a believer in the good roads movement and is looking over this part of the county to see what work can be done to the best advantage.

J. P. Carson and William A. Busch were Fremont goes Saturday.

James Bonnick left for Astoria the first of the week where he will fish this season.

H. C. Carmack and Miss Alice M. Noel were married Sunday.

J. A. Ernst, R. A. Schaub and S. M. Wagner left for Bend Sunday where they will be in the employ of the Pine Forest Lumber Co.

J. A. Norman started to Bend the first of the week where he will meet his family who spent the winter in California for Mrs. Norman's health.

C. L. Hupp, who has spent the winter in Montana and British Columbia, returned home Sunday.

A very pleasant evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Rhoton last Friday where about 25 of the neighbors gathered and indulged in games until 12 o'clock when a lunch was served.

Dr. T. B. Short, the Silver Lake dentist spent the week in this town.

Five new postoffices have been petitioned for in the surrounding Fort Rock country.

MILLICAN

(Special to The Bend Bulletin.)
MILLICAN, April 14.—A. D. Norton, with one team of horses, plowed 10 acres of ground in four days last week and with the help of H. E. Davis and son John cleared and burned the sagebrush therefrom and planted to rye in another four days. Mr. Norton now has 40 acres seeded to rye.

R. E. Davis has named his ranch "Avondale" and same has been registered and recorded by the county clerk.

H. Masters struck a good flow of water in the old river bed at a depth of only five feet.

Mr. Roebeker, a homesteader at Horse Ridge, is erecting a store building at milepost 23 and expects to be open for business in the near future.

P. B. Johnson and Eric Nosteland, who own adjoining claims are preparing to fence their entire section.

Cy Lease walked to Bend last Saturday and hiked all the way back the following day.

Thomas Moffett and A. D. Norton commenced plowing for B. E. Davis today. About ten acres will be seeded to rye and alfalfa.

Two new homesteaders by name Spencer arrived in the valley from Chehalis, Wash., last Sunday and have settled on their claims.

George Millican and his buccaroos have been busy branding horses the past few days.

Fred Kiger has finished plowing 10 acres for Eric Nosteland, and Thomas Moffett 6 acres for P. B. Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Gilmore called on Mrs. A. D. Norton and Mrs. B. E. Davis Sunday.

TUMALO

(Special to The Bend Bulletin.)
TUMALO, April 13.—Mrs. L. J. Wimer from the Star ranch is visiting home folks today in Pinehurst.

Charles Wimer was transacting business in Bend Thursday.

Ditch cleaning is now completed in the Columbia Southern and the water has been turned on for the irrigation season.

Water has also been turned in the Wimer ditch. On account of the heavy snowfall the past winter it has been impossible to get water in these ditches much sooner.

G. W. Horner has made many improvements on his 200 acres in the way of getting the land ready for crops.

Millard Tripiett is also getting a large acreage ready for crop.

Arthur Brinson will soon complete his 100 acre clearing contract on the Wimer lands. This finishes the clearing of the entire 600 acres formerly owned by the Wimers.

Garden making is now in order.

GIST

(Special to The Bend Bulletin.)
GIST, April 13.—The extension of the Farmers' National Telephone Co. is completed throughout the Gist neighborhood. A number of the stockholders have installed their instruments.

Matt Kulesch has recently located on his ranch which he bought from H. C. Schumacher. He brought a herd of 27 fine dairy cows in with him.

Mrs. Pulliam and youngest son went to Sisters to visit Mrs. John McKinney.

Ralph Lunbeck's grandmother, Mrs. Smith, is in very poor health.

Mrs. Richards has been suffering with asthma and rheumatism of late.

Mr. Hall has returned to his home and intends to remain on the farm.

AT THE BEND COMPANY'S MILL.

Elmer Larsen is planning to leave for his homestead next Sunday.

George Geiger has made one trip out to his homestead in the Hampton Butte country and will shortly make the final move with his three children.

The breaking of the line shaft last Friday caused the mill to shut down for the rest of the day. Repairs were made that night sufficient to run the planer Saturday and finish a car order. The mill was running again Monday morning but before it and the planer can run at the same time again a new and stronger shaft will have to be put in. Material for this has been ordered.

Roy Allgood's two Atredales spent Sunday morning worrying a porcupine and a good part of the rest of the day having quills removed from their noses.

An attempt is being made to have the planer shavings blown into the base of the waste fire instead of on top, thereby lessening the fire danger.

The Rae brothers finished their cabin on Sunday and moved in.

Sunday Nels Hagen and Ingvald Holt started for their homesteads at Hampton Butte with a load of lumber and supplies. They expect to be gone about a week.

Mat Nelson has given up riding his mare bareback, having bought a saddle for her.
