

"Rexall Remedies"

Do you know about them? These are the remedies that are justly famous on account of their wonderful curative powers.

Rexall Remedies are made after the most approved formulas from the purest, highest strength drugs, in one of the finest laboratories in the world. Every formula is tested and tried. One remedy for each ailment. Ask for FREE BOOKLET.

Patterson Drug Co.

The Rexall Store

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS

The Priscillas met Monday night with Miss Sidner.

The Evening "500" club meets tonight with Mrs. Sawhill.

John R. Stinson of Prineville was a Bend visitor Saturday night.

Mrs. M. E. Penny of Portland is visiting her daughter, Mrs. A. A. Hanna.

The Caballorite Club held its fortnightly dance in Sather's hall Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Gould arrived Saturday and are staying at Mrs. Frame's.

The next dance given by the Subscription Dancing Club will be on the evening of May 21.

Victor Schreder of Rolyat was in town Friday, going to Eastern Washington on a business trip.

E. B. Summy, a real estate man of Seattle, who owns property here, was a Bend visitor last week.

H. A. Miller left Thursday for Hixton, Wis., being called there by the illness of his father.

Mrs. Lara entertained Saturday night the wives and relatives of members of the Emblem Club.

J. P. Cronin of the P. J. Cronin Saddletry Co. of Portland, is visiting his sister, Mrs. H. W. Skuse.

During the past week Bend has been visited with showers that are of great benefit to the farmers.

C. W. Afnot of Tacoma, who owns property here, was in town Saturday, at the Pilot Butte Hotel.

Miss Ellen Flook of Portland is visiting Miss Arrie Black this week, having arrived Monday evening.

Louis Aya and Earl Austin were down from L. Pine and Crescent on Saturday, staying at the Pilot Butte.

S. E. Hongland, who recently came to Bend from Seattle, has taken employment with the Miller Lumber Co.

The lucky number in the raffle of a handpainted rose tile at Mrs. Fowleson's art shop was held by Mrs. Hugh O'Kane.

Dr. Earl B. Osborn, veterinary at the O. A. C., was here last Wednesday, going on south and east on a trip of several days.

Mrs. E. R. Post has arrived from Elgin, Ill., and joined her husband here. They are living in one of the O'Neill cottages.

W. L. Powers, who was superintendent of the demonstration farms in Crook county last summer, was a Bend visitor Sunday.

M. G. O'Malley, state manager of the Fraternal Brotherhood in Oregon, came in Friday night from Portland to spend a few days.

J. P. Keyes returned Friday from an extended trip. While in Spokane he attended a meeting of the Western Pine Manufacturers' Association.

J. D. Davidson was laid up several days the past week with an attack of rheumatism but is able to be out now. Mrs. Davidson came in from their homestead to be with him.

Miss Vera Knotta has returned from a season's teaching at Rufus, Ore., and expects to spend the summer at the home of her father, E. A. Knotta, southeast of town.

O. M. Patterson and N. P. Weider will go to Medford next week to represent the Bend Lodge at the annual meeting of the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Oregon, on the 21st.

Frank Butterworth of Sisters was in town Tuesday and for the first time in five years had an opportunity to see the change in the town. "I can't find any of the old landmarks," he said.

Mrs. Z. M. Brown came over from Prineville Saturday and joined her husband, Mr. Brown now being here engaged in assessing local property. Mrs. Brown was accompanied by Miss Baldwin.

H. Fries and wife and J. J. Murphy, who have ranches in Harney county near Iron Mountain, were here Saturday, on their way to Puget Sound points. Mr. Fries will also go on to Alaska.

News has been received here of the marriage of Jean Charles Bollore and Miss Anna Margaret Carroll at Grand Forks, N. D., recently. Mr. Bollore is well known in Bend, having a homestead in the Powell Butte country.

F. L. Shaw of Seattle, who is owner of Bend business property, has purchased through J. B. Miner 140 acres of land adjoining the Sisters townsite which he will plat. The purchase was made from B. C. Brown, the price not being given out.

There is a message at the Western Union telegraph office for L. C. Barnes.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ferguson, who have been living near Prineville, have returned to Bend.

Rev. E. G. Judd announces that for the present the Baptist church will discontinue the publication of their weekly bulletin.

The young people's social, which was to have occurred last night, was indefinitely postponed on account of the death of Mrs. Frances Rood.

O'Donnell Bros. have just installed in their market a two-ton York ice machine which supplies refrigeration for both their cold storage room and the show case.

William L. Graham of Portland, who is interested in the Garrett property, is here and announces that they will place the property on the market immediately.

HE PASSED IT ON.

The Diplomat Saved Himself by a Quick Witted Ruse.

The passing of the court fool as an institution did not mean that kings had ceased to take pleasure in the sort of nonsense that the jesters had been licensed to perpetrate. King Frederick William I. of Prussia was an incorrigible joker and greatly enjoyed testing the cleverness of his ministers and advisers by planning embarrassing situations, from which they could extricate themselves only by the exercise of the quickest wit. However, "Das Buch Für Alle" declares that the king was almost as ready to enjoy his own discomfiture as that of his intended victim.

One day at a small dinner the king, happening to be in the mood to play a prank, chose as his victim one of his ministers seated at his left. After a moment's thought his majesty leaned toward the courtier on his right and, giving him a gentle slap on the cheek, said, "Pass it."

As the tap was passed from guest to guest round the table, the king's intentions became apparent. The minister at Frederick William's left would either have to commit lese majeste by slapping his sovereign or admit himself beaten and be the laughing stock of the table.

Although the company was already in a gale of merriment at his expense, the minister was not at all ready to acknowledge a defeat. Just as the blow was passed to him he let a knife fall clattering to the floor between the king and himself. Immediately a servant sprang forward, picked the knife up and handed it to the minister, but that was the lackey's astonishment to receive, instead of a word of thanks, a tap on the cheek. The minister by his wit had saved the situation without violating the rules of the game. The king was the first to join in the laughter and applause that greeted the minister's cleverness.

Australian Names.

Mark Twain, native of a country whose place names won the admiration of Robert L. Stevenson, was himself delighted by the place names of Australia. As amusement for a hot lay he collected a list of eighty-one, including such soul satisfying polysyllables as Murrumbidgee, Yarranyackah, Kondoparinga and Jamberoo, and put sixty-six of them into a poem of forty-eight lines. "These are good words for poetry," he says. "But the best word is that list and the most musical and rugged is Woolloomooloo."—London Chronicle.

Couldn't Get to Rehearsal.

An actor, being unable to find work on the stage and needing his meals, finally obtained the promise of a conductor's job on the street car lines.

"When do I report?"

"At 4 p. m. sharp," said the manager. "Shades of Booth!" exclaimed the Theban. "I couldn't stand such hours. The fines would offset the salary. Why, I'd be late for rehearsal every day."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

A Hungry One.

"Your stomach is so affected that I fear we shall have to operate for its removal."

"All right. Remove it. I never use it anyhow."

"You never use it? What business are you in?"

"I'm a poet."—Houston Post.

A Parallel.

Mr. Merry-Jack Jones, I am told, laughed while he was being married. Mr. Grouch-Well, haven't men been known to joke on the scaffold?—Baltimore American.

Spiteful.

Edith—So you are really engaged at last! I'm awfully glad to hear it, dear! Gladys—Yes, I was sure you would be. You have less competition now.—London Mail.

Dangerous to the Diaphragm.

Jack—Reggie imagines that he is a red killer. Ethel—Well, he isn't far off. We girls almost die laughing at him.—Boston Transcript.

We are best of all led to men's principles by what they do.—Butler.

Good Reason.

"What on earth inside you buy that comfortable when we have more now in the house than we need?"

"I guess it was because I saw it marked 'down.'"—Exchange.

It is a great mistake to try to live tomorrow or even yesterday today.

$150 FINE ENDS GAMBLING CASE

VERDICT AGAINST EX-MAYOR JONES

Redmond Man's Alleged Ignorance of Draw Faker Doesn't Convince Jury That He Was a Stranger Altogether to the Game.

(Editorial Correspondence)

PRINEVILLE, May 10.—One of the cases tried before Judge Bradshaw this week that attracted attention and provided amusement was that of the State vs. H. F. Jones. Jones is the ex-mayor of Redmond, and was charged with gambling. It will be remembered that he acquired the "ex" portion of his title through the forcible suggestion of Governor West, after conviction in a Justice's court on a charge of gambling, last August.

Despite all the persuasive eloquence of J. A. Wilcox, some time recorder of Redmond, who looks like Gladstone and who acted as Jones' attorney, the ex-mayor was found guilty by a jury of his peers, and the judge fined him $150.

Some of the testimony was entertaining. For instance, W. A. Bell, district attorney, found it necessary to ask Dillon, the detective and the state's chief witness, "How do you play poker?" Dillon proved himself a good forgetter, but remembered enough to be able to state that when Jones finished he "had no chips to cash in." Jones' quick losses, according to Attorney Wilcox, clearly established the fact that he never gambled, as they demonstrated his ignorance of the game. But the jury didn't seem to take this point of view and wasn't even influenced by the fact, demonstrated by the defense, that one can't play poker in Redmond on credit.

The Jones defense was chiefly based on the allegation that the ex-mayor played solely as a municipal detective, to ferret out evidence.

TRACK MEET AT REDMOND

Bend Represented by Three High School Boys.

A triangular high school track meet was held at Redmond Saturday, Bend being represented by three of the high school boys. Prineville won the meet, scoring 72 1/2 points. Redmond was second with 41 and Bend third with 12 1/2 points.

Those who took part in the meet from here were Ivan McGillivray and Claude and Lloyd Kelley. McGillivray won the discus throw, 89 feet 10 inches, and the shot put, 40 feet 5 inches. C. Kelley tied for second place in the standing broad jump.

A large crowd of students and town people went down for the meet. Incidentally, they had some fun at the expense of Robert B. Gould, who was at the Hotel Redmond with his bride. The crowd got together a lot of old shoes and tin cans and thoroughly decorated the auto of J. C. Rhodes, who had gone down to meet Mr. and Mrs. Gould and W. D. Cheuey.

FUNERAL OF MRS. ROOD.

The funeral of Mrs. Frances A. Rood was held at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. J. Grabenhorst, at 10 o'clock this morning. Rev. E. G. Judd officiating. Mrs. Rood died of pneumonia Monday at 11 p. m.

Frances M. Anthony was born on April 22, 1846, near Atwater, Ohio. On October 1, 1867, she was married to Warren D. Rood and to them were born three children, two of whom survive—Mrs. Grabenhorst and E. D. Rood of Flasher. N. D. Mrs. Rood came to Bend with her daughter last fall.

Hot rolls and bread at the American Bakery every afternoon at 5 o'clock. New store on Wall street. 1014

CHURCH NOTICES

Baptist.
Bible school at 9:45 a. m. Preaching service at 11, subject "The Assurance of Salvation." Brotherhood at 3 p. m. No preaching in the evening on account of baccalaureate sermon at the Methodist church. The young people's meeting will be held at 7. Prayer meeting Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. Choir practice Thursday evening at 7:30.

Catholic.
Services Sunday morning at the regular hour, 10:30 o'clock.

Presbyterian.
There will be special services on Sunday, the 18th, at the Star Theatre, at 11 a. m., conducted by the pastor; subject, "Walking With God." Mrs. E. R. Post will sing a solo. The evening service is recalled in honor of a union meeting of all the churches of Bend at the M. E. church on account of the high school graduation sermon by Rev. E. C. Newham. The Sunday school will meet at 10 a. m. at the Star, Ross Farham, supt.

UNDERWEAR, GLOVES, HANDKERCHIEFS

NEW ARRIVALS

for Summer Wear

White Corduroy Skirts at $1.75 and $2.50

White Lingerie Waists—voile and lawn, neat designs, sizes 34 to 42, $1.25, $1.50, $1.75, $2.00 and $2.50

Infants White Dresses 65, 75, 85, $1, $1.50

Ladies' and Misses' White Dresses in voiles, allovers, etc. latest models, priced from

$5 to $8:50

NEW DRESS ACCESSORIES—
Jabots, Lace Collars, Robespierre Collars
25c, 35c, 50c, 75c

We carry Machine Needles for all kinds of Sewing Machines

THE MOST IN VALUE THE BEST IN QUALITY

Mannheimer's

LACES, EMBROIDERIES, WAISTS, TUB DRESSES, DRESS GOODS, SILKS, HOSIERY, SHOES, CORSETS, BRASSIERES, DRESS TRIMMINGS, MUSLIN UNDERWEAR, KIMONAS, ETC.

HATS, CAPS, FURNISHINGS, NECKWEAR

EXPERIENCED OPTICIAN COMING
Dr. Kenneth T. Long, optician and refracting specialist, will be in Bend for a period of ten days beginning on May 22. Dr. Long is a competent and experienced optician and will be prepared to make examinations and prescribe and fit glasses. While in Bend he will make his headquarters at the office of Dr. U. C. Coe and appointments may be made with Dr. Coe.—Adv. 10-11

POWELL BUTTE
(Special to The Bend Bulletin.)
POWELL BUTTE, May 11.—Mrs. Sarah Phillips, who has been visiting here during the past year, and her son Ruby, who has been here the past few months, expect to return to their home in Canada the first of the week.

Mr. Blair and family are new arrivals in this neighborhood, coming from Portland.

Mrs. D. A. Paterson has been sick with the grip but is much better now. W. J. Galbraith and children are just recovering from a siege of the mumps.

J. P. Bowman is hauling potatoes to La Pine where he gets 75 cents to $1 a sack.

A. D. Morrill is pulling trees on the I. P. Hahlen homestead.

Creamery men from Redmond were in the neighborhood last week engaging cream of local farmers, as they expect to start the Red-creamery soon again.

Powell Butte has been visited by several fine showers during the past week—just what was needed by the farmers.

George Schobert is still planting potatoes on that 90-acre "patch" of his. He says he will leave them in the ground for fertilizer if they are not a good price this fall.

HARNNESS AND EVERYTHING FOR HORSES

ONLY THE STRONGEST LEATHER GOES INTO THE HARNNESS WE SELL. YOU CAN KNOW THAT THE HARNNESS YOU BUY FROM US WILL GIVE LONG, HONEST WEAR.

WE DO NOT SELL "CHEAP" HARNNESS AT ANY PRICE, BUT WE SELL GOOD HARNNESS FOR A CHEAP PRICE.

BUY YOUR HARNNESS FROM US AND YOU WILL BE "HITCHED UP" TO OUR STORE FOR ALL TIME FOR ALL YOU NEED IN HARNNESS AND HARDWARE.

Skuse Hardware Company.
We Repair Guns of All Kinds.

Linoleums and Mattings

PRETTY PATTERNS

Easy to Keep Clean

Dear Amy:—
Laura has just been over to see me to tell me her troubles. She's lost that maid she had that was such a treasure. Now, if she'd buy linoleum for her kitchen floor, as I've begged her to do, she wouldn't have so much trouble keeping help. It makes a kitchen or bathroom so much easier to keep clean, and besides, it always gives them a more attractive appearance.

I've bought pretty new mattings for my bed rooms this summer. They give the rugs a rest and are more sanitary, also. Come over and see them. Baby John dearly loves to play in the kitchen now.

Bye, Bye,
Lou.

P. S.—You'll see dandy linoleums and mattings if you go down to

E. M. Thompson
Where Your Dollar Does Its Duty.