

EXERCISE YOUR MIND.

Good Hard Thinking Will Help You Mentally and Physically.

Exercise your body if you will—that cannot harm you and is pretty sure to do you a great deal of good—but, whatever else you do or neglect to do, keep thinking.

It is no mere coincidence that most of the great thinkers of the world, whether in philosophy, science, industry, literature or the arts, have lived to be old men despite the fact that in youth they were in many instances physical weaklings.

Whatever aptitude, whatever special interest, your child chances to display encourage him in it. Don't deaden his desire for knowledge, his instinctive tendency to think, by indifference, by failure to answer his incessant bombardment of questions.

The trouble with most of us is that we are not really interested in anything. We have interests, to be sure, but they are diffuse, thin, weak—they do not grip us.

Let us get truly interested in something, no great matter what it is, and we shall find that we can think about it easily enough.

Began With Love Letters. Samuel Richardson, the first English novelist, began his literary career by acting as scribe for a number of young women, for whose correspondence with their sweethearts he frequently supplied not only the words, but the sentiments.

Whistler's Drawings of Himself. In "Memories of James MacNeill Whistler," by Thomas R. Way, the author says: "Once I questioned Whistler as to the authenticity of a black and white portrait of himself, on brown paper, which my father had bought from him and afterward fancied was by some other artist.

To Remove a Broken Screw. One often requires to remove a screw with one side of the head broken off. The following is a method of drawing out the broken screw with ease and without disfiguring the work.

His Comparison. Maud—So Jack compared me with something sweet, did he? The dear fellow! What was it? Marie—I don't think I should tell you. Maud—Oh, do. I insist. Marie—Well, he referred to you as "the human marshmallow."

Politeness. Politeness is a quality that enables a housewife to be as considerate of her husband when he upsets his cup of coffee on the tablecloth as she would if he were a visitor.—Chicago Tribune.

How Unfortunate. He—I was born on the same day on which Richard Wagner died. She—Yes, yes! A misfortune seldom comes alone.—Fitzgerald Blatter.

Natural History. Teacher—The butterfly comes from a caterpillar. Johnny—And you can get fish from a worm too.—New York Times.

That which is sown in the field is death in the harvest.

A CHAMPION SPELLER.

Horace Greeley Was a Wonder When Only Six Years of Age.

No champion of the old time spelling matches, perhaps, ever excelled Horace Greeley. He was, in fact, a spelling prodigy.

His schooling began in his fourth year, and the art of spelling at once became a passion with him. In school and out he kept incessantly at his study.

The fame of his prowess spread. Naturally Horace was the first one chosen at spelling matches. He had a pleasing, winning voice and spelled his words with the utmost confidence.

So great was the boy's reputation as a student of unusual powers that in the selection of a neighboring town, in selecting a rule forbidding the attendance at the local school of any pupil from outside the township, honored him by adding the clause: "Excepting only Horace Greeley."—Youth's Companion.

Sarcastic. This incident is related of a Scotch doctor, new to the gun, who ventured upon a day's rabbit shooting.

Chased by the ferrets, bunny was a rather quick moving target, and the medico was not meeting with the success he anticipated.

"Hang it all, man," he exclaimed impatiently to the keeper who accompanied him; "these beasts are too quick for me!"

"Aye, doctor," the savvy keeper replied, "but ye surely didna expect them to be still like yer patients till ye kill them!"

Yet He Liked Fresh Air. "My husband was at a smoker Saturday night and never got home until about 1 o'clock."

friends to the home of Allen Wilcoxon where a surprise on him was to be held. When they arrived they found it was a frame-up and was a farewell party for them.

Several of the Powell Butte people attended the show at Redmond Friday. J. P. Bowman and Mr. Curtis left last week for the Palouse country in Washington where they will be during the harvest season.

Mrs. A. D. Morrill returned last week from a trip to the John Day country.

J. I. Jones bought a horse recently of "Si" Hodges in Prineville.

L. P. Hahlen and Ed Persson have just brought in a hay baler from the Hampton Butte country. There will no doubt be plenty for them to do this season, as the alfalfa crop will be cut unusually early. It is of good growth. Several ranchers have already begun cutting.

TUMALO

(Special to The Bend Bulletin.)

TUMALO, June 15.—The postoffice at this place has been discontinued. People will now get their mail from Laidlaw.

Mrs. G. W. Wimer, formerly of this place but now at Ashland, has been in poor health for some time but was much improved at last accounts.

George Campbell was a Laidlaw caller today.

Charles Wimer has been busy of late hauling hay to Bend and to the Bend Company camp near the brick yard.

The weather of the past week has been cooler than usual, still crops of all kinds are making a wonderful growth.

P. A. Woolley has sold his crop, stock and other things preparatory to leaving this place, having contracted his land to the state to be used in connection with the Tumalo project.

Lumber is now on the ground for the building of camps at the big dam site of the reservoir. A telephone line has also been constructed from Laidlaw. It is understood that there will be three camps in connection with the work on the project.
