"POINTERS FOR PRACTICAL FARMERS."

The Bulletin has a large supply of this valuable and interesting booklet, which is written by C. L. ("Farmer") Smith and published by the Oregon-Washington railroad. These booklets will be sent to any farmer who asks for them, and may be had by calling at The Bulletin office.

The following articles are included in the booklet: The Small Farm, Building Up a Dairy Herd, To Cheaper Pork Production, and The Future Beef Supply. The material is all hard, common sense, and may be studied to advantage by any rancher. The copies are FREE, remember.

LAILDLAW

(Special to The Bend Bulletin.) LAILDLAW, June 30.—Will Sande was in town Saturday. George Fisher and J. N. B. Gerking were in Bend last week. Mrs. Harper and mother were visiting and trading in Bend Friday. The school meeting north of town has been postponed. F. E. Dayton and Miss Ruth are expected home to spend the Fourth. J. L. Couch and Jay Nichols were in Bend Friday on business. The cheese factory is running all the time now and cheese is going up in price. A. F. Ramsay has gone to a hospital in The Dalles for treatment. He was accompanied by J. M. Stry, who has returned. O. H. Nercott's fruit trees are filled to the top with fruit. He has apples, pears, prunes and cherries. J. C. Thorp was in Portland last week buying pool tables and other equipment for his pool hall. Mr. and Mrs. Flickinger were visiting one day last week at the Howard-Wilson home. It is reported that Mrs. Swafford has lost her appeal in the contest brought against her homestead. Ray Gerking has returned home after spending her vacation of about a month with friends at Walla Walla, Wash., and Pendleton, Ore. A large number gathered on the island after morning services Sunday and had a picnic dinner. John T. Whistler of Portland and State Engineer John H. Lewis of Salem were here Sunday. There will be a large number from this community who will go to the Redmond celebration. Miss Bernice Umphlett of Portland is visiting her sister, Mrs. John B. Wimer. Charles Carson of Sisters was here last week, selling horses. Last Sunday morning while Mrs. G. W. Snyder and her two daughters were bringing milk to the cheese factory the horse became frightened, just inside the city limits, and ran, throwing them all out. Mrs. Snyder received several bruises, but none of them serious. Mrs. Fred Wallace took the Snyders to her home and cared for them until Monday.

PLAINVIEW

(Special to The Bend Bulletin.) PLAINVIEW, June 30.—Mrs. Jno. Strahm went to Sisters Tuesday, returning home Thursday. She visited with her daughter, Mrs. Koide. Robert Davis is negotiating for a larger boiler for his sawmill. McCallisters are working about 22 men on their ditch. Mrs. Smith's health has been quite poor lately. Mr. Brown and family, who have made Sisters their home for some time, passed here Thursday on their way to Redlands, Cal., having sold their place in Sisters to F. L. Shaw.

POWELL BUTTE

(Special to The Bend Bulletin.) POWELL BUTTE, June 30.—The continued rain has brought joy to the dry farmer and ditch land man alike. Crops that were considerably lost are beginning to shoot up and insure a very fair yield. Many of those who had stopped plowing summer fallow on account of dryness have resumed their work. Choir practice was held at the home of J. L. Foster Thursday evening. Owing to the rain, the attendance was small. Ross Bussett was a Prineville visitor on Thursday. Reeves Wilcoxon and Henry Tweet spent the week-end on the Deschutes and report a very good catch of fish. The farmers of this section are very thankful for the little book, "Pointers For Practical Farmers," by C. L. Smith, the agriculturist who spoke at the Landfare place last week and for the handy bookkeeping for farmers, both of which were sent out by the First National Bank of Bend and which are being given away at the Powell Butte postoffice. Alvin Riggs killed a beef last week and had little trouble in disposing of it among neighbors. They are wishing someone would do this every week. Fred Brown of Kent, Ore., is here visiting his sister-in-law, Mrs. Brown. Leo Hobbs made a trip to Bend on Saturday after a load of lumber. Wallace Smith, who lost his house by fire some time ago, has been hauling lumber and making preparations for a house-raising which will take place Wednesday, July 2. The neighbors have all been invited to attend this, the ladies to furnish a big feed at noon. "Spud" Hobbs and "Doc" Morgan made a business trip to Redmond on Saturday. Jake Wolfer, who has been spending the winter with his brother John, has returned to the Willamette valley. Mrs. Burson and family have left for the Willamette valley. C. M. Charlton was a Redmond caller Saturday. Almost everyone with hay to put up will start work as soon as the weather settles. Cris Stetz made a trip to Prineville Saturday afternoon. Fred Persson took a ride into the Ochoco country above Prineville on Sunday. A California man has been offering to contract for potatoes from the farmers in this locality at $29 a ton. That brings joy to some hearts all right. Allen Wilcoxon shot a fine yearling filly last week from what was thought to be lung fever. Henry Tweet lost a valuable mare Saturday morning from some unknown trouble. Nearly all of Powell Buttes expected to turn out to help Redmond celebrate the Fourth. There is considerable talk of having one, if not two, floats in the parade to represent this country. Leland Casey attempted to break a mule from balking and overdid the job, the team running away and tearing things up generally. It is reported that the engagement of Ernest Ward to Grace Cannon of Pendleton has been announced, the marriage to take place soon. Mr. and Mrs. Ray Dunn of Bend are visiting relatives at Powell Butte.

TUMALO

(Special to The Bend Bulletin.) TUMALO, June 29.—We are still having nice showers occasionally, which have done a great deal of good. State Engineer Lewis and Project Engineer Laurgard were inspecting the proposed dam site for the reservoir of the project, today. P. A. Woolley and family have left this place. Charles Wilmer was delivering hay to Bend yesterday. He still has on hand considerable quantity of baled hay at the Star ranch. A good many sheep are now passing here on their way to the summer range. G. W. Horner and family are at present camping at this place, Mr. Horner seems to enjoy the camp fire. Several of the neighbors have been busy lately picking the large crop of gooseberries on the Star ranch. Haying will soon begin in the alfalfa fields. Stock of all kinds are doing finely on the range. The rains of late have been good on the bunchgrasses. Charles Wilmer has had the misfortune to have a valuable mare shot on the range with a shotgun by some careless person, several shot having penetrated the head just under the ear. The mare is yet in bad condition but it is thought she will recover.

REDMOND

(Special to The Bulletin.) REDMOND, July 1.—Lamonta defeated Redmond at baseball on the local diamond Sunday by a score of 14 to 9. The loss in the fire last week that destroyed E. G. Sherwood's store was $1200. In the voting contest to elect a Goddess of Liberty to ride in the Fourth of July parade, which closed at 8 p. m., Saturday, Marie Austin was chosen, with over 2000 votes. Terrellone defeated Culver Sunday by a score of 5 to 4. The game was played at Culver.

CRESCENT

(Special to The Bend Bulletin.) CRESCENT, June 27.—E. G. Roux returned from Klamath Falls Sunday. He came by rail as far as Kirk where J. L. Ringo met him. Elmer Tyler is spending a few days with his family. He intends to return to work at Chilgoish again. The Pioneer Sewing Club was entertained by Mrs. Roux Saturday. Those present were Gudamesa Rinco, Jones, Long, Cleaves, Graves, Davis and Misses Emmaline Meade and Dorothy Anderson. E. Austin went to Bend Monday to meet W. W. Cryder, who spent a week in Portland on business. J. L. Ringo and Mrs. Charles Graves went to La Pine Monday. They visited the Maaten family, returning Wednesday. Dr. Collins was in from his ranch Wednesday. J. G. Redmond, with his assistant, C. C. Randolph has been surveying Mr. Lafollette's homestead the past week. Dr. Wright and family of Klamath Falls were guests at the Crescent on Wednesday night. Mrs. Charles Graves was suddenly called home on account of the illness of her husband, she left here Thursday, going down to Dr. Wright's car. Charles Thomas made a trip to Bend, returning Saturday. Lawrence Frizzell of Fort Rock was a Crescent visitor Wednesday.

HAMPTON BUTTE

(Special to The Bend Bulletin.) HAMPTON BUTTE, June 28.—Rain for more than a week, with over three inches of precipitation, will insure a good hay crop in this vicinity. Bert M. Meeks returned from Bend today with a load of supplies. William O'feld brought in a fox of wire and has been busy fencing on his daughter's claim. Several auto trunks have been buried in the mud. The heavy rains have made the roads quite soft in a few places. J. M. Brickey came in from Bend today with a load of supplies. Over 250 guests have registered at the Hotel Brookings during June. Two men from Santa Dakota are visiting with Bert Meeks and looking over the country. S. Nye of Spokane is checking his friends at Hampton Butte. Mr. Nye is agent for the caterpillar machine. Gabriel Patout came out to his claim and is plowing and getting up a scrub.

PRINGLE FLATS

(Special to The Bend Bulletin.) PRINGLE FLATS, June 24.—F. Lund and Martin Johnson left for Prineville last Wednesday, June 18. Mrs. H. Evans has some iris in bloom, the first on Pringle Flats. Floyd Houston and Paul Held have just finished riding for their horses. It has been raining for the last three days here. The gardens and fields are looking fine. Mrs. A. B. Taylor spent the day at the Evans home last Sunday. Mrs. Martin and her son also called on Mrs. Evans Sunday afternoon. Mr. Beebe and Mr. Boerste are digging a well for Charles H. Genung. The potato crops on Pringle Flats are looking fine since the rain.

AMONG THE SETTLERS

(Special to The Bend Bulletin.) BEND, R. F. D., July 1.—Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Cole E. Smith, June 23, an 8 1/2-pound girl. Mother and REPAIRS. Did you say repairs? We have them for McCormick machines—mower parts, binder parts; in fact, we carry a complete line for old McCormick machines as well as new. Drop in. Let us figure with you on the repair question. Make your wants known. We will tell you exactly what it will cost to repair your old machine, and in case the expense would be too great, we will frankly tell you so, thus placing you in a position where you can get your new McCormick machine in time for harvest. We handle a complete line of McCormick machines, and will be glad to see you at any time. If you are not ready to buy, call and get our catalogues anyway. They will interest you. They will inform you as to exactly what we have, and then you will know exactly what you want when you get ready to buy. BEND HARDWARE COMPANY.

FICKSBURG. (Continued on page eleven.) FICKSBURG (LAWSON P. O.), June 29.—The development club, after learning that the people of Cougar valley, about 10 miles northwest of here, were at such a season by the matter of holding a Fourth of July celebration, have concluded to bring the "got together" meeting planned and will attend the Cougar valley festivities. R. H. Hoeckel has resigned as secretary of the development club here. (Continued on Page Eight.)

PRACTICAL BAKING LESSONS. BAKING POWDER BREADS. Baking Powder Breads have three things in their favor which are making them more and more popular. They are an agreeable change from yeast bread, they are quickly and easily made and are especially useful in emergencies, and they are often prescribed by physicians when yeast bread continues to ferment in the digestive tract. Baking Powder Breads may be made in almost endless variety. A few of the most popular recipes are given below. Nevada Briggs. Recipes include: Nut Bread, German Coffee Cakes, Corn Bread, Plain White Bread, Colonial Loaf, Rye Bread, and Graham-Nut Bread. Helpful Hints on Bread Making: Have materials all at hand. Sift three times, flour, salt and baking powder, mix thoroughly. Bake slowly enough to allow the bread to rise before it crusts over, using a covered pan to keep the surface soft. Remember that baking powder breads do the greater part of the rising in the oven and that baked bread can not rise. Let it rise before baking. K C Baking Powder is particularly adapted to bread baking on account of its long sustained action. It begins to rise as soon as moisture is added, and under the influence of a gentle heat, it continues to give off its leavening gas for fully half an hour. You cannot expect the same results from old fashioned quick-acting baking powder. With K C Baking Powder you are assured of a light, palatable loaf. Never, never knead baking powder bread as one does yeast bread. Turn from the mixing bowl into the baking pan. Follow mixing and baking directions carefully. Remember failures are not simply bad luck, but bad ways. There is a correct, scientific way for building baked foods the same as for building houses, and unless these rules are followed, results cannot be perfect. Next Week: Paper Bag Cookery.
