BEND WILL HAVE QUIET INDEPENDENCE DAY

Fourth to Be Observed in Nearby Towns—Redmond Plans Big Celebration—Some Go to Klamath.

There will be no official observance of the Fourth of July in Bend, but the townspeople will have ample opportunity to enjoy the customary celebration at various towns nearby. Redmond has planned an elaborate program covering both Friday and Saturday and including band concerts, parades, ball games, dancing, horse racing and other sports. W. A. Williams of Forest Grove will deliver an oration. It is expected that many will go down from here for the first day of the celebration, if not for both, leaving on the morning train and returning in the evening.

An alfalfa entertainment will be limited to Friday alone, but the day will be packed with ball games, sports and racing and there will be a dance in the evening. Everything is advertised to be free.

At the Grange hall east of town, as told elsewhere in this issue, there will be a picnic.

Although not as close at hand, a number plan to go down to the Elks Rodeo at Klamath Falls which will be held on the 4th, 5th and 6th. The trip will be made by auto, the party leaving on Thursday evening if present plans are carried out.

Picnicking and fishing on the river will claim many parties who have had their plans all made to spend the day quietly in the country. Possibly the largest party will be made up of the Richardson and Arnold Sunday schools, which have arranged for an outing at "Dutch John's" place four miles up the river. There will be sports and games, with prizes for the winners, and a picnic lunch will be served.

Church observance of the anniversary include special services at the Methodist church at 5 o'clock Sunday evening.

Mr. Conser has been with the Security Savings & Trust Co. of Portland for a number of years, and is a brother-in-law of J. L. Gaul, cashier of the First National Bank of Burns. Mr. Conser says he hopes to have his bank open for business by the middle of July.

RAISES VEGETABLES TOO.

Some weeks ago The Bulletin told about the success Mrs. G. W. Shriner had had in raising chickens. Apparently chickens are not the only things that Mrs. Shriner can raise, for yesterday she brought to The Bulletin office a basket of vegetables from her garden that were ahead of anything seen from any other local garden this summer. There were peas, radishes, young onions, white turnips, spinach, three varieties of lettuce, strawberries, and in the flower line a long stalk of pansies. The garden was planted in April and has not been troubled by frost, Mrs. Shriner said.

UNIFORM ASSESSMENT NEEDED

Tax Commissioner Galloway Compliments Assessor Foster on Work.

(Special to The Bulletin)
PRINEVILLE, July 1.—Charles V. Galloway, state tax commissioner, arrived in Prineville Sunday, having come from Burns via Bend for the purpose of seeing what progress had been made so far with the assessment roll for 1913. Mr. Galloway stated while here that a uniform assessment was a more desirable attainment in Crook county right at present than a full cash valuation and that a full cash valuation could come later when uniformity had been reached.

For the purpose of assisting the state board of tax commissioners in apportioning the assessment fairly among the counties, T. A. Rhinehart will be sent to Crook county within a week or so for the purpose of taking transcripts from the records of transfers in the county of the valuations set forth in the transfers. Mr. Galloway complimented Assessor H. A. Foster on the work accomplished by him so far.

DEFENDANT WINS CASE

Portland Company Loses in Action Brought Against Local Plumber.

In the case of the Peerless Pacific Company, a plumbing supply house of Portland, against J. J. Ryan, tried in Justice Orcutt's court Saturday, the jury after a few moments' deliberation brought in a verdict in favor of the defendant and against the plaintiff in the sum of $47, which will also require the plaintiff to pay the costs of the case.

The action originally brought to recover the sum of $200, which amount was subsequently reduced to $137, was contested by Mr. Ryan on the ground that the plaintiff had agreed to look to J. J. Klein for payment, and that the plaintiff was in fact indebted to him on account of credits which had never been allowed, and judgment was asked against plaintiff for the amount of these credits. The verdict is for the full amount claimed by Mr. Ryan.

An attachment was issued when the action was first filed and this is the same proceeding under which Mr. Ryan's stock of plumbing supplies and fixtures was advertised at sheriff's sale some weeks ago.

The plaintiff was represented by C. S. Benson and the defendant by Ross Farnham.

Another item of real importance, both to the landowners involved and to others, is that some $20,000 is to be paid out for land for the reservoir, etc., all of which, it is understood, will remain in the country and so be placed in circulation.

You feel more independent in a nicely furnished home

Dear Amy:—
When a woman has a handsomely furnished home, she is free and independent from the "criticism" of those who come to her house. She can feel that she is socially free, because she can ask anyone to come to see her. Her husband's business standing, too, is judged by the way he keeps up his home.

I'll tell you, Amy, it pays far more than it costs to have your home looking presentable.

Lou.
