POWELL BUTTE

(Special to The Bulletin) POWELL BUTTE, Aug. 3.—In the article on the Powell Butte country last week a typographical error made 20 acres appear as 200 and 10 acres as 100, this being in the mention of Allan Landfare's alfalfa and clover. E. F. Archer, D. A. Patterson and Lewis Blair have hired Lee Hobbs' hay baler and will bale their own hay. D. A. Patterson bought five head of Lee Hobbs' high grade Holstein cows last week, paying $90 a head. Mr. Patterson expects to sell cream at some of the local creameries. J. P. Bowman has rented the J. D. Davidson homestead for pasture. E. F. Archer has about finished a separator house on his ditch 80 in the old river bed, this making his dairy facilities more complete. J. I. Jones and son Ralph returned from Terrebonne last Tuesday. L. P. Hahlen is drawing the plans and figuring the lumber bill preparatory to building a house and barn for Tom Huston on the ditch land that Mr. Huston bought of Jack Ferguson last spring. The house will be 28 by 36 feet and the barn large and roomy. Mr. Huston has about 60 head of horses. William Johnson and son Robert have finished putting up Mrs. Mary Elliott's rye hay. Lewis Blair is now putting up his timothy. This is very heavy and has lodged in places. Hay fields that were cut about July 1 on the Whitney place are nearly ready for the second cutting. E. L. Frost sold John Culver a heifer last week that promises to be good dairy stock. Mr. Culver is buying up heifers that have the appearance of becoming good for dairy purposes. POWELL BUTTE, Aug. 4.—Tom Huston cut his alfalfa on July 19. He measured it on the 28th and found it had grown 20 inches in the 18 days. Wallace Smith is one of the first to start cutting oats. Prayer meeting was held at E. J. Johnson's Tuesday evening. J. L. Foster and Proctor Heath have rented the Voaburg place near Cline Falls. While they have been here but a short time they have made many friends and have done much in aiding to organize church work in the neighborhood. Choir practice was held Thursday evening at the home of Miss Alma Johnson. George Hobbs traded Tom Huston a Holstein cow for a big mare, last week. Chapman and Smith spent last Wednesday at Morse's. Nearly every one is starting to cut rye. Henry Tweet went to Redmond Friday night to meet his wife who has been visiting at Bend. A number of Powell Butte Masons attended lodge in Redmond Thursday night. Dick Long, who has been working for "Shorty" Foster, has gone to Prineville. From there he expects to go to the Willamette valley. J. J. Chapman and Jess Tuck made a trip to Deschutes last week. Claude McCauley, superintendent of maintenance, was out at the north end of the Central Oregon canal on Saturday. He told the settlers that he could promise them no more water for the rest of the season. Perry Smith of Prineville visited with George Hobbs Saturday. Jess Shohart took a load of fat hogs to Redmond last week, but the heat was too much for them and when he got to town one was dead. Mrs. Chapman had cucumbers from her own garden Sunday.

HAMPTON

(Special to The Bulletin) HAMPTON, July 28.—Louie Miller made a trip to Bend last week by auto. The ladies recently gave a surprise to Mrs. L. C. Peck and a very pleasant afternoon was spent. Refreshments were served by Mrs. E. M. Peck, Mrs. W. T. Harrison and Miss Ethel Fogg. J. L. Owen, W. T. Harrison and W. P. Wilquit drove to Dry Lake last Sunday. Mrs. J. N. Crow received word last week that her daughter, Miss Evelyn, is ill in Pe Ell, Wash. A. S. Fogg made a business trip to Bend last week. Mrs. Sarah L. Miller has left for Cornelius, Ore. Burr Black has been cutting his grain this week. A severe thunder shower visited Hampton valley the past week. A small tent belonging to Rev. C. A. Burris was struck by lightning, and the large living tent was blown down although no one was injured. A number of settlers of this vicinity have gone to Kent, Ore., to harvest. Alvin Hunting went up to Washington last week to work. Thursday a few of the friends of Florence and Ruth Hunting drove over to spend the afternoon with them. It was a surprise affair and all present report a jolly time. Mrs. Beona Hicks has started a store near the 68 milepost. Lee Miller and family have gone to Bend for a few months. Messrs. Black and Harrison started to Bend for loads this week. Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Dencer are on their homestead. Mr. Dencer harvesting. Floyd Phillips is helping I. Zierolf and J. L. Whitaker harvest. Mrs. E. M. Peck has been ill for the last week.

HAMPTON BUTTE

(Special to The Bulletin) HAMPTON BUTTE, Aug. 3.—A nice shower this morning laid the dust. Miss Elva McFadden was a Bend visitor the past week. John and Marvin Perry, J. E. Curran and Earl Rogers returned from Bend with Perry's well drilling outfit Friday. Mrs. M. W. Sheppard has purchased a seeder and is preparing to seed considerable acreage this fall. Miss Bessie Sheppard received a 32 special Winchester carbine for a birthday present and expects to go deer hunting soon. A. T. Shaver, Ray Harper, Miss Elva McFadden and Miss Mary McMullen attended a dance at Charles Stauffer's, at Lost Creek, Saturday night. Ray Harper of Cline Falls is working for A. T. Shaver. He was with Mr. Shaver last fall and has had considerable experience in drilling wells. Mr. Shaver finished Horace Brookings' well Tuesday and the drill was moved to Bert Meeks' place Wednesday. Water was struck on Mr. Meeks' claim at a depth of 135 feet. On completion of the well, the drill will be moved to Mr. Wilson's place at Misery Flats. Charles Stauffer was visiting in this vicinity last week. James Brickey has a tame sage hen. This fowl, a young one, came to Mr. Brickey's place and has become so tame that it enters the house and will eat grain from the hand. It will fly away but always returns. C. W. Ashbaugh, wife and son are visiting friends in Lost Creek valley. Miss Lillian Hagman of Newberg is visiting her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Meeks. Theo. Cook of Glass Butte is working for G. A. Johnson. There were over 350 guests registered at Hotel Brookings during July. Mrs. Horace Brookings has 60 young turkeys, all growing fine. We have our mouth set for turkey on Thanksgiving Day. S. W. Merrill, S. Simonson and Mr. Olson made a trip to Prineville last week. Mr. Olson comes from Astoria and will remain here permanently, having filed on a homestead. Mr. and Mrs. Nate Billings and children, their niece, Miss Mary Hubbard, and Eugene Hall, all of Springfield, Ore., spent several days last week as the guests of Walter Taylor and family. The men both filed on homesteads in this valley and will return in about two months to reside here. Some of the homesteaders have been practicing with the milts and some lively sparring will likely be seen before the season closes. Jabe Warner has completed his harvest and has moved his machinery to his alkali flats ranch to commence haying there. S. W. Merrill, Chas. Royer and W. Taylor and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Lytle of Pringle Flats. The men had some fun shooting jackrabbits, 40 odd being killed. John Stevens has the finest wheat in this valley. He also has a tree bearing cherries this season. S. W. Merrill is mowing hay for Ed Wade this week. Harry Weir is helping William Shuits put up his hay. DRY LAKE

(Special to The Bulletin) DRY LAKE, July 28.—Plenty of rain makes spring crops in this vicinity assured. Mr. Johnson made a trip to Bend the past week, returning with his family. Oscar Hill of Hampton and S. Samson of Dry Lake have gone out to harvest. About 50 people gathered at N. N. Kins' place on the 26th for a before-harvest dance. A fine time is reported by all present. Dry Lake is soon to have a telephone from Maury mountain to the Kins place by way of Barnes, with a possible extension later to Hampton. "Grandpa" Rood was stricken with apoplexy the night of the 25th and there is very little hope of his recovery. A social center building is being discussed. School this year will begin with about 20 pupils.

DRY LAKE, July 28.—Haying is now in full swing here. Prospects are excellent for an abundant crop of potatoes. N. N. Kins went to Bend today. A. D. Chandler accompanied him to Bend, going from there to Olympia, Wash., on a business trip. A. Huntsman has a field of oats that is hard to surpass in any country, and it will make a fine yield. N. N. Kins has some beardless barley that is filling out and will be ready for harvest in about two weeks or less. Mr. Fuller has struck water at 26 feet on the north basin east of Camp creek, according to report here, and has an abundant supply of water. This part of the country is more than 150 feet above the Camp creek elevation.

HARNEY HOLES

(Special to The Bulletin) HARNEY HOLES, Aug 2.—Hay-

ing is all the go here now and the crop is good. There will be enough in this vicinity to supply all demands locally. All homesteaders who have been here one year have plenty to do them, and those who came in two years ago or more have enough to spare to supply all newcomers. S. W. Merrill, S. Simonson and Mr. Olson made a trip to Prineville last week. Mr. Olson comes from Astoria and will remain here permanently, having filed on a homestead. Mr. and Mrs. Nate Billings and children; their niece, Miss Mary Hubbard, and Eugene Hall, all of Springfield, Ore., spent several days last week as the guests of Walter Taylor and family. Johnson has a store building under construction here and is at Bend getting shingles. Bill Titus returned last week from The Dalles where he was in the hospital. He is looking much better. Mrs. E. Van Lake, who has been away for some time, is expected home soon. Several of the settlers have been working on a new road from the Bend-Burns road one-half mile west of Imperial to the Lake county line.

PRINGLE FLATS

(Special to The Bulletin) PRINGLE FLATS, July 28.—The well drillers have arrived at the C. H. Genung homestead and are busy drilling.

The ladies on the west side of the warm spring have organized a club called the Ladies' Country Club. They met at Mrs. Robert Cunningham's July 23. The following officers were elected: Mrs. Cunningham, president; Mrs. Frank Carpenter, vice president; Mrs. Ernest Nelson, secretary and treasurer. The next meeting will be at Mrs. C. A. Halsey's August 6. Warren Libby is quite busy haying this week. He has quite a crop at hay.

PRINGLE FLATS, July 28.—A. Palmer spent Sunday with his family. Horace Martin and wife left for Summit Prairie Sunday where they expect to remain until after harvest. Max Nelson left Monday for Bend on a business trip. Clyde Halsey left Sunday for Mitchell. Mr. Bingham is spending a few months on his claim. Mrs. Marion is spending a week at the home of Paul Hield. A heavy rain Thursday evening washed out some of the gardens up the hillsides. Richard Stevenson is speedily recovering from a broken foot received some time ago. Mrs. Kennedy entertained the Embroidery Club at her home Thursday.

WEEKLY MARKET REPORT. NORTH PORTLAND, Aug. 2.—Receipts for the week have been as follows: Cattle 1887, calves 215, hogs 2479; sheep 4862; horses 4. Heavy receipts of cattle and the fact that the best stuff was not offering caused the market to decline 25c to 50c. One extra choice lot of cows brought 7.50c, but good cows are selling around 6.75c and 7c. The hog market has dropped from 10c to 9.70c for the best light sows. The sheep house was slow and draggy, with not many receipts. A general apathy exists in the sheep trade.
