

FARRIS CARRIES PHEASANTS

Game Birds and Salmon Make Long Auto Trip

(Harney County News.)

The shipment of China pheasants for Harney county spoken of in last week's News arrived yesterday by the H. G. Farris trucks from Bend and were accompanied by attaches of the state game warden's office...

A can of 500 young salmon also arrived and the vigorous little fellows were deposited in the Silvies river above the mill.

ELECTION ON BONDS CALLED

County Court Acts Favorably on Petitions.

PRINEVILLE, Sept. 17.—The County Court this morning acted on the petitions for an election on a $200,000 bond issue for road building presented yesterday, and called an election for the first Tuesday in November.

The court goes on record in writing that it will spend the biggest part of the regular road funds in improving east and west highways that are not included in the bond issue proposition.
