TARIFF THOUGHTS.

The Democratic tariff measure, shortly to become law in place of the Payne-Aldrich bill, suggests various ideas to the editorial mind. Fathered as it has been by the present Democratic majority, it was surely grandfathered by the Republican leaders of four years ago, for few things are more certain than that the Democrats are now in power because of their opponents' broken tariff promises. Taft's failure to protest against the betrayal of the people was the first thing to bring his strength and progressiveness in doubt. The suspicion of him that then budded soon came into full flower and last fall he and his party went down.

It seems equally certain that had the protected interests been less grasping four years ago they would not now find themselves so short of protection. Had a little weight been taken from the people, they would have given thanks and been contented; but when the burden was increased; their impulse was to throw the whole thing off. It is to be hoped that the protection of the past four years will be a pleasing memory to the "interests" in the competitive times to come.

And, finally, we come to the one thing that can now be urged in behalf of the men who passed the Aldrich bill. They started the income tax amendment. How pleasing it must be to them to think that not only did they bring the reduction of duties upon themselves, but that they made reductions possible by providing the income tax to supply the losses in revenue.

JACKSON COUNTY'S ACTION.

The action of Jackson county last week in voting a $500,000 bond issue by a three to one vote is a notable event in Oregon's good roads history. That the officers of Jackson county had the good sense to turn the utilization of the money arising from the bond sale over to the State Highway Commissioner's office is a further admirable example.

To the people of Crook county the precedent set by Jackson county is important. It is an instructive object lesson. The people of Jackson county voted, by an overwhelming majority, to issue a large bond for the construction of a very small amount of road—only 50 miles. That is, they realize that while the direct presence of the new road will "benefit" but a comparatively small area and a small population, its real benefits to the people of the entire county, equally including those somewhat remote from the road itself, are enormous. Jackson county believes that in a few years the total amount of the investment will be returned through the benefits of increased business brought to it by this one short stretch of highway.

Crook county is proposing a $200,000 bond issue. It is to be used for the construction of 200 miles of road. The State Highway Commissioner already has passed upon the feasibility of the project, and even gone out of his way to urge its advisability. It is sincerely to be hoped that the tax payers of this county will take to heart the action of Jackson county, and see from it the vital importance and the manifold benefits of passing our bond issue.

When a reader wants sixty days time to pay his subscription to The Bulletin anyone will admit that the Democratic tariff is to blame for hard times. Be that as it may, the following communication from an old patron is unique. He writes: "Dear old friend. Stop your being and Quit a coming or Wait 60 days for the 1 1/2 plunks." Under the circumstances we have assured him that while we can't altogether "stop being" neither are we willing to "Quit a coming." The sixty days time is yours for the asking, friend—and no interest on the 1 1/2 plunks.

The "Devil's Graveyard."

A cemetery known as the "Devil's Graveyard," on top of a rocky hill overlooking Slon, Switzerland, where for centuries were buried sorcerers and sorceresses, is being blasted away to make room for public improvements. From the tenth century to the early seventeenth those supposed to be in traffic with the evil one were tortured, executed and buried there. The excavators have found bones estimated to be those of many hundreds of persons.

Still He Had It.

A certain physician told some of his patients that as long as they kept their feet and legs dry they would be safe from an attack of the grip. One day he was surprised to receive a letter from a patient in which the latter said that he had two wooden legs and yet he had had the grip for five consecutive years.—Philadelphia Ledger.

Explaining It.

Jones (just introduced)—I suppose you don't remember me, but I was once a witness against your side in a certain trial, and I remember that you cross examined me with the greatest courtesy. The Lawyer—Is that so? Perhaps your testimony was not material.—Puck

The Eternal Feminine.

"Wimmen certainly ain't got no consistency."
"What's the matter, Mike?"
"Me wife chased me out wid a rolling pin this morning and then cried because I left home without kissing her goodby."—Pittsburgh Post.

BURNED BY EXPLOSION.

Amusing himself by putting powder in empty gasoline cans and setting it off, Lester Whitson, aged 29, found Sunday afternoon that the sport was highly exciting. Running out of fuses, he applied the match direct to the powder in the can and as a result was burned about the head and face, though not seriously, as it is not thought that his eyesight was injured. The Whitsons live in Kenwood and the accident occurred at the home there. The boy had been working for Jack Tansey on the Mutzig building.

MILK! MILK! MILK!

Good Milk! Pure Milk! Clean Milk!

WHO SAYS SO? ONE WHO KNOWS!
WHO KNOWS? ONE WHO IS PAID TO KNOW!
WHO PAYS HIM? THE STATE OF OREGON.

YES, MADAM, WE HAVE RECEIVED A VISIT FROM MR. TULLEY, SPECIAL INSPECTOR FROM THE OFFICE OF THE OREGON DAIRY AND FOOD COMMISSIONER, AND ARE HAPPY TO SAY THAT HE GAVE US A GOOD REPORT. WE DO NOT HAVE A PERFECT SCORE—FEW DO—BUT OUR AVERAGE COMES WITHIN TWO POINTS OF CERTIFIED DAIRIES OF PORTLAND. OUR SCORE FOR MILK HOUSE, CARE AND HANDLING OF MILK AND CLEANLINESS OF UTENSILS WAS NEARLY PERFECT. OUR FINAL SCORE WAS LOWERED BY NOT HAVING A STRICTLY MODERN, UP-TO-DATE BARN, SUCH AS IS NEEDED FOR A PERFECT SCORE. NOT EVEN SOME OF THE LARGE DAIRIES HAVE THEM.

WHAT WE WISH TO CALL YOUR ATTENTION TO IS OUR MILK. IT IS PURE AND CLEAN, MADAM. WE WERE NOT EXPECTING THE INSPECTOR, WE HAD MADE NO SPECIAL ARRANGEMENTS FOR HIS COMING. HE CAME WHILE WE WERE DOING OUR DAILY WORK AND FOUND CONDITIONS AS THEY WERE, AND ARE, DAY AFTER DAY. SO WE ARE SINCERE WHEN WE SAY THAT MILK IS

Good Milk! Pure Milk! Clean Milk!
