

To Our Friends and Patrons:

We will be open for business temporarily in the Johnson building (across from Thompson's Furniture Store) as soon as insurance is adjusted and new stock secured. We hope to merit a continuance of your patronage.

Patterson Drug Co.

The Rexall Store

We will occupy our former location as soon as new building can be completed.

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS

- V. A. Forbes went to Prineville today.
- J. M. Gore left this morning for Portland.
- W. D. Barnes of Laidlaw spent last night at the Bend Hotel.
- There will be services at the Catholic church Sunday at 10:30.
- J. H. Womandy is at Crescent overseeing the hauling of the hay crop.
- The Afternoon 500 Club's meeting this week is with Mrs. Corbett today.
- The 2-year-old son of Contractor J. J. Adams died Sunday in Portland.
- Walter Coombs made a trip to Portland this week, returning Monday.
- John T. Whistler of the Deschutes reclamation survey went to Portland Saturday morning.
- A shower was given at the home of Mrs. E. H. Post Friday night for Mrs. W. E. Parker.
- O. Laurgaard and family and William Schaller and wife were up from Laidlaw yesterday afternoon.
- A. C. Martin and J. R. Stein of the freight department of the O.-W. R. & N. are in town today.
- Water will be shut off in the Arnold canal October 15 for a month in order that repairs may be made.
- P. B. Dence and wife, who have been in Bend for the past few months, have returned to Hampton.
- Rev. B. F. Harper of Milton will preach at the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning and evening.
- Thomas Hawthorne of the Deschutes survey force, and wife, are in town today, guests at the Bend Hotel.
- C. W. Reed came in from Wells-ville, Mo., last week on business connected with the R. M. Smith Clothing Co.
- J. F. Arnold, until a few months ago a Bend resident, spent yesterday here. He is now located at Monroe, Ore.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Foss and children and Mrs. H. H. Harmon went to Prineville today to attend the fair.

Dorothy, the daughter of David Niswonger, has been seriously ill for some time but is reported better today.

Mrs. G. W. Arnold, who has been here for the summer, returned to Portland Saturday night to spend the winter.

Mrs. E. D. Wilson having moved to Portland, she has been succeeded by Mrs. Minnie Myrtle Brown as librarian.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ellis and Mrs. Potts have come to town for the winter and are at the Altamont for the present.

The school board has instructed Principal Shouse to see that all children entering school have been vaccinated.

Mr. and Mrs. George Cornwell of Washington, arrived in Bend a few days ago for a month's visit with relatives.

O. A. Thorson and family are living in the Rodsath tent on Bond street while repairs are being made at their home.

John Dubuis, an engineer representing the Desert Land Board, has been in the vicinity on official business for a week or so.

All the Bend teachers are in Prineville attending the institute, which closes today. School will reopen tomorrow at 9 o'clock.

Mrs. Emma Drake Wilson and daughter-in-law, Mrs. Anna Wilson, left Saturday night for Portland where the former's son is ill.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Lockwood, who left Bend a year ago, came in Friday from Los Angeles, in their auto, registering at the Altamont.

Examinations for the position of assistant forest ranger, paying $1100 a year, will be held at Bend and Prineville on October 21 and 22.

The monthly business meeting of the Methodist Ladies' Aid Society will be held next Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. A. Vonderheist.

L. E. Swift of Seattle, who is interested in the Patterson Drug Co., came in Monday morning with Mr. and Mrs. Patterson, who had been to Portland.

Special Dairy and Food Inspector Tulley was here from Portland Friday and stated that he found the dairies and markets here in splendid condition.

D. H. Yeomans brought in Saturday from his ranch near town a 11 1/2 pound winter radish and a 9 1/2 pound turnip and placed them on display at a real estate office.

Owing to the absence of some of the players at Prineville this week, there will be no band rehearsals. The regular concert on the Drake lawn will be held next Sunday.

George Schroeder of Weyerhaeuser, Wisconsin, recently arrived to make his home in Bend. Mr. Schroeder is a contractor and builder and will engage in his business here.

C. C. Everett, clerk in the local forestry office, has sent in his resignation effective October 1 and will return to Seattle, from which city he came to Bend two years ago.

H. J. Overturf returned last week from Portland. His little daughter is reported some better in the lower altitude and it is probable that Mrs. Overturf will remain there for some time.

Max Richardson left Monday morning for Walla Walla, Wash., to reenter Whitman College. His brother Lyle will not go back this fall, being now employed near Tacoma.

Sheriff Frank Elkins, Deputy Prosecuting Attorney Willard Wirtz,

BEND THEATRE

WEDNESDAY Sands of Time Spring of Life Tightwad's Predicament Sisters All
THURSDAY Power of a Camera Delivery Package Moose and the Lion Rastus Loses His Elephant Death Head Malt
FRIDAY A $20,000 Corot Kathleen Mavourneen Birthday Gift According to Advice
SATURDAY Ex-Convict Bellinda the Slavey Honor System
SUNDAY Wonderful Statue Answered Prayer Celery Industry in Florida Bronco Billy's Sister
MONDAY Taree Reel Feature, "Notre Dame"

Assessor H. A. Foster, County Superintendent J. E. Myers and H. V. Haughman were over Friday from Prineville.

A cafeteria supper will be given Friday in the Millard Triplett building by the Methodist ladies, beginning at 5:20. Friday being "fish day," that article will be included in the food served.

D. A. Boyd came in Sunday night from Seattle. He denied the report current in Bend some months ago that he had bought the Marley-Simons stone building adjoining his on Greenwood avenue.

A Wild West show and exhibition of roping and bucking-horse riding will be given at the Womandy feed yard next Sunday at 2 o'clock by cowboys and cowgirls under the management of Emmett & Curtis.

Clyde McKay left yesterday morning for Spokane to attend the meetings of the Pacific Coast Logging Congress to be held there this week. J. P. Keyes plans to leave for the congress tomorrow morning. H. A. Miller may go with him.

Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Putnam and little son and Mrs. Edwin Binney left Monday morning in O. C. Henkle's car for Klamath Falls, to meet Mr. Binney who is returning from a trip to San Francisco. They will return by way of Crajer Lake.

In Justice Eastes' court Monday afternoon was heard a suit brought by Mrs. Louise Fleming against H. J. Overturf to collect $74.18 alleged to be due her. A counter claim for $29 for lumber was made by Mr. Overturf. The court settled the matter by disallowing both claims. The plaintiff was taxed with the costs. V. A. Forbes represented Overturf and Rosa Farnham, Mrs. Fleming.

M. B. Shickley, an electrical engineer, who has lately located in Bend, left last week on a trip to Denver, Colo., and other points in the middle west. He will attend a meeting of electrical engineers at Denver, visit relatives in northern Wyoming, and it is understood that he will not return alone as he has just completed a nice little bungalow home in Aubrey Heights. Mr. Shickley will open an electrical contracting supply and repair business about October 15.

Madras Section Hand Implicates Two Others and All Are in Jail. (Special to The Bulletin.)

PRINEVILLE, Sept. 23.—E. R. Huntington and William Booth, charged with larceny by stealing a sheep, and John Sweeten, section boss, charged with receiving a portion of the sheep, knowing the same to have been stolen, were placed under arrest Monday by Sheriff Elkins and lodged in the county jail.

Huntington made a complete confession implicating the other two men. He and Booth were section hands under Sweeten, employed by the O.-W. R. & N. with headquarters at Madras. The sheep was taken from the yards at night after having been brought in for shipment to the Portland stockyards.

WEDDED AT KNOTTS HOME
Bride Comes from Portland and is Claimed by Man of Her Choice.

At the home of the groom's parents five miles from town on the road to Burns, Ivan Knotts and Miss Lois L. Garrison were united in marriage on Tuesday evening, September 15. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. G. Judd of the Baptist church.

Only a few friends of the contracting parties witnessed the nuptials. Mr. Knotts is a son of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Knotts. The bride is from Portland, having arrived in Bend two days before the wedding was celebrated. It is understood that the couple will make their home on Mr. Knotts' homestead in the Hampton country.

Hot rolls and bread at the American Bakery every afternoon at 5 o'clock. New store on Wall street 1044

DAMES AND DAUGHTERS.

Miss Mary Terry of Chicago weighs 200 pounds.

Mrs. Eleanor Wheeler of Chicago has celebrated her one hundredth birthday.

Mrs. William Foote, daughter of General Baldwin of Denver, was the first white child born on the Santa Fe trail.

Mrs. Rebecca Karp of Brooklyn for twenty-two years has sold newspapers for a living and has accumulated a fortune of $25,000 in the business.

Countess Lamsdorf of St. Petersburg claims to have attended 1,100 balls and to have danced steps equivalent to 15,000 miles. Think she has set a record.

Miss Kate Daffin is superintendent of the Confederate Woman's Home at Austin, Tex., and is also state president of the Daughters of the Confederacy. Miss Daffin is a brilliant lecturer of literary ability, and has been president of the Texas Woman's Press association.

Pen, Chisel and Brush.

G. K. Chesterton, the famous English writer, is still on the sunny side of forty.

Karl Theodore F. Bitter, who designed the Thomas Jefferson statue, as part of the Jefferson memorial, which has recently been dedicated in St. Louis to commemorate the statesman, and also the acquisition of the Louisiana Purchase, is a native of Vienna, but since 1859 has resided in this country.

Mr. John Tenniel, the greatest of English political cartoonists, is now in his ninety-fourth year and despite his great age is in good health. He joined the staff of Punch in 1851, retiring in 1901. Though probably most widely known for his political cartoons, he won undying fame by illustrating the "Alice" books and "Lalla Rookh."

Mr. John Tenniel, the greatest of English political cartoonists, is now in his ninety-fourth year and despite his great age is in good health. He joined the staff of Punch in 1851, retiring in 1901. Though probably most widely known for his political cartoons, he won undying fame by illustrating the "Alice" books and "Lalla Rookh."

Mr. John Tenniel, the greatest of English political cartoonists, is now in his ninety-fourth year and despite his great age is in good health. He joined the staff of Punch in 1851, retiring in 1901. Though probably most widely known for his political cartoons, he won undying fame by illustrating the "Alice" books and "Lalla Rookh."

Pert Personals.

A physician states that Caruso has musical bones. He ought to have. He gets five of them from every person who buys a seat.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Wizard Edison's success makes him a pattern to emulate, but his habit of working twenty hours a day makes him a horrible example. So there you are!—Chicago News.

Now that women are to vote in Illinois Uncle Joe Cannon says, "It will be a good time for an awfully handsome man to run for office." Uncle Joe has not yet announced his candidacy.—New York World.

Poets Laureate.

Poets laureate, however, appear to be made and not born.—Omaha World-Herald.

A lot of England's poets are now trying to assume an air of nonchalant indifference.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

If Rudyard Kipling becomes poet laureate England will at least have an official poet whose stuff is read.—Detroit Free Press.

The poet laureateship is now vacant and England is understood to be looking around for some nice man who can't write very good poetry.—Ohio State Journal.

Fashion Frills.

Some critics seem to think that it is the province of the slit skirt to disclose the cloven hoof.—Chicago News.

Patience has enabled Dr. Mary Walker to see the day when her ideas of feminine attire are regarded as comparatively subdued and conservative.—Washington Star.

Indianapolis "ladies" have asked the police to see that "women" who wear split skirts also wear trimmings about their ankles. And the police have agreed to keep their eyes open.—Chicago Inter Ocean.

Militant Suffragettes.

Woman's sphere in London is the bomb.—Columbia State.

In the old days England used to burn the witches, but now witches are trying to burn England.—Charleston News and Courier.

A retaliation league has been formed in England to attack the houses and properties of the suffragettes in retaliation for militant outrages. Wait for the big show!—Indianapolis News.

Timely Tips.

Signs of the times: Come on in, the water's fine.—Chicago Record-Herald.

The dancing teachers are seeking new steps. Let us hope they will find them. It's about time to shake the old ones.—New Orleans Picayune.

How to tell the flowers from the weeds: Pull them up by the roots. If they are flowers that will be the last of 'em, if weeds, only the beginning.—Chicago News.

Three Strikes.

Europe would be still more disquieted if it had two baseball pennants to worry about.—Chicago News.

"Is the race improving?" asks the Cincinnati Enquirer. Not to speak of, according to Frank Chance.—Columbia State.

"Where are all the great men?" somebody asks. Well, Walter Johnson is with Washington, Ty Cobb stars with the Detroit and Hans Wagner plays the short field for Pittsburgh.—Toledo Blade.

These frosty mornings

you'll need an extra Blanket or Comfort. Our stock is complete and we urge you to make an early selection.

- Cotton Blankets - - 75c to $3.00
- Woolnap Blankets $2.50 and $3.00
- Wool Mixed - - $3.50 to $6.00
- All Wool - - - $5.00 to $10.50

A new stock of OUTING FLANNELS in desirable patterns at 8 1/2c, 10c, 12 1/2c

You can be assured that you are buying the best blanket line on the Coast—the past has demonstrated that you can "Dependon" our merchandise.

Mannheimer's

"The Store for All the People."

YOU WILL FIND US on the corner opposite Mannheimer's. We are still selling Groceries in the good old-fashioned way—"Live and Let Live Prices"—BERT SHUEY, THE CASH GROCER.

RESOLVED THAT WE HAVE BUILT OUR BUSINESS BY-DOING BUSINESS ON THE LEVEL. WE WANT YOUR TRADE AND WE CAN KEEP IT IF YOU WILL COME TO US JUST ONCE

A DOLLAR SAVED IS A DOLLAR MADE

WE CAN'T BE ON THE LEVEL AND SELL POOR TOOLS.

BE ON THE LEVEL WITH YOURSELF, YOU CAN'T AFFORD TO BUY POOR TOOLS.

OUR POLICY HAS ALWAYS BEEN, THE BEST IS THE CHEAPEST IN THE END.

WE WANT YOUR BUSINESS, WE WANT YOUR CONFIDENCE AND WE WANT YOUR GOOD WILL. COME TO SEE US.

THE SQUARE DEAL IS OUR KIND OF A DEAL.

Skuse Hardware Company

We will give a $5 casting rod for the largest trout caught this season.

FALL TIME IS HEATER TIME

See my line of heaters before deciding.

$3.00 to $16.00

Also Carpets, Rugs and Linoleums

- Good Ingrain Carpet..... 55c Per Yd.
- All Wool Ingrain Carpet... 85c Per Yd.
- Axminster Rugs..... $1.50 to $27.50
- Ringwalts' Linoleum, guaranteed not to buckle, at Six Bits Per Yd.

E. M. THOMPSON

Where Your Dollar Does Its Duty.