POWELSON EXHIBIT FINE

Only Representation From Bend at County Fair Wins Praise.

While Bend was little represented at the county fair held last week at Prineville, either so far as attendance or exhibits were concerned, according to Sam Collins and others who were there, a local exhibit was the best seen. The display was the showing made by Mrs. Florence Powelson of decorated china and porcelain. Although Mrs. Powelson has not yet received official notification of the fact, friends who were in Prineville last week have told her that her exhibit was covered with blue ribbons. It consisted of a Japanese tea set and a general collection of decorated pieces, including iris vases, satsuma bowls, plates, caps and saucers. Mrs. Powelson will have the exhibit on display in her Wall street window on its return from Prineville.

Through unfortunate lack of interest here, Bend, the largest town in the county, was without representation, with the exception of the excellent exhibit referred to above. Local people somewhat blame this to the fact that the management never saw fit to make any personal visitation to this portion of the county, while more than one letter regarding fair matters, going from Bend, never received a reply.

CORN HAS DONE WELL

Quarter Acre Grows on Jones Dairy Ranch This Year.

In an effort to show that corn could be made a satisfactory crop in Central Oregon, the O. W. R. & N. Co. last spring distributed a large number of packages of seed to be planted according to the directions of the road's experts. Among these was a packet left with George A. Jones of the Jones Dairy by "Farmer" Smith when he was here in June, on which Mr. Jones is just reporting. He planted a quarter acre according to directions, making the hills 42 inches apart each way, and although the season was well advanced when the seed was put in the ground, the corn reached a good height and made fodder for the cows at the dairy. The family had a few messes of green corn, also from the patch. Mr. Jones says that next year he will plant several acres to corn.

NOTICE TO ODD FELLOWS.

Next Monday evening there will be work in the initiatory degree. All lodge members are urged to attend and visiting brothers will be welcomed.

By Order of Noble Grand,

ANOTHER RESIDENCE PLANNED

R. B. Gould Will Build Home in Pinelyn Park.

Another residence will be erected in Pinelyn Park, just across the river. R. B. Gould, who purchased lots there, will erect a handsome bungalow immediately, facing the river about opposite the Boy Scouts lodge. The house probably will be of six rooms and will cost about $2500.

The R. W. Sawyers moved into their home Saturday and the work of laying some 1200 feet of water main, connecting with the Kenwood system, has been completed, affording water service for the Pinelyn lots. The Bend Water Light & Power Co. has installed electric service.

TWO-BIT MEALS NO MORE

Bachelors Balk at Cost of High Living and Contemptible Matrimony.

No more will the two-bit meal, that welcome economy of the hungry bachelor, be found in Bend. At least, the restaurants have served notice on their patrons to the effect that hereafter a quarter will be spurned in payment for a meal, and that 35 cents will be the gastronomic minimum.

Whence, it is rumored that this added burden to the high cost of living, or the cost of high living, will drive still more bachelors to matrimony. For several have figured it out that it will be cheaper to enjoy love in a cottage and pay the grocers' and butchers' bills, and perhaps their rent, than to continue in their single blessedness at 35 cents a feed.

WEATHER FOR SEPTEMBER

Month Shows Many Variations in Temperature.

The September weather showed a lingering after the warmth of the summer and a foretaste of the colder days of winter to come. The warmest day showed a temperature of 89 1/2, while the lowest mark of the month was 21 on the night of the 23d. The mean maximum for the month was 73 1/2 and the mean minimum 54 1/2. There was little rain, only .15 of an inch in the 30 days, and there were 23 clear days, with 4 only partly cloudy. Killing frosts occurred on seven nights, the first of the season.

The following are the temperatures for each day.

GIVES BOOKS TO LIBRARY

Mrs. Wilson Adds More Than 40 to the Collection.

The public library has been presented with 40-odd books by Mrs. E. D. Wilson, these being given by her before she left for Portland. Mrs. Wilson was for five years librarian here and rendered faithful and efficient service. The following is the list of books donated:
 Stoddard's "Scene America,"
 Craig's "Great African Traveler,"
 Cox's "Meddlesome Peter,"
 Carlston's "One Way Out,"
 Corelli's "Thelma,"
 Neill's "Three Little Pigs,"
 Maitland's "Boy Scouts on the Trail," Bliss' "Turkey and the Armenian Atrocities, Birdhall's "Famous Authors," Halstead's "Full Official History of War With Spain," works of George Eliot (3 vols), Longfellow's "The Courtship of Miles Standish," Sewell's "Black Beauty," Jaynes' "Lost in the Wilderness," Patten's "Great Short Stories," Sienkiewicz's "With Fire and Sword," Lane's "Nancy Starr," Lyall's "A Hardy Norseman" and "Knight Errant," Carey's "Nellie's Memories," Porter's "Thaddeus of Warsaw," and "Scottish Chiefs," Tompkins' "Doctor Ellen," Wright's "Millions Too Much," Twain's "The American Claimant," Stevenson's "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde," Hawthorne's "The Scarlet Letter," Auerbach's "On the Heights," Doyle's "A Study in Scarlet," Blanchard's "Mabel's Mishap," Carey's "Lover or Friend," Cooper's "The Deerslayer," Dumas' "Edmond Dantes," Kingsley's "Hypatia," Hughes' "Tom Brown's Schooldays," Chalmers' "Diana Tempest," Moore's "Evelyn Innes," Lytton's "Rienzi," "The Last Days of Pompeii," "The Last of the Barons" (2 vols), "Harold the Last of the Saxon Kings" (2 vols).

Fifteen new books, mostly fiction, have been ordered by the library.

RESIGNED IN DRY SPELL.

Thomas H. Lyons, who was chief of police here five years ago, is back in town. Mr. Lyons has been working with the U. S. Reclamation Service most recently at North Yakima, Wash. When the county went dry in 1908, Mr. Lyons handed in his resignation as chief, to take effect at midnight of July 1, when the prohibition law took effect. Since then he has not been in Bend.

TAX PAYING TIME AGAIN

Second Half Becomes Delinquent After Saturday.

Tax paying time—those "melancholy days, the saddest of the year"—is here again. Sheriff Elkins announces that the second half of the total amount is due next Saturday and if not paid by that date the deferred portion becomes delinquent from the 1st of April and there attaches to it a penalty of 10 per cent and 1 per cent per month interest from the first of April until paid.

The delinquent tax list is being published now and occupies more than five full pages in the Crook County Journal of Prineville. There is a much smaller number of names of property owners from Bend this year than in 1912.
