

COUNTY COURT PROCEEDINGS

An adjourned term of County Court convened at 3 o'clock p. m. on Saturday, October 12th, 1913. Present: G. Springer, Judge, presiding; R. H. Bayley, Commissioner; Frank Elkins, Sheriff; Warren Brown, County Clerk.

Whereupon the following proceedings were had, to-wit: Petition for a liquor election in McCall, granted. Ordered that W. J. Smith, C. G. Keeler and A. J. McKenzie be appointed judges; L. E. St. John, John Ward and W. L. Forsyth clerks of election, A. J. McKenzie being chairman.

In the matter of the request for additional assistance for Helen Burdett, the same was granted.

In the matter of the painting of the court house, same was referred to the county judge.

In the matter of the petition of W. C. Conkleton et al in the matter of re-establishment of an old road, same was referred to the county surveyor.

In the matter of the Hillman road district, No. 34, the resignation of John Helfrich as road supervisor received and accepted and George Hamilton appointed to succeed said Helfrich. Clerk requested to forward the necessary blanks for reports, bond, etc.

In the matter of pensions for widows: Sarah E. Selvester allowed $10 per month; Mary Gilson allowed $10 per month; Abbie Wells allowed $12.50 per month. Petition of Jessie Jones denied for reason that she is a non-resident.

In the matter of the road bond election, the district attorney requested to draw the necessary orders.

In the matter of bills for bridges and culverts over private ditches, the clerk is instructed to hand copies of the same to the district attorney for collection.

BEND SCHOOL NOTES

A short program was given Friday afternoon for the benefit of the high school students. The following took part: Mrs. Montelle Coe, song; Margaret Schreder, recitation; Claud Kelley, oration.

Current events were discussed on Tuesday morning.

The boys' basketball team and the girls' team played Tuesday afternoon on the grounds donated by Mike McGrath. The score was 8 to 5 in favor of the boys.

Alice Howard has entered Miss Trautner's room. She is from Seattle.

CLOVERDALE

Cyrus are also reported to be on the sick list.

Floyd Grube started to school last Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Kline have returned from their trip to Idaho.

Mrs. Sterlie Fryrear is visiting her mother at Redmond.

BEND R. F. D.

(Special to The Bulletin)

BEND R. F. D., Oct. 14.—A surprise party was given by Mrs. George Erickson in honor of her husband, at the Grange hall Saturday night. A literary program was given and dancing was indulged in until quite late. A large crowd was present and a very enjoyable time was had.

Williams handles has sold his 80 acres, together with all stock and machinery, to E. D. Havemann, who lives east of Bend.

H. E. Stewart has purchased the Jessie Houghton place.

Miss Anna Heebe spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Bragg.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Dutt called on Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Barto and other neighbors Sunday.

MILLICAN

(Special to The Bulletin)

MILLICAN, Oct. 14.—Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McAdow drove in to Bend on Friday, returning Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith have taken up residence on their claim here.

Mrs. Ada B. Millican has arrived home from Hood River where she attended the convention of state women's clubs.

The Sko-ke-leek Klub met with Mrs. Charlotte Beatson Thursday, a very pleasant afternoon being spent. Peaches, cream and cake were served. The next meeting of the club will be at the home of Mrs. Mary E. Davis on October 23.

B. E. Davis and son John have taken the contract to dig a well for A. A. Gilmore.

Louis Hall has filed on a homestead here and intends to establish residence in the near future.

Mr. Remms is building a large addition to his home and will have a good sized tavern when completed.

P. H. Johnson came home Sunday from Bend with a large supply of groceries for his store.

A. D. Norton has brought out a load of lumber for the new school house.

LA PINE

(Special to The Bulletin)

LA PINE, Oct. 6.—The Commercial Club gave a dance last Saturday night in honor of the newlyweds. It was well attended.

Mrs. Duke is rapidly recovering from the injuries she sustained from the fall she had a short time ago.

Mrs. Tom Parker and son are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Jake Howard. J. S. Bogue had another sick spell the latter part of last week but is around again. Mrs. Ritchie is staying with Miss Mary Bogue during the absence of her mother.

Mr. Croft has moved into the Frank Bogue place in Rosland.

Melvin Raper has had another serious setback but is doing better at last report.

Miss Emmaline Mead visited at Fort Rock the last of the week.

The boys working on the Pringle Falls project attended the dance Saturday night.

Claude Clow is hauling lumber from the Morson mill with which to build a house on the old Bogue homestead.

Mrs. J. J. Stevenson is down sick with the grip.

Mr. and Mrs. Chris Anderson have moved back to the homestead after having been up on Mr. Granger's place for a couple of months, where Mr. Anderson has been clearing land with Glenn Howard.

William Everingham sold eight cows to Clow & Sladek last week. They have just received a registered Duroc Jersey sow and intend to go into the hog business along with the dairymen.

LA PINE, Oct. 14.—George and Mike Mayfield shipped a bunch of cattle to Portland last week. George returned Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Parker are making arrangements to move on the Pratt place. Tom will have charge of it.

R. E. Gates, who has been working in La Pine for the past couple of months, has gone to Campbell, Cal., near San Jose, where he will spend the winter, returning to La Pine in the spring.

G. W. Shriner and John Rile, the deputy game wardens who are marking the game reserve, are having a little snow each night. They are trying to get the west and south lines posted before the snow gets too bad so that they will be able to complete the boundary this fall. The east and north lines can be worked out during the late fall as the snow is not likely to bother in those regions.

Mrs. Raper is visiting with Mrs. J. Frank Bogue on the Bogue homestead.

A slight snow has fallen for the past three nights but has all disappeared each morning by 8:30.

POWELL BUTTE

(Special to The Bulletin)

POWELL BUTTE, Oct. 13.—Carpenter work was completed on the Guy Sears residence Wednesday. Mr. Sears now has a commodious farm house second to none in this section. The work was done by contract by N. P. Alley, which is a guarantee of first class work.

Mrs. Joe Shearer is entertaining her mother and grandmother, Mrs. Charles Grewler of Bend and Mrs. Mary Grewler of Portland. The three ladies and little Ruth Shearer went to Lamona Thursday where they visited several days, the guests of relatives.

John Rohde has been suffering with an attack of rheumatism for the past two weeks. He is staying with his brother, A. H. Rohde.

M. K. Uhlan of Minnesota, who owns 80 acres of land in these parts, has written friends that he is willing to give one half acre in the northeast corner of his tract of land to be used for a school house site. This is an admirable location for a school and his offer will no doubt be accepted with gratitude by the patrons of district 30.

Mrs. McPherson and mother, Mrs. Jones, were visitors at Cline Falls last week.

Mrs. C. H. Charlton and sons of Prineville came out the latter part of the week to assist Mr. Charlton in the potato harvest. They returned to Prineville Saturday morning.

Mrs. A. W. Bayn visited in Prineville a couple of days the past week, the guest of her daughters, Miss Gladys and Hazel Bayn.

Clark Morse was a business visitor to Sisters last week.

J. L. Foster and daughter, Miss

Phoebe, of Cline Falls were visitors at the Montgomery home Saturday.

Jesse Beckman and Ralph Jones, two Crook County High School boys, visited home folks the latter part of the week, returning to Prineville Sunday.

U. N. Hoffman, managing editor of The Bend Bulletin, was a Powell Butte visitor several days the past week. Mr. Hoffman was on a getting-acquainted tour and was also collecting material for a special edition of The Bulletin which will contain a Powell Butte supplement with no end of advertising for our lands and people. While here Mr. Hoffman was a guest of Allen Willcoxon.

Rev. Ragan of Redmond held religious services at Shepard school house Sunday. A large crowd was in attendance.

The threshing season for 1913 in this locality is at an end. Foster Bros., who own and operate the thresher for this neck of the woods, commenced their fall run on August 25 and since that time have been running continuously except Sundays, threshing the last setting on their place Monday. At no time were they out of the Powell Butte section, a fact which should give the reader some idea of the extent of the valley. The Fosters report the yield as considerably better than was anticipated earlier in the season. There is not the amount of grain in the country this year as last, however.

W. G. and Ed Mustard started on a hunting trip Sunday. They expect to be gone a week or more and are headed for the mountains via Bear Creek Buttes. No doubt game will be less plentiful when these hunters start home.

Norris Spencer was a Prineville visitor Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Donlavy of Cline Falls were Sunday visitors at the G. C. Truesdale home.

Mrs. N. B. Golden visited Mrs. S. D. Mustard Monday.

There is not an idle man in this whole section nowadays, with the putting up of the third cutting of hay which was delayed by recent rains, hauling grain to market and harvesting the big potato crop there is work for all and then some.

POWELL BUTTE, Oct. 14.—Died, Sunday, Oct. 13, Kingdon Gilson, the 6-month-old baby of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Foster. Interment will be made in Prineville.
