

Paint Keeps the Home Bright

A LITTLE paint here, a touch of enamel there, a brushful of varnish yonder—everyone can see a dozen or more such opportunities for brightening and beautifying the home.

Perhaps it's the outside of the house that needs protection from the ravages of the weather; perhaps it's a chair, or dresser, the floor or wood-work that has become worn and shabby, or perhaps it's the family carriage, the farm wagon or the lawn swing that has ceased to be a source of pride.

A DEMONSTRATED FARMER.

The Springer letter was a blatant effort to "get from under" all adverse criticisms for the miserable showing Crook county made in the demonstration farms matter. It seems to have been taken at par by many of the papers. Some of the headlines boldly announced "College to Blame."

The facts set forth elsewhere in this paper, and the statement from the O. A. C., show pretty conclusively exactly who is at fault. They knock the props from under Mr. Springer's crude attempt to discredit Oregon's splendid institution and its most creditable work in this county.

Mr. Springer barked up the wrong tree. The O. A. C. is too big, and its accomplishments are too well appreciated, for mud slinging from a man like Mr. Springer to injure it.

The Bulletin owes an apology—and offers one—to its readers for burdening them with more material concerning Crook county's extraordinary judge. But common justice demands a full statement of the facts in this case—and justice to the O. A. C. and the farmers of Crook county demands that the other papers which printed the Springer letter give equal publicity to the facts set forth in our news columns.

That Mr. Springer really wants the demonstration work continued, as he intimates in his desire, we sincerely doubt. His past actions in the premises discredit the supposition. He fought the good roads movement, then switched to it, and finally wrecked it. With that record, and his other official acts as a recommendation, who can take his protestations of sanity and progressiveness seriously?

The letter which the Bend Water, Light & Power Co. is sending out to some 1500 wool manufacturers throughout the United States, and which is reproduced in this issue as an advertisement, is one worthy of comment. It is possible that no direct results will come from it. However, for a corporation in a town of this size to take the lead in such a species of publicity and progressive town-business getting is an example which cannot fail to attract most favorable attention for Bend and spread its reputation as a community worth watching.

LATE LAIDLAW HAPPENINGS.

LAIDLAW, Oct. 28.—Mr. and Mrs. Fred N. Wallace entertained Mrs. Byron Cady and Mrs. J. J. Coen Friday afternoon with a visit to the Redmond Potato Show. The trip was in Jess Harter's car.

W. E. Sandel was given a surprise party Wednesday evening, and everybody had a splendid time. The ladies took cake and sandwiches, candy and cream and made coffee. E. H. Bayley brought his phonograph and a large dishpan full of records. The orchestra consisted of Frederick Nathaniel Wallace and Betty Marie Coon, the selections being marvelously rendered. The instruments used were comb-onets. The object of the party was to teach the men to dance, and this object was gained.

William Norcott died of paralysis last Sunday, at the residence of his son Howard, at the advanced age of 92 years and 6 months. He was born in Richmondville, N. Y., in 1821. Four of his five children are living. His wife died 23 years ago, since which time he had made his home with his son Howard. He came to Crook county two years ago. A. O. Walker of Alfalfa conducted the funeral services at the residence of O. H. Norcott north of town. Interment was in the Odd Fellows cemetery.

Miss Crawford, who has been a missionary among the Kiowa Indians in Oklahoma for a number of years, will give an address in the Baptist church Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock. She will wear her Indian costume and give an interesting and instructive address. Miss Crawford is probably the most attractive and convincing speaker employed by the Baptist Woman's Mission Society. All the ladies of the different churches are invited. She will also give an address in the Baptist church next Sunday evening at the time of the regular service, which begins at 7:30.

INSTALLS NEW MACHINE.

With the installation of new machinery, the Deyarmond Machine & Repair Shop is now equipped to do anything in the machine line. Mr. Deyarmond has just added a shaper, a new emery stand and new trip hammer, this new equipment costing $700. Heretofore the shop has been handicapped by the lack of such machinery, but the growth of business has now justified purchasing it.

IN OLD LOCATION AGAIN.

A. L. French today completed the moving of his stock from the store he has occupied on Wall street to the new Mutsig building on Oregon street. The location is the same as that formerly occupied by Mr. French before the fire. Harry Wyse is also moving and will carry on his business in the small frame building in the rear of the new French store.

This victory was won in competition with exhibits from all over the world. The displays were chiefly products of Mr. Reuter's farm at Madras.

ANOTHER TELEPHONE LINE.

Bert Oney, assistant forest ranger, arrived in Bend Monday to take charge of a crew which will build a telephone line from Bend to the Tumalo ranger station where Mr. Oney is located. The forest service and the Deschutes Valley Fire Patrol Association are co-operating in the work.
