STATE PROJECT COSTS ARE LOW

"Tumalo crowd," from office men and engineers down to the water boys, is a mighty worth-while aggregation.

Detailed Progress. The following detailed information concerning progress on the work is courteously supplied from the project headquarters.

The average number of men now employed is 105, of which about 80 have their homes in the vicinity. To date some $76,000 has been expended for labor and about $80,000 for equipment and supplies. On November 12 the first shipment of flume material arrived and is being hauled out to the work by J. W. Shively of Redmond. A carload of cement from P. T. Crowe & Co., to complete structures already under way, was received on the same date and is being hauled by William Brown of Laidlaw, to the vicinity of camp 1 and camp 3.

Advertisements have been issued for the purchase of approximately 5000 barrels of cement, part of which will be used in the dam in the early part of the coming year. This order will aggregate about 40 minimum cars and delivery will be extended over a period of from two to three months, starting some time in December. Advertisements for the freightage of this cement have also been gotten out, as were also advertisements for hauling the metal flume which will weigh in the neighborhood of 400,000 pounds.

The engineering work on the subdivision, topographic and land classification of the project in the field is nearly completed and the engineering force will be reduced to some extent in a short time.

Fred N. Wallace, formerly connected with the water users' association, as manager, is now in the employ of the state and will look after operation and maintenance of that part of the project which will receive water next season.

Banking at Bend. The long talked of payroll system has been put into effect and the October time for all labor performed was paid by checks issued from this office over the signatures of the project engineer and chief clerk. These checks are all payable by the First National Bank of Bend, where all warrants received by the project engineer covering payroll payments are deposited.

During the latter part of September and the early part of October a number of ranchers, the Tumalo project and the county co-operated in the construction of a road from the Bend-Laidlaw bridge toward the headgate and now there is a very good road all the way to the top of the hill.

The trestle work for the flume in Tewksbury canyon has been completed and is now ready for stringing the steel flume. The flumes in Howard canyon are just about ready for the steel fluming and the cement work at both the intakes and outlets of these flumes has been completed.

At this time practically all the earth work on the feed canal has been excavated, leaving only the rock cut (James J. Adams' contract) and the hanging of the steel flume on the trestle work yet to be done.

The county bridge across the feed canal was completed the latter part of September, also the Joe Rock, H. S. Hutchins and P. H. Dencor contracts near camp 2, and on October 2 camp 2 was abandoned.

Alfalfa and Grain Hay Purchased. On November 14, 125 tons of alfalfa and grain hay were purchased from Chas. L. Wimer for the use of the state during the winter and until the hay crop comes on the market next year.

The work on the dam site consists of the operation of a Calyx drill outfit which is being used to test the foundation and furnish the data necessary for the board of consulting engineers, consisting of the project engineer, state engineer and one or two others who will be called some time next month, to decide as to whether or not the construction of a dam is feasible at that point, and if so the character of dam best adapted to the conditions as shown by the cores taken by the Calyx drill.

NEW PHONE LINE. Material has been sent in for a telephone line to be built from the Allingham ranger station, on the Metolius, to the Allen ranch, five miles down the river. This will be put in this fall, the forest service and Mr. Allen co-operating, and next year it will be extended down the river to the Warm Spring Indian reservation.

Stop the Loss====Fires are Unnecessary

Brick is absolutely fire proof in any ordinary conflagration. Brick Buildings never burn, although they are sometimes injured by falling timbers or combustible interior woodwork. A brick building is absolutely fire proof if wire glass is used in the windows and if burned clay floors are used. An interior fire in such a building is confined to the room in which it originates; no outside fire can attack it. The proportion of burned clay in a building construction measures its fire proof qualities. Burned clay is the only building material that has been through the fire before you get it, in such a manner that it will resist fire. All combustible material is burned out of the brick before you get it.

WHEN YOU BUILD USE BRICK.

Why Should Everyone Own a Home?

Because, the man who owns a home or is trying to pay for one bought on the installment plan makes a better citizen, and is entitled to more credit and respect than the one who has no home, nor is making the necessary effort to get one. A home speaks to the heart, enlists the sentiments, ennobles the possessor. If one buys right, he will know that his property is steadily increasing in value while he occupies it. This is especially true ANYWHERE IN BEND.

You can buy RIGHT from us because we have nearly every addition in town and can show you lots anywhere you might wish to look. Here is our list:

- Original Townsite of Bend
- Park Addition
- Lava Road Addition
- North Addition
- Riverside Addition
- Lytle
- Center Addition
- Bend Park
- First Addition to Bend Park
- Second Addition to Bend Park
- Boulevard Addition
