

WEATHER IN NOVEMBER.

Number of Cloudy Days Unusually Large.

Clear days in November, instead of being in the majority as in the preceding months, were fewer than either cloudy or partly cloudy, there being only six. Even with the partly cloudy days, of which there were eight, the days on which the sun showed were outnumbered by the cloudy days. The highest temperature for the month was 59, on the 16th, and the lowest 23, on the 4th. The mean minimum temperature was 48, the mean maximum 29 1/2, and the mean 38 1/2. With the cloudy days there was much rain, 1.39 inches falling in the whole month. Of this amount nearly one half fell on the 24th.

WEEKLY MARKET REPORT.

NORTH PORTLAND, Nov. 9.
Receipts for the week have been: Cattle 757, calves, 18, hogs, 4330, sheep 5144, horses 103.
Cattle market holding steady for top quality, with steers selling at $7.50 for best stuff. More medium grade cattle were offered than choice. Cow stuff was about the same grade of poor quality that has been offered for some time, selling from $4.50 to $5.75, with just one lot selling for 6 cents. Prime light calves are worth $9.00, heavy ones $6.00 to $7.75. Bulls featured from $5.50 to $6.25. Stags steady. A big run of hogs for the first of the week, but tops still held at 8 cents for three loads Monday and the week closed strong with fifteen loads for the open market and top quality still going at 8 cents and this price is apt to hold until stock show season. The show is billed December 8-13 and will attract shippers from the entire Northwest and is the largest show ever held west of the Rockies. Sheep receipts were increased from every northwest state this week, still the sum total was not exceptionally large, but what the run lacked in quantity it amply made up in quality. Prime ewes brought $4.00 again and choice wethers $4.75 to $5.00 for exceptional quality and lambs elicited a $6.00 bid with the market closing on a firm basis.
