

CRESCENT

With Jimmy Morrison to Crescent. Tom McCord, who has been trapping for several weeks near Crescent Lake, returned Saturday with a number of fine furs. George Mayfield spent several days in Crescent this week, returning to his ranch Wednesday accompanied by E. T. Rourke. Walter Smith, Tom McCord and E. T. Rourke spent several days hunting at Crescent the first of the week. Mrs. E. G. Rourke entertained a number of guests at turkey dinner last Wednesday, the occasion being her birthday. The dinner was thoroughly enjoyed and many happy returns were wished her. Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Jones were in from their ranch Friday. The Women's Civic League met Friday with Mrs. Hazel Smith, and the final preparations for the Christmas tree were made. After the business was disposed of, a delicious lunch was served. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Elmer Tyler.

POWELL BUTTE.

POWELL BUTTE, Dec. 22.—District road superintendent Willcox went to Prineville Tuesday. On his return he was accompanied by county Judge Springer, who came out to personally inspect the bridge across the old river bed. After looking over the situation the judge gave orders to have some concrete piers replace the old structure, which was much weakened by water. Miss Mabel Allen entertained the Sorosis at her home Wednesday. A most enjoyable time was had by the ladies. Seasonable quotations in answer to roll call were given. A Christmas grab bag into which each lady dropped her gift and drew out another proved a most popular innovation. Dinner was served by the hostess. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Forrest, the later the popular teacher of the Shepherd school, left Friday for South Bend, Wash., where they will visit a few days with Mrs. Forrest's parents, after which they will go to Bellingham for a visit with Mr. Forrest's parents, returning home in time to resume school duties. Mrs. George Beckman was a dinner guest at the Levi E. Trust home Friday. Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Warner entertained at dinner Thursday in honor of their first anniversary. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Karl Saunders and family. Ross Busselt and Miss Alma Johnson were married at the home of the former's parents in Hood River Saturday evening, Dec. 13. These young people are among the best and most favorably known in this section where every resident wishes them a long and prosperous wedded life. Upon their return they will take up their residence in the cottage recently built by the groom on his 40 acre farm. N. B. Golden went to Portland Wednesday where he will look over some property which is being offered him in a trade on his Powell Butte farm. Mrs. William Nanny of Deschutes was a guest at the Willcox home Thursday, returning home Friday. Mrs. Nanny, who is "some walker" made the greater part of the trip on foot. Clarke Morse was a Prineville visitor Friday where he attended the "Round the World" social at the Presbyterian church in the evening. Miss Gladys Bayn went to Prineville Saturday for a brief visit with her sister, Miss Hazel. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Roe, and daughter, Miss Ina Roe, of Pasco, Wash., were incoming passengers on Tuesday morning's train and will enjoy a visit with their daughter, Mrs. Allen Willcox and family. Friday was the last day of school at the C. C. H. S. previous to holiday vacation and Powell Butte girls and boys who are students of that school all flocked home to help home folks celebrate and enjoy their vacation to the fullest extent.

PRINEVILLE.

PRINEVILLE, Dec. 22.—County assessor H. A. Foster and Judge Springer have returned from meetings of assessors and county judges, held the past week at Salem and Portland, respectively. The remodeling of the basement of the court house is about completed, and Sheriff Eklin and Walter Master G. H. Brewster will move in the newly furnished offices about the first of the year. The K. P. lodge of Prineville gave a banquet Wednesday evening for their retiring chancellor commander Col. Draper, and commended him for his good administration in that office. During the festivities he was presented with a nice wedding gift, he having been married on Wednesday evening to Mrs. Mary Vanderpool. The K. P. lodge has been very active this fall and have initiated over 40 new members. Through the efforts of Dan Blood, secretary of the Commercial club, a large chorus of singers have been practicing Christmas carols, to be sung on the streets Christmas Eve. There are two new businesses in Prineville, that are very welcome. They are the Prineville Bakery and the Prineville Cigar Factory. Mr. Spallinger reports business flourishing. This is due to the high grades of dainties that he is making in his
