The first actual steps in the construction of a Central Oregon highway were taken this week with the letting of a contract for construction of a road between Biggs and Wasco, in Sherman county.

FARMERS' WAREHOUSE BURNS

Powell Butte People Heavy Losers in Fire at Redmond.

POWELL BUTTE, Feb. 10.—Fire early Friday morning destroyed the Farmers' Warehouse at Redmond, and Powell Butte people were heavy losers.

S. D. Mustard was the heaviest individual loser, with 800 sacks of potatoes, or half of his entire crop for last year.

It is estimated that 20 carloads or 4000 sacks in all were burned, and at least one-half of these belonged to Powell Butte people.

Mr. Lindquist has rented the Meyers place for the coming season. A number of Powell Butte people will attend the short course for farmers in Prineville this month.
