

COUNTY COURT PROCEEDINGS

In the matter of the wrongful assessment of W. C. Barber. It appearing that said W. C. Barber is assessed with certain personal property which he does not own, ordered that a rebate of $49.26 be allowed said Barber.

In the matter of the Newsom creek road. Resolution adopted and survey ordered out.

In the matter of A. McE. Hall, accountant. Ordered that the Judge write Mr. Hall to return to Prineville and go over the tax rolls for 1912 or to take up the same as far back as it appears necessary where the same has not been done and to audit all books of officers as far as appears necessary.

In the matter of a road fund. Ordered that $19,000 be set apart from the general fund to a road fund to meet the appropriations ordered for various roads, viz: Beaver and Bear Creek roads $15,000 (appropriated on the 3rd inst.) Redmond-Sanders $2,000 and Ashwood-Gateway $2,000 (appropriated on the 2nd inst.).

February 4th, 1914, court reconvened at 10 a. m.

In the matter of the old iron from the old Crooked river bridge. There being a lot of old iron left from the old Crooked river bridge and it appearing to be the best interests of the county so to do, ordered that the same be sold to Ed Harbin for $50, (estimated at five tons of iron) said $50 to be deducted from the bill pending in favor of said Harbin.

In the matter of petition for change in road district. Mrs. Delore petitions to have a certain road, viz: Prineville-Canyon City roads, or a portion beyond and leading east from her place about three and a half miles, transferred from the Five road district to the Paulina road district in order that the same may be worked, ordered that the county surveyor change the same on district map in accordance with said request.

In the matter of widows pensions. It appearing to the court that conditions have changed, it is ordered that the pension heretofore granted to Mrs. E. J. Marlon be discontinued.

In the matter of the claim of the City of Prineville against Crook county for certain road taxes. Said matter coming up for consideration ordered that the same be continued to allow for investigation of the same by the county and in order that the county attorney may look into the legal status of the same.

In the matter of the county printing. It appearing that the Crook County Journal has the largest circulation in Crook county, same is hereby designated as the official paper of said county for the year 1914, to print all proceedings of the court, the claims, advertisements, notices, reports of officers and agents and other county printing (except delinquent tax list) for $125, payable $21 at each regular term of court except the December term. That should the Bend Bulletin and Madras Pioneer agree to publish the same matter as hereinabove named, that they and each of them shall be paid $120, to be paid in equal installments of $20 as the payments above named are paid to the Crook County Journal. Each paper to obtain at their own expense the proceedings of the county court and print same in one and a complete and regular edition of the paper. In regard to the publication of the delinquent tax list, same is hereby continued. Adjournment.

REORGANIZATION OF FISH AND GAME DEPARTMENTS

Finley Ousted as Game Warden and Clanton As Fish Warden—Evans Becomes the New Game Warden

Effective March 1, the state game and fish department will be reorganized. In brief, here are the changes made by the commission:

W. L. Finley, who has been game warden, is made superintendent of the educational and biological department his salary being cut from $3100 to $2400 a year.

R. E. Clanton, who has been master fish warden, is made superintendent of hatcheries, his salary also being cut from $3100 to $2400 a year.

C. H. Evans, who has been a member of the commission, resigned to become state game warden to succeed Mr. Finley, his salary to be $2100.

Theodore Opsund, who has been chief clerk in the master fish warden's office, is made fish warden at a salary of $2100.

Mr. Finley will oversee the propagation and introduction of game and game birds and will look after the scientific and of the work.

Mr. Evans will look after the enforcement of all game laws and have supervision of the wardens.

Mr. Clanton will have charge of the state hatcheries.

Mr. Opsund will issue all commercial licenses and enforce all laws pertaining to the commercial fish industry and act as clerk of the commission.

It is stated in Salem dispatches that there is to be a general retrenchment in the expenses of the department, including a reduction in the number of deputy wardens throughout the state.

"CASTE" PRESENTED HERE

Play by Plainview People Proves to Be Popular Production.

An audience of about 60 people was well entertained by the play given at the Bend Theatre last Thursday evening by the Plainview Dramatic Club. For amateurs those taking part acquitted themselves with credit. The play, "Caste", has many interesting and amusing situations in it and there were plenty of things to make the audience laugh.

The part of villain and all-around drunkard was played by Robert Davis in an excellent manner. He acted with ease and imitated very closely the action of a tipsy man.

The following was the cast of characters:

Hon. Geo. D'Alroy... C. R. Powelson
 Capt. Mautree... Roy McCallister
 Eccles... Robt. Davis
 Sam Gerridge... John Lichtenstein
 Dixon... Robt. Davis
 Marquise de St. Maria
 ... Mrs. L. Pulliam
 Esther Eccles... Miss Violet McKinney
 Polly Eccles... Mrs. Bertha Gibson

MARKET REPORT.

NORTH PORTLAND, Feb. 14.—Receipts for the week have been cattle 1276, calves 3, hogs 2402, and sheep 6102. In the cattle division, bulk of the best grain fed steers offering sold from $7.70 to $7.85 and one brought $8.00. Not much choice hay fed stock was in evidence. Butcher cattle trade was firm only for cows of which there was a liberal showing. Best ones realized $6.50 to $6.75, with the usual discount on lesser grades. Bulls sold up to $5.69 and were unsteady. Receipts were large Monday, when more stuff arrived than the total for the other five days. Swine market not only maintained firmness but strengthened its position five to ten cents. Several hundred choice light hogs brought $8.60 during the first three days.

but the bulk was an $8.50 to $8.55 affair. Killers from all over the Northwest were in the Yards for hogs and business was extremely brisk. The close was steady to firm, $8.50 to $8.60. Sheep house transactions were confined mostly to Monday and Tuesday. Good grain weathers were scarce but a liberal offering of ewes selling from $3.50 to $4.75 according to quality prevented stagnation in the mutton department. Lamb market steady to stronger this week with best quality selling at $6.75 (off cars). Receipts not so large as a week ago.

should handle all of the co-operative work within the borders of each state. This commission should be composed of one prominent state official, such as the governor; some member of the federal government, either from the secretary of the interior's office, or the U. S. Reclamation Service; and a third member should be a man of technical training with proper qualifications for the work in hand and could be called a "Co-operative Officer." This Co-operative Officer could be appointed by the state with the approval of the federal government, act as secretary of the commission and transact all routine business for the commission. On matters of great importance or on matters of policy, the three commissioners could act, each having an equal voice in the proceedings. This would place all reports and all work in the hands of the commission and do away with confusion that might result should the officers have to report separately to the state and to the federal government. The Co-operative Officer should have absolute charge of all operations.

Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Willcoxon, Miss Ina Roe, Reeves Willcoxon, J. P. Doherty and J. A. Riggs attended the dance in Redmond Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Chapman entertained most delightfully at a Valentine card party at their home Saturday evening in honor of the latter's sister, Miss Poore, of Portland, who is visiting here. Hearts was the game claiming the attention of the guests until the midnight hour, when the hostess served most delectable refreshments, and outdoing her previous efforts along that line. Enjoying the Chapman hospitality were Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Van Doren, M. and Mrs. N. P. Alley, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Truesdale, Miss Mabel Allen, Miss Edna Morse, H. K. Allen, Charke Morse, and Miss Poore.

Mrs. Allen Willcoxon entertained at a dinner party Wednesday evening her guests being Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Young of Redmond, Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Hall, Mrs. Hall, Sr., and Mr. Shtrum. The guests passed a most enjoyable evening as is always the case when this popular young matron entertains.

Dr. J. F. Hosch of Redmond was a professional visitor out this way Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Skeln and Mrs. Renslow and children were dinner guests at the Truesdale home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Iverson entertained at dinner Sunday. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Rice and Mr. and Mrs. N. P. Alley and family.

J. P. Doherty was host to a jolly crowd Sunday when he extended his hospitality to a number of friends at dinner. J. P. has had extensive training along the culinary lines and provided a most excellent dinner. His guests were Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Roe, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Willcoxon, and daughter Harriet, Miss Ina Roe, and Reeves Willcoxon.

Members of the Powell Butte 25-cents announce to their friends here and elsewhere that they will serve a supper at the Wilson school house Friday from 5 to 8 o'clock p. m. There will also be a bazaar in connection where it will be possible to buy numerous articles of home manufacture at reasonable prices. Menu for supper is roast pork, preserved meats, vegetables, salads, baked beans and brown bread, sauer kraut and weinies, pickles, bread and butter.
