

COUNTY COURT PROCEEDINGS

County Superintendent; the following agreement was made:

We, the County Court, of Crook County, Oregon, have issued a warrant of $1200, for the purchase of a Buick automobile car No. 5097, Class B25, for J. E. Myers, County Superintendent, with the following conditions:

1. The above named J. E. Myers agrees to turn over his yearly traveling allowance and sufficient cash at the end of each year, December 31, 1914, December 31, 1915 and December 31, 1916, so as to make three annual payments of four hundred dollars each, or twelve hundred dollars in all, with interest at 6 per cent.

It is hereby understood that the county's equity in said car shall take precedence over any and all claims, until the above conditions are fully met.

(Signed.) G. Springer, R. H. Bayley, Willis W. Brown, J. E. Myers.

In the matter of the Wilson road; Allen Willcoxon, supervisor, bill of Edw. B. Williams for $13.00, for work on said road, allowed.

March 5, 1914. In the matter of grading certain county roads; the request of certain land owners in the Powell Rutte road district, No. 25, to grade the county roads adjoining their lands, they to bear half of the expense and the county the other half, granted.

The report of Water Master Geo. Brewster for the months of January and February, 1914, presented and ordered filed.

In the matter of Road District No. 11; Special report of S. F. Santeson, special supervisor in road district No. 11, in regard to supervising the subscription work on the Santeson road, presented and approved.

In the matter of Teacher's contract; on request of Superintendent Myers, ordered that said Superintendent have printed enough forms for Teacher's contracts to meet requirements.

In the matter of a rebate of taxes; the petition of Pinney of Malheur county, for a rebate on the taxes against his school land referred to the District Attorney.

In the matter of A. McE. Ball, experting the County Records; Advice of County Attorney—Duty of the Court to decide as to efficiency and keeping of present accounts. The suit on the delinquent taxes for 1907 must be brought before April 1st, 1914, but taxes on personal property must be collected within a reasonable time.

Judge Springer moved that the matter of discharging the experts be reconsidered, and the experts be allowed to report.

But motion lost. Mr. Brown and Mr. Bayley, opposing.

Request of Judge Springer to incorporate in minutes a written motion containing remarks—denied.

In the matter of wrongful assessment of Prineville Commercial Club; the taxes against the base ball park in the name of the Commercial Club being claimed as an illegal assessment, same was referred to the County Attorney.

In the matter of the rebate of a penalty on delinquent taxes; petition of J. N. Williamson for rebate on penalty on certain taxes for 1909, same being claimed unjustly charged; ordered that upon the filing of an affidavit by Mr. Williamson, a rebate of $38.82 1/2, being one half of the penalty, be granted.

In the matter of the appropriation for Beaver and Bear Creek roads; ordered that the Clerk draw two warrants in favor of D. F. Stewart for the sums of $10,000 and $5000 respectively, on the filing of a sufficient bond protecting the county and drawn by the County Attorney. County Attorney instructed to draw bond, and also order for warrants; bond drawn in the sum of $20,000, specifying that Mr. Stewart draw warrants at certain specified times and on rendering accurate accounts of work done and moneys expended.

The Court requested the Prineville Commercial Club, through its representative, W. F. King to draw up a plan of accounting for road work and present the same to this court.

In the matter of the E. T. Luthy and the J. A. Morris roads; the matter coming up for further consideration, the petitioners appearing by H. C. Ellis and T. E. J. Duffy appearing for the reconstitutors. Agreed in open court that the same decision should hold for both cases. Agreed as follows: that the roads may be granted according to the petitions as modified by the stipulations as entered in each matter; that the County Clerk be directed to furnish the viewers with a copy of said stipulations, and that the viewers view the E. T. Luthy road on April 8th, 1914 and the J. A. Morris road on April 19th, 1914. Said agreement being approved by the County Attorney.

In the matter of the D. H. Yeoman road; same coming up for further consideration, ordered that the viewers make a supplementary report at the May term of this Court. (See order.)

In the matter of a change in the M. M. Davenport road; ordered that the County Surveyor examine the proposed change and report at the May term of this Court.

In the matter of plats of Wiestoria Township and Kenwood Gardens Township; said plats being presented to the Court for approval and same appearing regular, ordered approved. (See order.)

In the matter of the George Kessler road; upon the request of T. E. J. Duffy ordered that said matter be reopened for the purpose of taking testimony in regard to the question of damages; and further ordered said question of damages be continued, and that the Commissioners look over the land in question.

In the matter of the C. J. Sundquist road; report presented by the County Surveyor, and action on said matter continued and May 1st, 1914, set as the time for hearing on the same.

In the matter of the vacation of a portion of Gateway; plat for the vacation of a certain part of the town of Gateway presented and all the requirements of law not being met with, action thereon continued.

In the matter of Crook County vs. Alma D. Kratz; ordered that the case be discontinued in this Court and that the District Attorney be directed to move for its dismissal in the Circuit Court of this County. (See order.)

In the matter of the S. F. Santeson road; ordered that upon the completion of the work by Mr. Santeson, an order be drawn in his favor on the road fund for the sum of $1000.

In the matter of the Court House doors; ordered that the janitor of the court house be instructed to have the outer doors of the court house hung to swing outward in compliance with the State law for public buildings.

In the matter of the Antelope Canyon bridge; whereas the Coast Bridge Company has put in its bill in accordance with its contract of December 5, 1913, and whereas Commissioner Bayley has inspected the material now at Redmond, it is hereby ordered that the amount of the bill be paid in the sum of $2150.00 and that warrants be drawn accordingly.

In the matter of the Witholt bridge; Whereas the Coast Bridge Company has delivered at Redmond.
