CRESCENT.

(Special to The Bulletin)

CRESCENT, March 21.—George Mayfield, a wealthy rancher of this district, who has spent the winter at Fort Rock, was at his ranch Sunday and Monday, looking after cattle interests.

F. C. Regan, of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, was in Crescent the past week. He spoke of the great interest that is manifested in that section of Oklahoma, in the land opening of the Deschutes and Paulina forests, and predicts a rush of settlers. It is probable, from the reports that have come in, that there will be five applicants for every quarter section.

Delbert Sly of La Pine has been driving stage for Carrier Street, between La Pine and Crescent the past week.

Tom Jolly came in on the La Pine stage Monday and is registered at the Crescent. He is editor of the Silver Lake Leader and is in Crescent on a visit.

Earl Austin of the forest service, and B. G. Stevens, went to Bend Monday in Mr. Austin's car. He returned Wednesday, accompanied by Supervisor Merritt, of the Bend forestry service, the latter returning Thursday.

H. C. Ice came down from his trap line at Summit Lake, and stopped in Crescent Tuesday on his way to Bend.

Hans Zimmerman, who has put in a season of successful trapping near Crescent, returned to town Tuesday.

A St. Patrick's party was enjoyed by a large number of guests at the home of Mrs. E. A. Segar Tuesday evening. Cards and a number of games appropriate to the occasion were the diversions and a delicious midnight luncheon was served.

Among the out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hamner, A. Oldenberg, accompanied by M. Johnson came in from Bend Thursday, on his way to Odell Lake where he has charge of the fish hatchery.

At Crescent he was joined by Tom McCord who will work with Oldenberg. The party bought supplies in Crescent and were taken as far as the Jones ranch ten miles west of town by Walter Smith. From there on they will make the journey on foot and pull the provisions on hand sleds.

Jimmy Morrison, formerly cook at the Hotel Crescent, has accepted a similar position at the La Pine Hotel. He went down the first of the week.

Wanda Stevens, the two year old daughter of B. G. Stevens of this city, fell from a high chair last Tuesday, in such a way as to splinter the bones in her right wrist. The injury was very painful, but it is thought that with careful treatment, it will heal successfully.

Pearl Lykes was in from his ranch Wednesday.

The Ladies Civic Club was entertained Friday by Mrs. D. A. Jones, assisted by Mrs. Walter Smith, at the La Follette residence. The semi-annual election of officers was held, with the following results:

President, Mrs. D. A. Jones; vice president, Mrs. F. M. Cleaves; secretary, Mrs. Walter Smith; treasurer, Alice M. Lund. After the business session, delicious refreshments were served and the meeting adjourned. The next meeting will be with Mrs. F. M. Cleaves.

The first out of town machine of the season put in its appearance Friday evening. It was driven by R. P. Schmeer, proprietor of the Redmond Hotel. The large machine is one of the new Case models and an exceptionally fine car. Mr. Schmeer is demonstrating this make of automobile.

The other occupants were Fred Richards, traveling for the Blumauer-Frank Co. of Portland, and Frank Rose, of Seattle. The latter is here to regain his health, and he spoke of the noticeable improvement since coming to the higher altitude. Mr. Rose will spend the summer at the Hoy ranch west of Crescent.

LIDLAW.

(Special to The Bulletin)

LIDLAW, March 22.—Mrs. Hall of the "Riverside Inn" has been on the sick list for some time, but is on the road to recovery.

The "medicine show" proved a great success in this vicinity, drawing large crowds from in and about town. "Billy" Thorp won the prize as the homeliest man, but we don't think he merits it, any more than Mrs. Hanson does for the lady wearing the "shoe of No. 9." "Pete" Heasley is the "most popular bachelor," and Oakes Wallace the lucky fellow who drew the diamond, and everyone is using "Hiss soap."

Two of the Diebling's children are sick with the measles, also two of the Marion children.

School is in session again this week after a vacation of a week on account of the measles.

Reports from Portland say that Mrs. Mock is rapidly improving and will return home about Easter time.

Mrs. Painter has had charge of the Riverside Inn, since Mrs. Hall has been ill.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wimer are in their new home, enjoying "modern conveniences" so rare in this vicinity.

The new tennis court is progressing rapidly and will soon be the scene of some lively games.

The Laidlaw Sunday school is preparing an Easter program, with special music.

Mrs. Rogers has been quite sick for about a week, but is reported better.

Mr. Lemch is going into the poultry business in earnest, already having about 200 young chicks, and a 250 egg incubator about to hatch.
