

CONVENTION IS WELL ATTENDED

EPWORTH LEAGUE IN SESSION HERE

Saturday and Sunday Were Busy Days at Methodist Church—Program and Entertainment Well Conducted—Services Enjoyed

By E. C. Newham.

The Epworth League convention, held last Saturday and Sunday in the Methodist church proved a great success and has set a high precedent for all such gatherings in the future.

On Saturday morning several automobiles were at the station to convey the delegates to their respective places and ample and generous accommodations were found for all the visitors. Over 50 delegates came from out of town at reduced rates.

Meetings were held morning, afternoon and evening on Saturday and Sunday. The program proved to be all that was promised. Musical numbers and recitations were interspersed throughout the proceedings which were well appreciated. Words of welcome were given by the three local ministers which were cordially responded to by Rev. J. W. Mayes, of Madras. Papers were read by delegates from different chapters which provoked some interesting and profitable discussions.

On Saturday afternoon an "Institute hour" was conducted under the various sections. The first department was spoken to by Dr. W. H. Selleck of The Dalles. Rev. H. F. Pemberton of Dufur spoke on the "second department." Rev. Charles McCaughey of Spokane addressed the "third department" and Rev. J. W. Mayes of Madras the "fourth department." This was followed by a business meeting.

On Saturday evening the Rev. H. F. Pemberton, who is a retired missionary from Africa, gave an address on "Worldwide missions," which stirred all the hearers with interest and enthusiasm.

At 6:30 a. m. Sunday morning 50 young people gathered at the church for the "Morning Watch," an hour of devotion which left its impress on all the services of the day.

The Sunday school was addressed by Rev. H. F. Pemberton and at the morning service, which was presided over by the local pastor, Dr. W. H. Selleck preached a powerful sermon on "Consecration."

After this the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was administered in which the preacher was assisted by all the ministers present and in which a large number of delegates and friends participated.

About 1 o'clock a lunch was served on "Drake's lawn." The lovely weather and beautiful surroundings contributed much to the enjoyment of the repast.

In the afternoon meeting resolutions were read and responded to and the Rev. Chas. McCaughey of Spokane gave an illuminating and inspiring address which will long be remembered, on "The essential thing in the Christian Religion."

Dr. Selleck also addressed a special meeting for women.

On Sunday evening "An Ideal devotional meeting" was conducted by Miss Beatrice Olson and Miss Aurel Moore of the Madras chapter. Mr. D. H. Williams, the superintendent of the sub-district also spoke. The latter also showed much executive ability in all the meetings of the session.

At 8 p. m. Dr. Selleck again preached to a large and appreciative congregation. The Presbyterian church was closed and all came over to unite in this splendid service.

The building was attractively decorated with manzanita, flowers and emblems. The meetings throughout were all well attended and proved to be a source of inspiration and enthusiasm. Our thanks are due to all those who contributed by entertainment and in other ways to the splendid success of this convention.

KING OF NORWAY HIT A SNAG IN CAREY LAND ACT

When William Foss Asked His Ex-Ruler He Got a Bum Steer—Haakon Reckoned Without West.

When William Foss of the La Pine country now, but of Norway in days gone by, considered taking up land under the Morson project he went straight to headquarters for advice. No lawyers or state officials for him! No sir. When he wanted advice, he wanted it from the very top. So he went to Prince Charles of Denmark, the King of Norway.

He wanted to know if an investment in Carey Act lands was a good one. And when the head of the house of Oregon presumably was behind the scheme, and that the United States presumably was behind it too, he told his ex-subject to fire ahead; it must be safe.

Today Mr. Foss owns 200 acres under the Deschutes Land Company's project. He hasn't got his water yet, and probably isn't sure which to blame—the King who gave him the bum steer or Governor West of Oregon, whom some of his neighbors accuse of holding up the development of the project.

NEW MACHINERY ARRIVES.

The machinery ordered by J. Edward Larsen for the new department of his steam laundry business has begun to arrive, the dry cleaning apparatus being already here. The steam press and cleaning apparatus is expected in 15 or 20 days. Hood Maxwell, who recently came to Bend from Texas, is in charge of this branch of the laundry business.

NEW BAKERY OWNERSHIP

In taking over the American Bakery, as announced last week, Shriner & Huey have prepared to make an extra effort to meet the wants of the public in the baking line. They are now employing a new baker and at their store on Wall street expect to carry always a complete line of bread, cakes and pastries as well as fresh fruits and candies.

You can get your shoes shined while you wait or have them shined while you are being shaved. Ladies need not hesitate in coming in to get their shoes shined, the modern billiard parlor is far from what the pool hall used to be. We guarantee you no embarrassment should you wish to bring your children to get their hair trimmed, your shoes shined or purchase candy. THE METROPOLITAN.—Adv.

BURNS ROAD IN GOOD SHAPE.

H. G. Ferris returned last week from his first trip to Burns this season. He reports that the roads are now well dried and in very good condition. Ranchers in the country between here and the interior town are all busy breaking ground for planting and the indications point to a much larger acreage in crop this year than ever before. Burns merchants, almost to a man, reports Mr. Ferris, plan to do their trading through Bend this year, being so tired of the railroad delays in their part of the country that they do not want to patronize even the piece of line already built. On his trip out Mr. Ferris took with him the China pheasants for the Burns country sent in some time ago from the State game farm at Corvallis.

MADSEN IS ASSESSED COSTS.

Considerable interest was shown last Thursday in the action brought against P. B. Giles of Deschutes on the complaint of K. P. Madsen. The complaint was based on an assault alleged by Mr. Madsen to have been committed on him by Mr. Giles following a fight between their dogs. A number of Deschutes residents came up to testify. The jury found in favor of the defendant and Justice Eastes assessed the costs against the complainant.
