injuries received during a runaway Sunday, in which he was a prominent actor. No damage was done horses or vehicle.
A. H. Rhode was a dinner guest at the Truesdale home Sunday.
A delightful program by the Union Sunday school and Easter address by Rev. Ragan were the means of drawing a large crowd to the Wilson school house Sunday evening. Several appropriate selections were rendered by the choir led by Miss Elba Lindquist under whose able direction the program was prepared. The remaining $20 owed on the organ was subscribed and the Sunday school now possesses an organ free from debt.
Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Sears and Miss Orisa Sears of Prineville visited at the D. A. Yates home Sunday where an Easter dinner was the attraction. Mr. and Mrs. Guy Sears and Miss Ada were guests also.
Quite a number of young folks from Redmond attended the Easter services at the Wilson school house Sunday evening.

Why It Suits Particular People.
Foley's Honee and Tar Compound is prompt and effective for coughs, colds, croup, hoarseness, bronchial coughs, and throat troubles. Thomas Verron, Hancock, Mich., writes: "Foley's Honee and Tar quickly relieves tickling throat and stops the cough with no bad after effect." It contains no opiates and is pure. That's why it suits particular people. Patterson Drug Co.—Adv.
