summer. Mr. Riggs is boarding with the family.

Geo. Hobbs and Reeves Willcoxon gave a dance at the former's place Friday evening. Those present report an enjoyable time.

R. L. Moore and sons finished putting in forty acres of oats on the McCaffery-Wuriltzer place last week. Hobbs Bros. also seeded another forty to oats last week.

J. A. Riggs made a trip to Prineville Friday. Miss Gledys and Hazel accompanied him home for a few days visit with their parents.

Mrs. Rova Cochran of Redmond came out Friday to be present at the dance in the evening, remaining over until Sunday, a guest at the Willcoxon home.

Mrs. W. G. Mustard was hostess to the Aid Thursday. Besides members of that organization Mrs. Mustard had as her guests several neighbors. A pleasant time was passed, refreshments being served before the hour of departure.

Mr. and Mrs. Cooper and family of Prineville autoed through this section Sunday morning on their way to Bend. Miss Pauline Truesdale and Margaret Geyer accompanied them out, spending the day the former's home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Bussett were dinner guests at the Brown home Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Collins, W. Ellins, and family of Prineville spent Sunday in this section and so also did Mr. and Mrs. Carey Foster and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Foster and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Haven and family were guests at a Sunday dinner at the Bert Walcott home.

About a dozen Powell Butte crack shots held a rabbit shoot Sunday, much sport was had and a goodly number of rabbits killed.

Geo. Morgan and Reeves Willcoxon were dinner guests at the E. N. Hall home Sunday.

A car load of tankage has been received in Redmond shipped from a Portland firm and the Powell Butte Butte pork producers who placed the orders for this feed have been notified to come for it.

J. A. Riggs went out on the desert Sunday to see how his steers were getting along. He reports the stock as doing nicely.

Harry Spear is busy setting a ten acre orchard on his homestead. The trees came from the La Follette nursery and Guy La Follette is helping to set them.

A fine bunch of beef steers from the S. S. Stearns ranch of Crooked river passed through this section on Monday.

The Powell Butte Sorosis is to be entertained by the Shumia Literary Club of Prineville Saturday afternoon at which time Madams Winneck and Gray will be hostesses at the home of the former.

Joe Shearer and Ross Bussett, ditch riders, had a hurry up call to the stove pipe line flame. A jam of weeds caused the difficulty.

POWELL BUTTE, April 19.—The showers of the past week are bringing on the spring sown grain splendidly.

The unusual amount of early warm weather this spring has brought up the volunteer crop of potatoes already.

Gardens are well up now, lettuce, radishes, peas, turnips, etc., with the more tender vegetables to come on a little later.

Our local nurseryman, Guy La Follette delivered a large consignment of fruit trees and bushes at the Powell Butte post office last Friday. They were for E. L. Johnson, Jacob Burkhardt, A. D. Morrill and others. There were a thousand trees delivered.

C. L. Frost, who has been quite sick, is able to be about again.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Foster and family and Mr. and Mrs. Carey Foster and family from Prineville spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Foster.

Last week Mr. and Mrs. Foster, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wooley, Miss Kinneil and Ross Davis went up to the ice cave.

Word comes to us today that Clark Morse had a serious runaway last week, on horseback, running into Melvin Foster's buggy and badly smashing it.

LAIDLAW.

(Special to The Bulletin)

LAIDLAW, April 20.—Mrs. H. Austin, who has been visiting the Norcott and Flickinger families the past week, has returned to her home in Waterloo, Iowa.

Lola Marion, who was seriously cut on a wire fence, is again able to attend school.

A number of Laidlaw families went out on picnic excursions Sunday, but the wind made the day rather unpleasant.

Everyone is planning on a good time at the "Good Roads" picnic next Saturday. All the men are to do their part in road work and the ladies are to serve a fine dinner near the Swallow Ditch.

The Laidlaw Sunday school has paid all their monthly installments on their piano to October. The Piano Club feel they can take a little vacation now.

Fred Wallace Jr., is again able to be out after having the measles.

Master Webster Ross has been on
