

Rexall Liver SaltsTHE IDEAL HOT WEATHER
SALINE LAXATIVEA DOSE AT SEVEN GIVES RELIEF BEFORE
ELEVEN2 1/4 Oz. Bottle 25c.
5 1/4 Oz. Bottle 50c.
14 Oz. Bottle $1.00RECOMMENDED AND
GUARANTEED BYPatterson Drug Co.*LOCAL NEWS ITEMS

Mrs. O'Kane entertained at 500 Friday.

The Skuse residence is being renovated.

Ted Becker was up from Laidlaw Monday.

James Ryan is in Portland on a business trip.

Mrs. Powelson returned from Portland Saturday.

Mrs. Forbes gave a dinner party Saturday night.

T. E. J. Duffy, of Prineville, was here over Sunday.

Mrs. McIntosh is in Redmond this week on business.

J. N. B. Gerking was in town from Laidlaw yesterday.

County Commissioner Bayley was in town on Monday.

E. E. Varco was in town from Brothers on Monday.

Mrs. Andrus of Elgin, Ill., is visiting Miss Nell Markel.

J. W. Moore of Redmond was here playing tennis Sunday.

Carl H. Hatch has been appointed post master at Laidlaw.

Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Howard came up to the dance Saturday night from Deschutes.

P. W. Heasley of the Tumalo Project was here Saturday.

Miss Louise Halvorsen returned from Hood River Sunday.

Ed Hourk of Crescent came down in Dr. Coe's car Sunday.

Cora Sather and Mrs. Morton have returned from Portland.

The Hudson family went to Klamath Falls over the week end.

E. G. Hodson of Prineville was registered at the Bend on Saturday.

J. E. Engelbrecht was down from his ranch at La Pine on Monday.

Wool sales will be held at Hunts Ferry and Madras on Saturday.

A. T. Shaver, the Hampton well driller, has been in town this week.

A. L. French returned yesterday from a two weeks trip to Portland.

J. H. Haner was over from Prineville on Saturday and again on Monday.

Perry O. South from Crescent was registered at the Wright on Thursday.

Karl Keller of Hampton was in town on Monday, registered at the Wright.

Saturday night the Subscription Dancing Club held a dance at Sather's Hall.

Chief of Police Roberts has commenced collecting dog license money for 1914.

Miss Eleanor Wetmore of Prineville has been visiting at the Lewis homestead.

P. B. Johnson, the Millican storekeeper, was registered at the Wright on Saturday.

The roof on the new Wenandy garage is finished and a cement floor is being laid.

Deputy Labor Commissioner William A. Dalsiel was inspecting local plants last week.

The Royal Neighbors will give a social dance at Sather's Hall next Tuesday evening.

E. L. Clark and Carl Wise of La Pine were registered at the Pilot Butte on Sunday.

Maurice Cashman went to Crescent on Friday to start residence on a homestead claim.

A. M. Moore has come in from his homestead in the Whitaker valley to spend the summer.

Puritan Undermuslins

Just as a certain dress-maker's name may suggest satisfactorily made garments to you, so the name "Puritan" means beautiful, well-fitting, well-wearing lingerie to all who have ever worn undermuslins bearing the Puritan label.

We have Puritan garments for women, misses and children and the line comprises corset covers, princess slips, skirts, drawers, combination suits and gowns.

Prices are no higher than you are accustomed to pay.

A Puritan hanger on every garment.

R. M. Smith Clothing Co.
LEARN THE WAY.

B. A. Siford and G. L. Goodelle of Portland were registered at the Altamont last week.

The marriage of J. C. Rhodes to Miss Ellen Fleming at Monroe, Washington, occurs today.

Miss Emily Schreder returned last week and has gone to her father's homestead near Rolyat.

Repairs have been made in the sample room at the Wright Hotel recently damaged by fire.

H. H. Palmer of the Redmond Spokesman was in town on Thursday registered at the Pilot Butte.

Wednesday night Mrs. Putnam entertained at a Oriental fancy costume party and dance at her home.

County Commissioners Brown and Bayley were here this morning, leaving for Prineville after noon.

Mrs. A. M. Lara is in town, having arrived from Tacoma Monday morning and probably will remain here.

G. W. Raper, R. W. Eaton, A. W. Hall and Harry Riley were in town from La Pine on business yesterday.

L. D. Wiest has been appointed administrator of the White estate, replacing A. C. Lucas, who disappeared.

A heavy thunderstorm passed over town on Monday evening, slightly over a tenth of an inch of rain falling.

F. N. Ray came into town on Saturday from the road work at Buckhorn Canyon. He expects to return soon.

W. S. Henderson, a homesteader, was here Monday purchasing lumber to be hauled 160 miles to the south-east.

John Dubois has moved his office into the old D. I. P. building on Ohio street, now the property of D. M. Davis.

Henkle & Ryan sold one of their automobiles to A. T. Shaver, who lives in the southeast homestead country.

Edwin P. Ingle, representative of The Southern Pacific, is in town today in the interests of the Sunset Magazine.

The train Monday night was delayed because of a washout and did not reach Bend until five o'clock Tuesday morning.

Dr. A. A. Soule and a party of friends from Klamath Falls, passed through town yesterday on their way to Warm Springs.

A. L. Hunter and family have gone to Ashland, whence, after a brief visit, he will go to Redlands, Calif., to make his home.

P. C. Garrison's mother was here last week, but was called away because of an accident that occurred to her husband in Portland.

Let Wyse do your cleaning.—Adv.

T. H. Foley made a trip on Saturday to Cline Falls, Redmond and Deschutes in the car which he recently bought from E. F. Greene.

The Baptist Woman's Mission Circle meets with Mrs. A. M. Kimbrell in Lytle Thursday afternoon at 2:30. The subject will be "China."

W. R. Parkhill, of the Reclamation Survey, was in town on Monday getting equipment for a survey camp to be established below Laidlaw.

Mrs. McIntosh and Miss Williams spent Saturday in Redmond. During their absence Mrs. Morehouse cared for the McIntosh millinery store here.

H. E. Ruffe, George Aten and Mrs. Mary Benn were in town today from their homesteads. Mr. Ruffe wishes to rent or buy a one-man stump puller.

Mrs. Ada B. Millican started for Chicago yesterday, but after reaching Bend was taken ill and was obliged to return to her home to the south east.

Howard Gerrish, who is employed at Shuey's store, has been sick this week. During his absence from the store, Fred Lucas has been driving the team.

Matt Clark, formerly right of way man for the Oregon Trunk, is actively engaged in buying up timber claims in various parts of the adjacent country.

Ralph Spencer, of The Bulletin, left Thursday with his family for a week's camping trip up the river. During his absence Harry Wyse has been helping in the shop.

The Pioneer Phone Company is installing a new line of poles toward Deschutes addition and soon will put in new phones in that district, including one at Chief Robert's residence.

A recent issue of the Pacific Semaphore, the publication of the Harri-man railroad employees, contains extensive extracts from a speech delivered some months ago by C. S. Hudson.

J. J. Adams, the contractor who was here last year, died in Portland Sunday. Practically since leaving Bend Mr. Adams had suffered from heart trouble, being confined in a Portland hospital for several months. He is survived by his wife and little girl.

P. W. Jones of Fort Atkinson, Wis. arrived in town on Saturday to visit E. F. Greene.

Mrs. Floyd Dement, who went to Portland a few weeks ago for an operation, is reported as doing well.

TO MY FRIENDS IN BEND.
At the Commercial Club meeting on Saturday I shall serve a special luncheon and I shall have an important announcement to make to my friends in Bend. I hope that they will all be present.

Again, the third and we hope the last time, we have the services of a shoe shining artist, Mr. Ed Walker arrived Monday morning from Seattle. Bring your shoes, with or without feet. Open Sunday forenoon, bath, candy, tobacco, shines, etc. The Metropolitan.—Adv.

Let Wyse do your cleaning.—Adv.

CALL FOR BIDS.
Sealed bids will be received at La Pine for School District No. 43, for the building of a basement and furnishing material for same. The basement to be built of stone. Bids must be in before 12 o'clock noon, July 2, 1914. The school board reserves the right to reject any and all bids. Plans and specifications may be seen at La Pine. C. V. Carmichael. 13-16c

GET YOUR Warm Weather Wear at Mannheimer's

LUZON TISSUES

IN PINK, BLUE, TAN, BLACK AND LAVENDER STRIPES—
JUST THE THING FOR THAT COOL SUMMER DRESS,
PRICED AT 15 CENTS PER YARD

LINWEAVE WHITE GOODS

THE GUARANTEED WHITE GOODS FROM
..... 15 CENTS TO 40 CENTS PER YARD

DEPENDON UNDERWEAR

LISLE VESTS FROM 10 CENTS TO 50 CENTS
LISLE UNION SUITS FROM 35 CENTS TO $2.50

LADIES' AND CHILDREN'S OUTING BLOUSES

FROM 65 CENTS TO $1.50

A COMPLETE STOCK OF SUMMER FOOTWEAR

OXFORDS IN TAN—GUN METAL—PATENT LEATHER—
WHITE NUBUCK—WHITE CANVAS—SUDE
FROM $2.25 TO $4.00

SHOP AT

Mannheimer'sNOTICE TO ODD FELLOWS.

The work of the 3rd degree will be put on at the next meeting, on Monday night. Refreshments will be served. All visiting brothers are invited to attend.

A special luncheon and a special announcement at the Commercial Club, Wright Hotel, Saturday. Everybody come.

LIBRARY CLUB MEETING.

The quarterly meeting of the Ladies Library Club will be held at the library rooms on June 23. At this time reports will be received from the ladies who have been earning money for the library. Tea will be served and it is hoped that all the ladies who are interested in the work of the club will be present.

FOR RENT—Two room suites furnished for light house keeping. Henkle & Ryan. 12tf—Adv.

GIFTS TO LIBRARY.

The Public Library has recently received gifts of the following books: "Precious Waters," Chisholm, from Mrs. J. E. Ryan; "The Call of the Wild," London, from Mrs. McKee; "The Fortune Seeker," Southworth, from Mrs. Furst; "Dry Land Farming," Shaw, from J. H. Corbett.

Get Wise, Let Wyse do it.—Adv.

PICNIC ON SUNDAY.

The Fraternal Brotherhood will hold a picnic with fishing up river on Sunday. Two auto trucks will take the party to the picnic grounds, leaving from in front of Sather's store at seven o'clock. The fare for gentlemen is $1.00.

Ladies, the Skuse Hardware Company have a complete new line of white enamel ware.—Adv.

MUSICAL RECITAL FRIDAY.

Miss Eva Graves' Fundamental Music Training School will give an extensive music story program at Sather's Hall Friday evening at 8 o'clock, when diplomas will be presented to the four pupils who have completed the twenty weeks course. It will be an invitation affair. The graduating class is comprised of Jeanette Keyes, Mildred Klein, Ida Niswonger, and Gladys Sather. An elaborate and attractive program will be rendered.

Don't Lose Sleep Coughing at Night.

Take Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. It glides down your throat and spreads a healing, soothing coating over the inflamed, tickling surface. That's immediate relief. It loosens up the tightness in your chest, stops stuffy wheezy breathing, eases distressing, racking, tearing coughs. Children love it. Refuse any substitutes. Contains no opiates. —Adv. Patterson Drug Co.

The Largest Insurance Agency in Central Ore.

"It's the way we write our policies."

Our policies pay 100 cents on the dollar.
We have over 400 satisfied policy holders.
The largest insurers in Crook County are our leading customers

Bend Insurance Agency

First National Bank Building Bend, Ore.
POLICIES THAT PROTECT.

For YOUR Outing

8x10—8 Oz. Wall Tent $7.50
9 1/2x12—8 Oz. Wall Tent $9.25
12x14—10 Oz. Wall Tent $15.00
12x16—10 Oz. Wall Tent $17.00
7x 7—8 Oz. Wedge Tent $4.25
7x 9—8 Oz. Wedge Tent $5.00
6x14—10 Oz. Bed Sheet $3.00
ROSE CITY AND APPELL'S Water Bags, Small Size
75 Cents; Large Size 80 Cents Each.
Sheet Iron Camp Stove, 4 Hole with Oven $1.75
Heavy Double 1 1/4 Camp Blanket $2.00

E. A. SATHER

E. & W.
Red Man
Brand
Collars

at

Mannheimer's

M

THE ARCADIAN RANGE
The finest Range built in the World.

For Sale by
Skuse Hardware Company