AD CLUB COMING HERE IN FORCE

PORTLAND EXCURSION NEXT WEEK

Despite Adverse Conditions Attendance Will be Large—Bend Already Receiving Much Publicity—News-paper Men Will Come Along.

Bend and Central Oregon are to be honored exceptionally next week when the Portland Ad Club excursion comes here. Even though everything in the way of depressed business conditions and the unbusinessness due to war is working against the outing and discouraging attendance, a big excursion is sure. The Ad Club committee in charge set 100 as the maximum attendance, and while it is probable that figure will not be reached, the excursion is sure to be one of the largest ever sent out from Portland, and certainly many times larger than ever paid an official visit to a town the size of Bend. The excursion arrives Sunday, September 6, leaving at midnight Monday.

Elaborate plans for the entertainment of the guests are under way. But because their entertainment is to be a secret from the Ad Clubbers until they actually are here publication of the details is prohibited. Suffice to say that the Commercial Club and Emblem Club committees are busy arranging matters. The Emblem Club addition to its home is about completed, and there a banquet to the visitors and local people will be served with accommodations for close to 200.

Bend is receiving all kinds of publicity already from the excursion. And of course when it gets here, and after it leaves, the town will come in for a big share of attention, for each of the Portland papers is sending one of its best men to "cover" the junket.

The weekly paper issued by the Ad Club and mailed to each one of its members, which is called the "Advertiser," is devoting a couple of pages each week to boosting the excursion and boosting Bend and urging a big enrollment on the excursion. Here is a sample of one of the "boosts," written by Marshall N. Dana of the Oregon Journal, who will be with the excursion.

"Let me give a little unasked testimony about the excursion to Bend, September 6 and 7.

"It will stand out as a landmark in the life of every man who participates.

"Not alone because of the fact that thousands of dollars will be spent in caring for us.

"Not entirely for the reason that a new banquet hall is building especially for us and a wonderful menu is preparing.

"Not altogether, either, for the vivid original entertainment that will be provided, the splendid hospitality that will be extended, the scintillant stunts that will be pulled off.

"But also because cordial Bend is bestirring as never before for the reception of visitors. Greater honor could not be done any guests than Bend has awaiting for us.

"The busy, beautiful city on the Deschutes—the community that nestles on the morning side of the snow-capped peaks—will be joyously ours, and to miss the entrancing trip would be like ignoring the gracious offices of earth's rarest treasure—a wholesome, unselfish friend."

"MISUNDERSTANDING," SAYS ROSCOE HOWARD

Never Intended to Open Company's Books to Water Users, Now Declares C. O. I. Co. Manager.

No opportunity is to be given to examine the books of the C. O. I. Co., according to directors of the Water Users Association who were seen in town yesterday. It was understood by them at the meeting held here on July 25 that the books would be opened to their inspection, General Manager Howard having said at that time he was ready to do this. Since then they say they have approached Mr. Howard to arrange for the examination and have met with a refusal, or at best, they say, with the offer of an examination so hedged about with restrictions as to make it a mere farce.

In answer to a telephone inquiry this morning for his side of the case Mr. Howard asserted that a misunderstanding had arisen as to his statement made at the meeting of the Water Users on July 25. He had no intention, he said, to open his books to an audit such as the association now seems to be planning. Not only he would not have authority to do this but he could not subject the company to the expense that would be incident to an examination in which his clerks and book keepers would be in constant use. He has told the directors, he says, that if they will indicate in writing just what they want to know from the company's books he will submit their statement to his directors and then inform the water users what they may have.

WARRANTS CALLED IN

Ten Per Cent Penalty on Taxes Not Paid by September First.

PRINEVILLE, Aug. 26.—County Treasurer Ralph Jordan announces that all registered General Fund warrants up to and including Reg. No. 172 will be paid when presented. Interest stops August 27, 1914.

He also again calls attention to the fact that a ten per cent penalty becomes due on all taxes unpaid September first.

IMPROVING CLUB QUARTERS.

The Commercial Club is arranging attractive quarters in the Johnson building on Wall street. The large store room, on the south side of the building, has been secured, the city paving part of the rent and also holding council meetings there. The Club is installing comfortable chairs and other furniture, and plans to maintain a room not only for public meetings of all kinds, but one that also will prove a comfortable place for people to gather.

EXPLAINS ARRANGEMENT.

In connection with the new cooperative car rate from Central Oregon points to Portland on hogs, J. R. Hardy of the Oregon Trunk explains that this rate, which was put into effect by both Deschutes Valley Lines, applies on no routes except those in Central Oregon. The carload rate applies from the first point where shipments are received, and the shipments are debited with a charge of $7.50 for each subsequent stop where more hogs are placed in the car.

FLOWER SHOW GREAT SUCCESS

MRS. E. A. SMITH IS BIG WINNER

This Year There Were 373 Entries—Mrs. C. S. Hudson Won Cup for Best General Display—Ladies Serve Refreshments To Aid.

The third annual flower show, held under the auspices of the Ladies Library Club, was held Saturday, and in attendance, number of entries and beauty of the flowers displayed proved the largest and most successful yet held. In all there were 373 individual entries, as against 321 for last year, and more than 100 prizes were awarded for cut flowers, besides many for vegetables and for children's exhibits.

This year the Emblem Club cup for the most attractive general display of cut flowers was won by Mrs. C. S. Hudson. Mrs. E. A. Smith was awarded second prize and in addition really carried off the laurels of the show, for she won seven first prizes and four seconds, as well as six firsts in vegetable exhibits. Mrs. Putnam won seven firsts and five seconds.

A large crowd gathered at the Bean building from two o'clock until ten. Refreshments were served and the receipts from this and sale of flowers brought in $54.70 to the Library. The judges were Mrs. Morrison, Mrs. F. A. Oshme of Portland, a sister of Mrs. J. A. Eastes, and W. D. Barnes of Laidlaw.

There were so many exhibits, and many of them were so large, that when all were in place many were crowded, making it difficult to judge and hard to properly display some of the exhibits, a fault which will be overcome next year by providing more tables.

Below is the complete list of the prize winners:

DEMOCRATIC CANDI- DATE ON RECORD

East Side Man Says The Old Timers are Lining Up For County Division—He Believes Move Will Carry in East End of Crook County

"I favor county division. I believe it will carry. Over in my section it will get a good majority, unless I am greatly mistaken," so said E. B. Knox of Post, Democratic candidate for the office of sheriff.

Mr. Knox added that he believes it is only fair that the people of the old county give the move the required 25 per cent vote, so that those in the new territory may have a fair opportunity to get the new county, if they want it, or remain, if they want to.

"If the majority of the voters most affected want division, they should have it," said Mr. Knox. He added that he believed the move will receive a majority vote in old Crook county, while of course assured of great support in the northern end, in Jefferson county.

Mr. Knox and others bring the news that all the "Old Timers" seem to be lined up for division. In the past they have felt that the time was not ripe for the move, but now they are convinced that it is wise for all concerned to let the west side districts conduct their own affairs.

Mr. Knox's home is about 30 miles southeast of Prineville. He spent Friday here, meeting many local men. He will base his campaign on strict law enforcement and promise of economic administration, should he be elected. Mr. Knox is himself a heavy taxpayer.

DIES OF APPOPLEXY

Joe Tokampa Succumbs While Walking to Bend from Laidlaw.

The body of Joe Tokampa was found early Sunday morning on the road between Bend and Laidlaw, where he had fallen and died as the result of an apoplectic stroke. Examination by physicians at the Coroner's inquest showed that a clot of blood had formed on the left side of the brain, causing practically instantaneous death.

Tokampa, who is a Getman, was walking from Camp 6 on the Tumalo Project toward Bend, when death overtook him. Coroner Poindexter and Dr. Rosenberg came over in the Sheriff's car before noon Sunday, a coroner's jury was formed and an inquest held, with the result above outlined. Funeral services were held Monday at 10 o'clock in the Catholic church, and interment followed at the cemetery.

Joe Tokampa has two brothers here, Herman and Barney, who live near the Griffin mill. He came here in May, 1913.

COURT DOCKET IS LARGEST YET

THREE MURDER TRIALS SCHEDULED

Most Important Case is That of Henry McDowell, Who Killed Avery Scoggin—McPherson and McDaniel are up for Retrial.

PRINEVILLE, Aug. 24.—With the heaviest criminal docket in view in the history not only of Crook county, but of the Seventh Judicial District, circuit court will convene here Tuesday, September 8, in a little more than two weeks. There will be three murder trials alone which will strain the prosecuting attorney's office to the utmost, throwing more work upon that official than has ever been the lot of a public prosecutor in the district.

Aside from the murder trials, John McPherson, who was awarded a new trial by the supreme court, will appear for trial. Jack Harper, who was secretly indicted for a statutory offense at the March term, and was apprehended at Prineville, will stand trial, while there are a number of defendants that have been held to the grand jury in which new indictments will, no doubt, be returned. Court will not adjourn for three or four weeks.

Of most interest, perhaps, is the Scoggin case. Henry McDowell is in the county jail held without bonds on a charge of murder in the first degree for shooting Avery Scoggin at the breakfast table on July 31, the details of which were given at the time of the murder. It is likely that eminent counsel will be employed both by the state and the defendant for this trial. In connection with this case, on Tuesday of this week Mrs. Mollie B. Scoggin, widow of Avery Scoggin, was arrested, charged with being jointly responsible with Henry McDowell for the death of Scoggin. She was bound over to the grand jury after a hearing before Justice of the Peace A. K. Bowman. She was represented by N. G. Wallace, who defending Henry McDowell, H. S. Wilson of Prineville will defend both on trial in the circuit court, it is understood.

The evidence showed merely that Mrs. Scoggin and McDowell had a conversation a minute before the tragedy. McDowell left her on the front porch within a few feet of the place where her husband was murdered, went up stairs after the rifle and returned and killed her husband. Her attitude since the shooting has been one of protection and defense of McDowell rather than sorrow at her husband's demise.

R. G. Sheldon is in jail, charged with murder in the first degree for poisoning his infant son only a few hours old by giving it laudanum. The Seldons resided at the Crompton & Dea sawmill on Willow Creek at the time of the crime, which was last June.

Gaylord McDaniel, who shot and killed Herman Poch December 31, 1912, will be retried for murder in the second degree, the supreme court having awarded him a new trial. Mc-

Arrangements have just been completed for a ball game with the Prineville team to be played on the Bond street grounds on Sunday afternoon. A dance for the benefit of the local team will be given at Sather's Hall Saturday night.

Stretch the Value of Your Income

There are two ways of stretching your income—a wrong way and a right way.

You and your wife can pull on it from opposing ends until the long-suffering pay envelope gasps for breath. That's the wrong way.

Or you and the better half can get right down to brass tacks and work both ends against the middle so successfully that your income will stretch to a healthy bank account with us. That's the right way. Try it.
