Curious Result of a Tax. A curious thing happened when the English auctioneers were taxed. At first $5 a year, the duty was raised to $10 by Peel, but he relieved them of the necessity of taking out a license for beer, spirits, etc., when they sold these articles at auction. The consequence was that everywhere the auctioneers carried on the sale of beer and spirits for themselves until the abuse was stopped in 1864.

Cutting Him Short. "Little one," he began, "you are too pretty to be shooting biscuits in a factory. You ought to be on the stage." "Been there," snapped the waitress triendly. "What'll you have? Gimme the particulars of your ten cent order." —Louisville Courier-Journal.
